

HIGH LIFE

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., APRIL 13, 1962

Next year's HIGH LIFE staff is strictly for the birds! Sports Editor Ed Strange makes a feeble effort to chin himself; Managing Editor Mike Ingber and Editor Sherry Bundy play Tarzan and Jane. Betty Pritchard, News Editor, and Bob Lutz, Copy Editor, decide to be conventional (for a change!).

ADMINISTRATION DISTRIBUTES FACTS CONCERNING GRADUATION SCHEDULE

Information pertaining to seniors was recently distributed in home rooms by the GHS administration. This information included times and subjects of events.

The Baccalaureate Sermon will be given June 3 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church by Dr. John A. Redhead. Graduation exercises for the class of 1962 are to be Wednesday, June 6, at 8 p.m. in the Senior High Boys' Gym. The address will be given by Mr. Charlie W. Phillips, former principal of Greensboro Senior High School.

The annual Awards Day program will be Tuesday, May 22, with most of the awards going to members of the Senior Class. Class Day will be one week later, May 29, during two class periods. Sandra Parker is the student chairman of this program.

The faculty of GHS will honor the graduating students with a tea at the Alumni House at Woman's College in the late afternoon of May 16.

Approximately 11,500 invitations have been ordered, along with the small personal cards. They should be here and ready for distribution May 15. Diplomas have been ordered for all students expecting to graduate either in June or at the end of summer school. The cost of each diploma is $1.25, and

Bible Club Presents Panel Discussions

Parker Norman, sophomore; Ann Dees, junior; Don Cunningham, senior; and Hugh Hoyle, senior, recently presented a panel discussion at a Bible Club meeting.

The discussion was on "The Effects of Christian Living on Everyday Life." The program was held after dinner at the Mayfair Cafeteria.

Plans for the State Bible Club retreat at Vade Mecum are now being made.

payment will be made about May 20. Miniature diplomas will be given to all students through the courtesy of Vanstony Clothing Company.

The order for caps and gowns has been placed, and they should be here in late May. The rental price is $2.25, and payment on these will be made at the same time as the money for diplomas.

Former Principal Phillips To Speak At Graduation

Mr. Charlie W. Phillips

Mr. Charles Phillips, director of public relations at Woman's College, will be the featured speaker at the Greensboro High School Graduation Exercises, June 6, at 8 p.m. in the Boy's Gym.

Mr. Phillips, commonly called "Mr. Charlie," was the first man to occupy the position of principal at GHS. He relates that he also witnessed a name change (in the history of the school) when Central High became Greensboro Senior High.

History Honor Society Holds Buzz Session

At the recent History Honor Society meeting, the members conducted a buzz session on Latin America.

Reporters for the five groups participating in the session were Nora Wilson, Pete Bondanella, Beverly Wilkinson, and Ed White. Charles Bennett served as chairman.

The oath and history of the Society were also reviewed after the induction of new members.

For many years his position on the WC campus has involved placement of senior students in business, and he has secured positions for over 6,000 girls. He now holds the rank of professor.

Mr. Phillips is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and later earned his master's degree from Columbia. He has served Greensboro for over 40 years in such capacities as president of the NC Education Association and NC Council of Parents and Teachers, and as director of Girls' State with which he has been associated for 22 years.

Mr. Charlie and his family have long records in the educational field. His sister, Miss Carrie Phillips, recently retired as principal of Brooks School; and Mr. Guy Phillips, a brother, is on the faculty of UNC. Mr. Craig Phillips, the new superintendent of the Mecklenburg County Schools, is a nephew of Mr. Charlie.

He and Mrs. Phillips will celebrate their 38th anniversary in education this June. They have four children who are all graduates of GHS. The youngest is now a senior at WC.

Mr. Phillips has traveled approximately 250,000 miles in his work, and has averaged more than 200 speeches a year to groups around the world. After his retirement this year, he plans to continue his religious work and in association with the Rotary Club.

Bundy, Ingber Receive Top HIGH LIFE Post

Sherry Bundy, rising senior, will edit the forthcoming April 24 issue of HIGH LIFE and will assume editorial responsibilities for the 1962-1963 year.

Sherry will succeed Kaye Riley, the present editor of HIGH LIFE. She will be assisted by Mike Ingber, as managing editor.

Other Members

Betty Pritchard, rising junior, will head the news department as news editor, and will replace Linda Lael, who now holds this position. The copy desk will be managed by Bob Lutz, succeeding Susan Dixey.

The new feature editor will be Susan Wagoner, replacing Ann Barham. Susan, a rising senior, is the contributor of the current affairs column regularly featured in HIGH LIFE, "For Faculties Only."

Eddie Strange, rising junior, will be aided in the position of sports editor by Skip Bostick, the new assistant sports editor. Succeeding Jane Gibson as advertising manager will be Billy McCormick and Nadine Tyft, both rising juniors.

Photography duties will be assumed by Durwood Edwards, rising senior.

School Leader

Sherry, the new editor is an honor roll student, treasurer of Playmasters, and at present a reporter on HIGH LIFE. She has won several oration contests including the Voice of Democracy and Knights of Pythias'.

In addition, she has appeared in the Junior Class Play "Case of Springtime," the Playmasters play "Pride and Prejudice," and performed in the Torchlight Talent Show.

Mike Ingber, the new managing editor, in addition to being the present sports editor of HIGH LIFE, is in the History Honor Society, and is an honor roll student.

These students, in addition to the rest of the staff, which will be announced later, will publish HIGH LIFE April 24, in preparation for assuming their individual responsibilities next year.

Dr. Redhead To Conduct Baccalaureate Service

Greensboro High School will have its Baccalaureate Service at First Presbyterian Church, June 3 at 8 p.m.

Dr. John A. Redhead, who is to preach the Baccalaureate Sermon this year, was born in Centreville, Mississippi, December 31, 1905. He was graduated from Southwestern College, Memphis, Tennessee, and earned the B.D. and Th.M. degrees from Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia. He earned his D.D. Degree from Davidson College in 1937.

Although Dr. Redhead is now minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro, he is the former pastor of the Farmville Presbyterian Church, Farmville, Virginia; First Presbyterian Church, Tampa, Florida; and of Second Presbyterian Church (now Covenant Presbyterian Church) of Charlotte, North Carolina.

He has spoken on 25 college campuses during Religious Emphasis week and at Commencement. He was speaker at the National Radio Pulpit during the summers of 1950-53. He has also spoken on the Columbia Church of the Air over a coast to coast CBS network. From February 14, 1954, through May 9, 1954, and for ten weeks in 1955, he was guest speaker on the PROTESTANT HOUR for the Presbyterian U. S. Series.

Dr. Redhead is one of the four ministers appearing on the Television Series during 1955-1958 which is sponsored by the National Council of Churches. Others appearing with him were Dr. Ralph Sockman, of New York; Dr. Louis Evans, of Hollywood, California; and Dr. Donald Barnhouse, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Putting Your Faith to Work, Living All Your Life, Getting To Know God, Learning To Have

Chapel Hill To Greet Torchlight Members

"Unchanging duty in a changing world" will be the theme for the National Honor Society State Convention which will be held in Chapel Hill, April 27, 28, and 29, at the University of North Carolina.

Phyllis Winston, Mike Andrew, Jim Freedman, and Pete Bondanella, accompanied by Mrs. Mary B. Madlin, adviser will represent the Torchlight Chapter at GHS.

They will lead the discussion on "Supporting the United Nations and its International Agencies." They will also discuss the agencies that were established by the U. S. Government to help the backward areas of the world.

Faith, and Letting God Help You are five books which were written by Dr. Redhead which were published in 1958, 1960, 1954, 1955, and 1957, respectively. He also contributed to the books, Pulpit In the South, and Here Is My Method and a sermon to the book Sermons on Marriage and Family Life.

Dr. Redhead lives at 307 Fisher Park Circle with his wife and three children and is a member of the Kappa Sigma Phi Beta Kappa, and the Greensboro Country Club.

Dr. John A. Redhead

Ascots Combo To Play For Senior High Dance

Students at Senior High School will be given a free combo by the Athletic Department, the faculty, and the Parent-Teachers-Student Association, Mr. A. P. Routh announced at a recent Student Council and Recreation Committee meeting.

Ed Good was placed in charge of securing a combo for the dance, and announced the next day that he had obtained the services of the Ascots, a group from Wake Forest.

The combo is to be April 27 in the Boys' Gym. A committee has been appointed of student and youth council members to meet with Mr. Routh, Mr. Lody Glenn, and Mr. Robert Jamieson, with Dick Tontz as student chairman. The PTSA will be asked to provide refreshments, and the dance will be chaperoned by teachers and parents.

The decision to sponsor this activity was made by the Athletic Department and the school administration after a meeting at West Market Street Methodist Church concerning the youth of Greensboro. Funds are being provided from the receipts gathered in at the various athletic events this year.