

Last Will And Te

We, the senior members of Lernilot Castle, in the year nineteen hundred and sity-two, being of sound minds and forgiving hearts, do hereby take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to everyone with whom we have worked in Lernilot, and to bequeath our worldly possessions to our friends, do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament:

Alex Heggie leaves his ability to scare the socks off drivers with his whininy, winding Tempest to the current driver training classes.

"Kiny Arthur" Eisenband leaves behind the rest of those tickets he was always selling to next year's Youth Council officers, Sally Jo Welch and Ellen Stanley. Wonder if they'll prophesy another Midwinters' Dance?

Bob Keller leaves his sacred handkerchief for his abilities and blessings at snow-making to Miss Joyner.

Wayne Harris, Hobart Kellam, and other members of the Bleery Peepers Club which congregated at the radiator in the main hall before school every morning, lease the radiator to anyone who can get any heat out of it in the winter or cut it off in the summer.

Cecie Boren leaves a newly-elected

Student Body President a job of letter-writing to Salem College.

Elaine Boyle leaves her new book, HOW I STUMBLED MY WAY INTO TORCHLIGHT, to Jim Burwell.

Grace Penny leaves her grand performance in the Christmas Pageant to next year's funlovers.

Brock Wellons leaves his talent for tongue-twisting to Irvin Pearce.

Sam West leaves his famous diary to Mrs. Newman.

Jim Sullivan and Tommy Troxler will their jeeps to those poor souls who walk to school.

Mary Hartman, Sherry Kellet, and Jean Whitaker leave their hard work in choir to Carole Lineberry, Kitty Kusenberg, Sandy Lowe, Candy Barnerd, and Lee Thompson.

Dan Jensen leaves, keepng a peanut butter-smearred on Dian Steel.

Joyce Weinrich and Paul Gardiner will their lively personalities to Margt Dahlke and Larry Lund.

The HIGH LIFE staff leaves their advisor, Mrs. Smith, a box of index cards se she can lose things systematically.

Guy Phillips and John Peterson are leaving. Joy to the world! Let this be your reward in itself!

and the Birthplace of O. Henry

New Officers Elected
By GHS Service Clubs

Junior Civitans, Demolay, Junior Jaycees, and Key Club have recently elected officers and have also taken in new members.

New officers for Civitan are:
Mike Ephland, president; Van Gunter, first vice-president; Basil Bullard, second vice-president; Ed McLean, secretary; Eddie Strange, treasurer; Harvey Goldberg, chaplain; and Ray Clark, sergeant-at-arms.

The Civitans have completed a candy sale for the Mentally Retarded Children's Association. The Benjamin Lee Smith Student-Teacher Award was presented to Bob Groat and Mrs. Kathleen Pfaff.

Recently the Demolays went to Tanglewood and also held a Father-Son Banquet in which Ed White was presented as "Demolay of the Year." They have initiated 22 boys from Kiser, Central, and Lindley Junior High Schools that were recommended by their principals and teachers. This summer the Demolays will sponsor a project in order to give a $500. scholarship next year.

Jaycee's newly elected officers are: Jack Harville, president; John Hedrick, vice-president; Jim Burwell, secretary; Don Sparrow, treasurer; John Barnes, sergeant-at-arms; Fred Henderson, chaplain; and Phillips Jones, attendance chairman. The newly elected project chairman is Bob Crumley.
The $300 scholarship was presented to senior Hobart Kellam. Their Roger Hobbs Memorial Award went to Bones O'Briant, for his contribution to athletics.

The new junior members of the club are: Jim Irvin, Ret Turner, Bill Mills, and Jim Taylor. Sophomore members include Jerry Jernigan, Jake Elig, Drayton Stott, Chet Linker, and Ronnie Neal.

New members of Key Club are:
Robbie Green, Mike Harrison, Reg Foster, John Marshall, Leroy
Cobb, and Lawrence Ross.

Key Club sold peanut brittle to buy two desks to be placed in the GHS Library and also collected for the Greensboro Swim Association to re-open Lindley Pool.

The new officers are: Bob Nuck-olls, president; Alec Wrenn, vice-president; Bob Marshall, treasurer; John Crump, secretary; and Kim Mann, chaplain.

The Key Club presented Sportsmanship Award to Tommy Fuller and Bobby Nuckolls presented the Sandy Niniger Award to Dallas Peoples. Plans are now being made for the school directory next year. Other plans include sports brochures, basketball programs, fruit for varsity teams, and paying the way of underprivileged children to football games.

William Norman Wins N. C. State Latin Exam

William Norman, junior, known by Latin 3-year students as "Summus vir," has won first place in the 1962 North Carolina State Latin examination for advanced students.

Given by the University of North Carolina, the examinations require the ability to comprehend and translate Latin and presup-pose the knowledge of: forms and syntax; English derivation; and Roman civilization. There are three examinations, a first-year, a second-year, and a third- and fourth-year examination. Each of these tests are an hour in length.

William Norman

The most important feature is the sight translation, and William's very eloquent interpretation won this contest.

This year, 188 students from ten schools had their papers sent to Chapel Hill for judging, by members of the Classics Department faculty of the University.

A prize of $10 is awarded for the best paper in each division.
The scholarship committee of UNC has announced that it will award a Merit scholarship in the University at Chapel Hill to the student winning first place in the Latin contest (that is, in the advanced contest or in the second year contest), provided that this winner meets the entrance requirements of the University. The Merit scholarship will cover the cost of tuition for one year and will be renewable annually, provided that the student maintains satisfactory progress in the University.

This is the fourth straight year Mrs. Mary Madlin's Latin class has won the first place. Don Grimes won first last year.

William received a letter from Governor Sanford inviting him to dinner at the Executive Mansion with Mrs. Madlin on May 29, and after dining with the Governor and 28 other students being recognized for academic achievements, a piano recital by a concert master. David Fesperman, as science winner, has also been invited to attend.

Consistently on the special honor roll, William is the newly elected chaplain of the Senior Hi-Y Club, and is a member of the History Honor Society. He has recently been awarded a letter for cross-country.

Vera Leonard

Vera Leonard Named
Senior's Best Citizen

Vera Leonard, senior, was recently recognized as the most outstanding citizen of Greensboro Senior High School in the 1962 Awards Day Program.

The receipt of the Civitan Best Citizen award who participated in May Day, worked as a co-chairman of the Class Day Orchestra, and is a member of the string quartet and the Singing Strings, also received a Sears Roebuck Scholarship and was co-winner of the Harriman Trophy with Dan Richman.

On the Citizenship Honor Roll, Vera, who is president of the Orchestra, the Civinettes, and the Euterpes Symphony, said she felt very honored to receive this award, which is given for individual excellence in Citizenship at GHS.

Playmasters Meet

Spanish Honor Society
Boosts New Officers

New officers for the Spanish Honor Society have been announced by Terry Jones, outgoing president.

New President of the society is Kay Leavel, rising senior. Replacing Mike Lawrence as Vice-President is Frank Crothers, also a rising senior. Ralph Lake, junior, will assume the position of Secretary, replacing Lea Jane Coble.

Induction of new officers was celebrated by a picnic on the GHS grounds.
