

Sub-Juniors Help In Woman's Club Event

Members of the Sub-Junior Woman's Club, a Service club here at Grimsley, served refreshments and were models for the fashion show and bridge party sponsored by the Greensboro Junior Woman's Club. This annual event took place Thursday night, February 27 at the Oriental Shrine Club. All proceeds went to a scholarship fund for special education teachers also sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club.

Brennan And Grasser Win Gold Keys

John Brennan and Dottie Grasser, art students at GHS, won Gold Keys in the Scholastic Art Awards contest here recently. A Gold Key is the highest award given by the association.

Art work from all over North Carolina was entered in the contest, sponsored by WFMY-TV. The works were divided according to grade grouping, and media; and then part was sent to WFMY studios, and the other half was judged at Weatherspoon Gallery of UNC-G.

John's picture, done in ink media, was one of the scene of a riot. It depicted, from an overhead view, a city with many skyscrapers. In the picture stood a gigantic man in white robe and long flowing beard, looking down on a riotous mob of people, carrying signs, and fighting. Also depicted were two burning cars. The picture was originally entitled "The Gulliver of the Modern World," but later changed to its present title, "The Spirit of the Riot."

John spent nine hours on framing, matting, and filling out application blanks. He sent in eleven pictures all total, three in ink media. The winning picture took him about a week to finish.

Along with the Gold Key, John also received a special presentation from Weatherspoon Gallery;

Sub-Juniors who were models were Aleen Easterling, Shelia Knedlik, Susan Thorpe, and Lynne Wentworth. Aleen and Lynne were dressed for Sunday, while Shelia and Susan went casual wearing two-piece swim suits. Members of the Junior Woman's Club and their children were also models. The fashions were provided by Ellis Stone.

Formed From Woman's Club
The Sub-Juniors helped their sponsoring club as a special courtesy. The Junior Woman's Club offered to sponsor a girl's service club just over a year ago. As a result the Sub-Junior Woman's Club was formed. Since its formation the Sub-Junior Club has served Grimsley and community in various means. Presently the Sub-Juniors have one of the planter boxes in the grove and are supporting the other projects of the School Beautiful Committee.

Services to the community have included, among others, various charity drives and projects for the children at Caswell-Murdock, for the 60-Plus Club, the Ship Hope, and local hospitals and service organizations.

a book entitled "The History of Art," valued at approximately $25.

From here the picture will travel to a New York showing. If it wins there, John will receive a cash prize of $25, and wave goodbye to his picture, for it will then go to Enrope for exhibition.

DE Students Compete For Convention Rights

The Distributive Education classes of District No. 6 will convene at Grimsley Senior High on Wednesday, February 26th. Members from GHS, Ragsdale, Southeast, Northeast, Reynolds, Burlington, and Page will compete in contests for the privilege of attending the State Convention to be held in Raleigh, March 19th.

Four Types of Contests
There are four types of contests a member may enter: "Student of the Year," "Sales Demonstration," "Advertising Layout," and "Speech Contest." The students participating in the contests from GHS are: Ronnie Dawson, Dorothy Key, Larry Wren, and Jerry Carpenter.

The "Student of the Year" contest, in which Ronnie Dawson is taking part, consists of presenting one's life history to a Screening Committee of judges. After a student has been discussed, he is put through a rigorous interview, in which he is asked all sorts of questions. The best is chosen and will represent the District in the State Convention.

The "Sales Demonstration" contest in which Dorothy Key is participating, consists of showing the proper procedures of a sale, such as use of the cash register, writing sales slips, and repeating to oneself — "The customer is always right."

"Ad Layout" Contest
Larry Wren will represent GHS in the "Ad Layout" contest. This contest requires a lot of artistic skill and planning, in which the student is to compose an advertisement from materials supplied by the school.

The "Speech Contest," in which Jerry Carpenter is participating, of course speaks for itself.

The district winners of these contests will then travel to Raleigh for the State Convention.

On Thursday, March 19th, the night of their arrival, there will be a Hootenanny, and everyone will get acquainted.

Banquet To Be Held
Friday, the contestants from all districts will compete in the State contests with hopes of traveling to Chicago for the National Convention. A formal banquet, followed by a dance, will be held.
