Vocational Education Clubs Have Officer Training Workshop

Grimsley's vocational education clubs (DE, ITC, VICA) were host to club officers from Alamance, Rockingham, and Guilford Counties for an Officers' Training Workshop, Wednesday, October 11.

Acquainting the officers with the exact duties and responsibilities of their offices and suggesting how they might carry them out was the main purpose of the workshop.

Group meetings occurred for each office for discussion. Discussions were led by D. E. Coordinators and student council officers. Representatives of HIGH LIFE attended the publicity meeting.

Speakers at the opening assembly of the meeting were the Honorable Carson Bain, mayor of Greensboro, who spoke on "What Is Leadership?" and former DE instructor Mrs. Virginia Heard, who discussed "Effective Leadership."

A film, "Parliamentary Procedure in Action," showed the correct way to conduct meetings. Discussion on the film was led by Mr. Lon Bonnard, DE coordinator for Smith High School.

Mayor Bain, in his speech, gave an unusual definition of leadership. "If you know why you get up every morning," he stated, "you're a leader. A lack of understanding (of leaders and between leaders and their followers) is part of our problem today. We need more horizontal, man-to-man communication; if we had it we could virtually eliminate problems here in Greensboro."

The DE diamond, symbol of the club, was the subject of Mrs. Heard's talk. "Every single person in DECA must have a goal," Mrs. Heard said, "and must touch every 'base' of the diamond." The four points of the DE diamond
