Grimsley Takes The Lead By Dumping Glass 45-34

On December 1, the Grimsley Whirlies came up with one of their biggest victories ever in basketball by defeating E. C. Glass of Lynchburg Virginia, by the score of 45-34. This was the first time in the long rivalry that a Grimsley team had beaten Lynchburg in Lynchburg.

The game opened at a fast tempo.

Robbie Wilson hit on a jumper to give the Whirlies a quick 2-0 lead. Lynchburg tied it with a jump shot from the corner. After trading a couple of baskets, the Whirlies jumped into an 8-7 lead and from then on they were never headed.

Grimsley shook up the Lynchburg team with a pressing man-for-man defense. It kept the Hilltoppers outside and forced them to take their shots from farther out than they normally would. Although Lynchburg had a taller team, the Whirlies were able to control the defensive boards.

Clutch foul shooting down the stretch proved to be one of the decisive factors of the game. Steve Warner led the charge with 8 for 8 from the line. Randy McMasters, Keith Broome, and Mike Scott also distributed in the foul shooting at the end of the game.

Grimsley shot 12-29 from the floor for a respectable 41 percent. Mike Scott led Grimsley's attack with 12 points. He was followed by Robbie Wilson with 10, Keith Broome with 9, Steve Warner with 8, and Randy McMasters with 5.

Glass took 20 more shots than Grimsley but was only able to cash in on two of them for 28 percent. High scorer for the Hilltoppers was Clark Winfield with 19 points. However, the next highest man only scored 4 points.

Grimsley was 21-32 from the foul line, while Glass hit on 6-13.

"Winning at Lynchburg was a big surprise," said Coach Jamie. "We played real well and shot well early to get a lead. We managed to hang onto the lead. We had more praise than we expected for the first game."

The Whirlies play at Reynolds on Friday night and have a return game with Lynchburg at the Coliseum on Saturday.

ACC Football Review

The professional football season is also at a close and it comes to mind that the Atlantic Coast Conference has quite a number of players in the National Football League. Even more so, it is a very surprising fact that the Big Four has starting quarterbacking in the pros; Sonny Jergenson, who graduated from Duke, is playing for the Washington Redskins, and is doing a fabulous job. Norm Snead, from Wake Forest, is calling signals for Philadelphia and Roman Gabriel, from North Carolina State is quarterbacking a vastly improved Los Angeles Rams team.

While they haven't given the NFL a quarterback, Carolina has quite a few key players in the pro ranks. This list is topped by Ken Willard, the hard-driving fullback for the San Francisco 49'ers,

Wake Forest, besides providing the NFL with a starting quarterback, also had Karl Sweetan playing for them in his junior year. The Deacons also can claim Brian Piccolo who now plays for Chicago.

Bringing things a little closer to home, Bert Wilder (starting lineman for the New York Jets, and all-American at State) played for the Greensboro Whirlies not too long ago. Top that, Page, Pirates!

The Greensboro Record has presented the Third Annual All-City Grid Team. From Grimsley they are as follows:

- Jim Mitchell—Back
- Glenn Morris—Linebacker
- Alan Hutton—Back
- Heber Whitley—Tackle
- Warren Woods—Guard

We congratulate these boys on their outstanding playing.
