Hunter, Morris, and Strong Elected

Results of the spring elections nounced by Elections Chairman ary Sue Hamann reveal that e Hunter is the resident of the ident body; Mark Morris, presint of the rising senior class; d Howard Stang, president of rising junior class.

Other school positions were won Jim Walters, vice president; rol Pleasants, secretary; Don Bragga, treasurer; traffic chief, lph Voight; Pep Board Chairin, Skip Holt; and Youth Recation Committee Chairman, Gib-Edwards.

Senior class officers elected are David Hines, vice president; Stephanie Foltz, secretary; and Patty Hodges, treasurer. Junior class officers newly elected are Judy Cole, vice president; Susan Newlin, secretary; and Cindy Huffling, treasurer.

Members of the Students' Council from the senior class are Scott Adair, Patty Bridges, Marie Bush, Fulkerson, Cathy Glenn, Trish Kellett, Martha Monnett, Margaret Shelton and Rebecca

David Buie, Joe Carruthers,

Gary Clemmons, Debbie Clendenin, Kristin Cress,, Jim Desper, Diane Nichols, Jim Palmer, and Suzanne Williams are the new Students' Council representatives from the junior class.

YRC Representatives Elected Senior members of the YRC are Janie Bingham, Karen Ewell, Susan Fruitt, Susan Hill, Julie Inman, Jane Jackson, Linda Pitts, Sydney O'Cain and Steve Warner.

Pat Colchmiro, Karen Dellinger, Robbie Kornegay, Barby Lowe, Cilla Nowell, Cyd Payne, Pam Ricketts, Pam Striegel, and April

Strickland are the new junior class representatives to YRC.

Standings Given

Standings of the candidates for school offices was taken in the primary or preferential balloting, which took place Tuesday, April 23 in the homerooms. For President of the student body, Lynn Moore led Tye Hunter 71 to 47. Bill Buckley was ahead of Jim Walters by 34, 74 to 40 for the office of vice president.

For treasurer Don DeBragga had 69 to Nancy Robertson's 49. Gibbie Edwards trailed her opponent for YRC Chairman, Nancy Bass, 57 to 61 on the preferential ballot. Candidates for Pep Board Chairman lined up Skip Holt, 113; Susan Dance, 4, and Larry Payne, 1. Running for Traffic Chief, Ralph Voight had 48 and a fraction; Max Lauten had 38 and a fraction, and Richard Cohen had 31 and a fraction of the votes. The numbers indicate relative support from the homerooms.

Two-Thirds Vote

Over 1200 student body members, or about 2/3 of the school, finally voted in the election. In the sophomore class, 480 students registered and only 403 voted. Juniors who registered numbered 605, while those who voted Friday totaled 523. Of the senior class, 379 registered on the two days allotted for registration, and

BEST CITIZEN AWARD

The five finalists in the Junior Civitan Best Citizen Award are Joe Allred, Rig Dees, Jim Powell, Jody Turner, and Charlie Wilkins. Voting took place Friday, April 26.

313 voted in the election.

Among the bus drivers, who come from all three classes, all 34 registered and voted. Of 31 persons who registered incorrectly, 26 voted in Friday's election.

A total of 107 candidates signed up to run for the various offices. From this list, 11 were disqualified; four for failing to turn in expense accounts, three because of their academic standing, and four who did not attend all the meetings the candidates were required to attend.

Service Awards Honor City Youth

City Youth Service Awards were given to two high school seniors from Greensboro recently in an Open House ceremony.

Each year one senior girl and one senior boy receive this award to recognize Youth Service to church, school and community.

This year's winners are Gail Knieriem of Grimsley and Bill Layton of Smith.

Nominations are made by the School Beautiful Committee. The City Beautiful Committee sponsors the award to honor the role of youth in the beautification program.

A silver bowl with the name of the winner and the year engraved on it was presented to each winner by Jim Bell, an officer of the Junior Jaycees.

The Open House for presentation of the award takes place at a different high school each year. This year the open house was at Ben L. Smith High School.

MIGH

GRIMSLEY HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C. 27410, MAY 1, 1968

May Day Celebration To Have 'Peter Pan' Theme This Year

ebration, which will take place lay at 5 p.m., is "Peter Pan." Margaret Shelton is chairman this year's event at which the y Queen and her Court are esented in festivities on the ont lawn of the GHS campus. Marti Venable will play Peter n and the three darling chilen will be played by Mari ierson as Wendy, Skip Holt as nn and John Frierson as Mich-. Robert Pendley is Captain ok and Gayle Cantrell plays ger Lily.

The announcer will be Bill al, and Larry Reid is the trumer. Linda Grimes plays the igator, Susan Dockery and Myra ntin are Lost Boys, and Mandy ne plays Peter Pan's shadow. e Queen's Men are the Pirate

Three dance groups are included in the program. Twelve Pirates and twenty-two Indians frolic in Never-Never Land and the Lost Boys dance around the Maypole.

Attendants to May Queen Suzanne Wyatt are Joanne and Theresa Fanney. Jody Turner, student body president, will crown Suzanne Queen of the May.

Senior Maid of Honor Judy Patterson will be escorted by Mark Buie; Sophomore Maid of Honor Gary Clemmons will be escorted by Jim Krueck.

Senior members of the May Court are Betty Hall, escorted by Tom Ross; Star Hunter, escorted by Jay Kinney; Bunnie Ownhey, escorted by Mike Scruggs; Debbie Ownbey, escorted by Jim Watkins; Debbie Taylor, escorted by Kelly Phipps; Buzzy Westmoreland, escorted by Tom Boone; and

Karen Ziegenfuss. escorted by Mike Hassell,

Junior members of the Court are Karen Ewell, escorted by Jim Nehlsen; Susan Hill, escorted by Mike Simpson; Pat Von Seth, escorted by Jerry Hornig; and Suzanne Wells, escorted by David

Sophomore Members of the Court are Susan Coleman, escorted by Mark Morris: and Diane Nichols, escorted by Jim Walters.

Scenery for the play of "Peter Pan" consists of an archway of stars and clouds, through which the May Court enters the field: three beds for the Darling children; a pirate ship, through whose portholes the Pirates enter: a house for the Lost Boys; and the May Queen's throne.

As the children sleep, Peter Pan enters in search of his shadow. Wendy, John and Michael awake, Wendy sews Peter's shadow back on, and he takes the three to Never-Never Land, where they meet the Lost Boys.

The Indians, led by Tiger Lily, dance until they are frightened away by the Pirates, who then dance. Captain Hook is carried in on a stretcher by the Pirate Minstrels, who sing a song about him (which the Queen's Men wrote).

In a duel with Hook, Peter Pan is pinned against the side of the pirate ship by Hook's sword. However, the alligator, clock ticking, enters and Captain Hook exits on the stretcher. The Lost Boys do a Victory Dance around the Maypole to celebrate, and finally the three Darling children return home.

Miss Lynda Tamblyn is the general faculty advisor for May Day. Student committee chairmen and faculty advisors are costumes, Patti Bridges and Patti Harris, with Mrs. Mary Floyce Sigmon, advisor; dancing, Rebecca White, Gayle Cantrell, Barbara McLoud, and Becky Amend, Miss Patricia Addison, advisor; make-up, Martha Monnett and Lynn Moore.

Publicity Chairman is Laura Jeanes, with Mrs. Lily Fields, advisor programs, Cynthia Souers, Julie Foard, and Trish Kellett; scenery, Gail Knieriem, Gibbie Edwards, Emmy Smith, and Betsy Allen, Mr. John Webb, advisor: Kathy Carlton, with Miss Peggy Ann Joyner, advisor; and sound, Paul Allen, with Mr. James Ballance, advisor. Miss Lynne Hundley is advisor to the May Court.

During Youth Week During Youth Week, April 21-27, a Junior City Council served in place of the regular council, and conducted a meeting Monday, April 22.

Junior Council Serves

Members of the council were chosen on the basis of test scores after having attended three lectures on city government. The twenty-six highest scoring students were awarded the positions.

Ned Earle was Mayor, and Larry Reid was Mayor Pro Tem. City Councilmen included Ida Glasgow, Charles Ingram, Patricia Gentry, Shirley Keel and Vance

Roger Fergerson was city manager; Pat Petty, City Attorney; Gail Burton, Finance Director: Evelyn Rochelle, Parks Director; and Rachel Gregory, Planning Di-

Police Chief was Diane Marks; Public Works Director, Sidney Avent; Recreation Director, Vivian Verney; Traffic Engineering Director, Gail Ross; and City Clerk, Denise Collins.

Citizens representing tenants, landlords and others included Peter Lux, Ralph Kirkman, Connie Cooper, Phyllis Cansler, Rhoda McCook, Rene Boseman, Jane Tanger, and Terry Doss.

The members had a preliminary meeting with the actual officers Thursday, April 18. Before the April 22 meeting, they had all met with their adult counterparts to discuss their duties.

Typical items of business were taken up at the meeting. Questions dealing with zoning, street paving in a slum district, widening a street, stopping parking on a street, and allocation of funds for certain projects were included.

Monday evening a banquet was given in Elliott Hall for all the members of the Junior City Council. Lieutenant Seay of the Police Department was the speaker. Different awards were made to various members of the council at the banquet. The Junior City Council Mayor received, besides the numerous gifts from local merchants also given to the other members, a Camaro from North State Chevrolet to drive during Youth Week.

Approximately fifty people took part in the Junior City Council program, twenty-six of whom served on the Council. The Council was one part of Youth Week, which is sponsored annually by the Greensboro Youth Council (GYC.

Officers, Advisor Select Senior Class Gift

Selection of the Senior Class gift for the Class of 1968 has been made by the class officers and the class advisor.

Jim Powell, president; Bill Deal, vice president; Carol Carruthers, secretary; and Barbara Israel, treasurer; and Miss Ann Moore, advisor, made the decision from a list of possibilities submitted by seniors. Announcement and presentation of the gift will be made during the Class Day program.

The class has $500 to spend on its contribution to the school.

Various suggestions were discussed and discarded because of price, usefulness, and practicality. Painting the auditorium was discarded because this would cost about $10,000. Other ideas were rejected because they would be less than $500 and the money would have to be split up over two gifts.

Other gifts were not considered because they could not be completed in the time remaining this year, or because the officers felt it was something that should be undertaken by the city, not as a

een-age Carnival Booths uccessful During Youth Week

Highlighting Youth Week obvances April 21-27 was the April 24-27.

Service clubs from all the eensboro High Schools took t in this event by building and onsoring booths for the Carni-

Again this year, the Charioteers "Chairoerated their booth, rs' Cheesecake." The booth sisted of a backdrop picturing ee life-sized can-can girls, each h one leg missing. Three Chariers supplied the missing legs. ops tossed at these legs were d at three for 15 cents. Prizes re given (small, medium and ge) in proportion to the numof hoops that the player sucsfully threw on the legs.

The Junior Civinettes had a ball owing booth according to Presnt Carol Carruthers. Two figs on plywood, one of a beach n and one of a girl was the kboard. Participants attempted throw balls into two holes, in the girl's mouth and the er in the boy's navel. Linda lis drew the figures.

he Junior Civitans operated a king booth. People had chances drop one of the members into ank of water by hitting a target with a tennis ball. If the ball hit the target it released en-age Carnival which took a catch that held the platform ce at Friendly Shopping Cen- on which the boys was sitting. The platform dropped and the boy fell into the tank. Lee Strange is president of the Junior Civitans.

A dance was sponsored by the Junior Exchange Club because they had no funds which would allow them to support a booth at the Carnival. Rick Pipan, president, said they did not reserve space for a booth for this reason.

Interact president, Chuck Sparks said his club's booth consisted of a wheel of chance of some type. He said this was legal as long as prizes were awarded to those who participated.

The Junior Jaycettes sponsored dart throwing booth similar to the one they had last year. Darts were thown at balloons on a revolving psychedelic board. As a lure to get people inside they advertised "Free Kisses" and gave away chocolate candy. Beth Folk is president of the Junior Jay-

Vic Cochran of the Junior Jaycees said his club sponsored a bowling type event in which tennis balls on a string were swung back and forth until bowling pins Continued on Page Four