Today Is Mayday

Wednesday, May 7, the campus of Grimsley will be transformed into the magical wonderland of Oz. The story of Dorothy and all her friends will be presented to the delight of a large audience composed of Grimsley students, parents, and others drawn to the "happening" on the front lawn.

CLUBLICITY

Several of Grimsley's service clubs are participating in the Cancer Drive Tag Day, Saturday, May 10. Known to have helped in this service project are the KEY CLUB and the JUNIOR EXCHANGEMEN.

The LEO CLUB is conducting a broom sale for the Greensboro Lions Club.

The SENIORETTEs are currently giving their School Beautiful Plots a spring spruce up job. The sophomore and junior members of the FUTURE HOME-MAKERS OF AMERICA will soon host a tea for the senior members. Their bake sale of April 6, in front of Franklin's Drug was a success.

The KEY CLUB had their annual pie throw booth with the HENRY JUNIORS at the Teen-age Carnival in the K mart parking lot. Debbie Clemmons, the Key Club Sweetheart, rode in the South Parade April 19 with members of the Key Club Executive Board.

Connie Jones as the winsome Dorothy will be pursued by her nasty nemesis, the Wicked Witch of the West (Marcia Cooper), aided by her three stalwart friends, The Tin Man (Mike Frier-son), The Scarecrow (David Buie), and the Lion (Lori Showfety). The four forces of good will be given their task of defeating the Wicked Witch by the terrifyingly omnipotent Wizard of Oz (Bill Wilkins).

Throughout the play, various dances, superbly choreographed, will be executed; thereby displaying the talents of the dancers. All of the dances (the monkey dance, the flower dance, the tree dance, and the munchkin dance) will help to maintain the illusion of the Emerald City and its nearby provinces. The traditional Grimsley May Day dance, the minuet, will be performed by the May Court and their escorts.

Tye Hunter, President of the Student Body, will crown this year's May Queen, Debbie Clemmons. Accompanying the Queen will be the bevy of beauties chosen from each class. The Senior members are: Pat Von Seth, Maid of Honor; Susan Pruitt; Marie Busch; Suzanne Wells; Susan Hill; Lane Mitchell, Karen Ewell, Susan Phillips, and Patty Bridges. The Junior members are: Gary Clemmons, Maid of Honor; Diane Nichols, Debbie Clendenin, Susan Coleman, and Diane Hornig. The Sophomores are: Jan Westmoreland, Maid of Honor; Pam Wrenn, and Tisa Curtis.

Undoubtedly, the May Day ceremonies will be completely successful considering the numbers of people who have helped and the hours spent in creating such a spectacular scenario encompassing such a work as The Wizard of Oz. Though there are too many people involved in the presentation, both outwardly and covertly, there are two other characters who must not be omitted; Nancy Robertson (Glinda, The Good Witch) and Carl McNeill, who plays the taxing role of a Guard at the Wizard's palace.

Youth Week Highlighted By Teen-age Carnival

Again this year, the Greensboro Youth Council held the Teen-Age Carnival. The Carnival is held to help high school service clubs from the four city high schools to raise money for their projects the next year. It was held out at the K-Mart parking lot, a switch from the Friendly Shopping Center, on Thursday, April 24th to Sunday, April 27th.

At the carnival, there booths ranging into all categories — one could throw, bowl, smash or crash just about anything he wanted. Of particular interest seemed to be the booths at which one would hit people with jello, cream filling or even mayonnaise. They attracted a lot of attention and were quite successful in the money aspect.

Our student council had a good booth where one would throw an amount of money and if it landed in a colored area, you would have multiplied and returned. It looked easy, but one soon found out it was rather difficult.

There were booths of destruction and skill such as bashing on a car to relieve tension. Throwing darts was a very successful form. Skill games such as bowling or knocking over a pin were attracting people.

The rides which were there seemed to be a big attraction. They ranged from a Merry-Go-Round for the youngsters to a Ferris wheel for people who like to go up and down and finally, to the stomach turners.

Clowns and Barkers were high school students who volunteered to help out. They were provided with costumes and went around providing people with suckers and directions.

Altogether GYC put together another successful carnival. Money was raised and the area was provided with a carnival for a few days this year.
