

HIGH LIFE

Volume XLIX, No. III

Grimsley High School, Greensboro, N.C. 27408

October 18, 1974

News Briefs

President Ford will be visiting Greensboro on October 19, 1974. While here, he will be campaigning for Republican senatorial nominee, Bill Stevens. No details have been given yet on his visit, but it will most likely be limited to an airport stop.

The Grimsley Communication System got underway October 10 as the entire student body was divided at random into groups of sixteen to seventeen, headed by a faculty member and two student leaders. Tentatively, meetings will come at two week intervals.

Remember the test date for the SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) is November 2. October 26 is the date for the PSAT/NMSQT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Qualifying Test).

Grimsley Leads Voters In Survey

On Saturday, September 28, the second annual Mayor's Youth Conference was held at UNC-G. Voting on the many issues took place from 12:00 noon until 4:00 in the afternoon.

At the Youth Conference 208 Grimsley students showed up to vote. This was the largest number of students from all four high schools in the area. A trophy was presented to Grimsley and is on display in the main hall.

On most of the major issues, voting was overwhelmingly in favor of that topic, such as those against discrimination of

This year's Executive Councilmen are: back row L-R - Thomas, Howerton, Battle, Flynn, Evans, middle row L-R - Kennett, Sarne, Deakin, Whitcomb, Osborne; front L-R - Chopra Simon, Biller, Johnson and McCreedy.

Council Members Chosen

The Election Committee this year consisting of positions ranging from President Protem to Advertising Manager headed up this year's election.

Steve Abee, President of this year's Election Committee in an interview recently expressed his great approval of the enthusiasm of the election. "Advertising and getting the students informed was one of the biggest jobs."

The constant work put into the elections proved itself when 1103 out of 1760 students showed up to vote. This was the largest turn out in three years, and Abee, along with the administration hope, in the future election the turn out will be as good if not better.

There were five people which were elected by each class. Then the elected students voted among themselves for the five positions. In the Senior Class the positions were filled by Cliff Flynn, Executive Council Chairman; Bob Howerton, Senior Class Chairman; Joseph Evans, Student Affairs Co-Chairman; Edwin Battle, YRC Co-Chairman; and Mike Thomas, Pep Board Co-Chairman.

Serving in the Junior Class are Dave Kennett, Student Affairs Co-Chairman; Cammy Deakin, Executive Secretary; Brad Osborne, Chairman of the Junior Class; Mary Whitcomb, YRC Co-Chairman; and Pam Sarne, Pep Board Chairman.

In the Sophomore Class are Bruce McCreedy, Pep Board Co-Chairman; Richard Biller, Student Affairs Co-Chairman; Ashok Chopra, Executive Treasurer; Caroline Johnson, Chairman of the Sophomore Class; and Linda Simon, YRC Co-Chairman.

In electing the Executive

Homecoming Around the Corner

Yet another Homecoming affair will take place at Grimsley on Friday, October 25. After the football game against East Forsyth, a dance will begin in the girls' gym.

The dance will start around 9:30 and proceed until 12:00. Music will be provided by Clear Smoke and price of admission is five dollars per couple.

This year's Homecoming chairperson is Holly Jeffus, who, along with her committee of Patti Palmer, Kathy Cox, Karen Edwards, Ann Thornley, David Kennett, Tim Miller, Bobbie Knox, Jimmie Roach, Carol Brown, Susie Ford, Leigh Williams, Eddie McCormack, Amy Wilson, Kaki Huffines, Judy Johnson, Danny Elkins, Angie Kontoulas, Barbara Koonts, Karen Greenberg, Mary Whitcomb, Joan Bulge, and Mike Gray, have planned the occasion.

The theme this year is "The Great Pumpkin".

Grimsley Boasts Eight Semi-finalists

Grimsley has eight semi-finalists for the National Merit Scholarship Award this year. The eight students are: John Llewellyn, Cindy Osborne, Mike Sharsky, Jeff Silver, Craig Spears, Ginger Steel, Mike Thomas, and Brent King (who just recently transferred to Page).

To qualify as a semi-finalist for National Merit, in the Junior year students take a PSAT/NMSQT test. This test is taken in October and is given nation-wide to all students who wish to take it.

The PSAT/NMSQT test includes questions of verbal and mathematical nature. Actually, the test is the preparatory test to get students ready for the SAT's. From the top one-half of one percent of students taking the test nation-wide the semi-finalists are named in September of their Senior year.

Each state sends in its top one-half of one percent so the

[Cont. on Page 8]

One of issues at Mayor's Youth Conference [euthenasia] displayed here.

National Merit Winners are from left to right: back row - Cindy Osborne, Jack Llewellyn, Jeff Silver, Front row - Mike Sharsky, Ginger Steele, Mike Thomas, and Craig Spears.