Five Are Semi-finalists For NMSC

Five Grimsley seniors are semi-finalists for the National Merit Scholarship Corporation's Special Scholarships. The semi-finalists and sponsors are the following: Ted Goldman, Bache Corporation Foundation; Betty Jean Poore and Mary Symmes, Cone Mills; Amy Welborn, Loews Corporation; and Doug Smith, Burndy.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation administers special scholarships through its Merit Program for corporate sponsors that award a certain number of four-year scholarships a year. These sponsors usually specify the scholarships for the children of their employees.

The sponsors forward applications to the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Winners are then selected by the N.M.S.C. committee that reviews the applications and records of the students. The winners are announced by the sponsors, not the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Journalists Attend Workshop at UNC-G

Over one hundred high school students of the Piedmont area, including nine from Grimsley, attended the fourth annual Journalism Workshop on January 25, at Elliott University Center, UNC-G.

The purpose of the workshop was to give prospective journalists a chance to talk with professionals in the field. The

All-State Band Selected

The 1975 edition of the GHS All-State Band has been chosen. Fifty-nine of the 72 Whirlie band members who tried out were successful. Each musician who attempted to make the band was required to play six major scales, the chromatic scale, a prepared solo, and a sight-reading piece.

Contestants traveled to Burlington Williams High School, where two judges graded each hopeful, on December 1.

The members of the band performed in a concert with the "A" Band being directed by Mr. Dale Grabel from Georgia and the "B" Band will be directed by Mr. Joseph Secrest from Wilkesboro Central High School in North Wilkesboro. The concert was held at three o'clock, Sunday, February 9 in Asheboro.

All-State band members from Grimsley include the following:

Rick Andrews, Chuck Alston, Vangie Barlow, Ellen Bullington, Jay Baum, David Buster, Missy Crain, Carney Clegg, Susan Carter, Stephanie Decker, Marian Daily, Joe Essa, John Foy, Bill Duncan, Joyce Hagar, Janice

Quill and Scroll Members Inducted

Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, was founded at the University of Iowa in 1926 by a group of teachers of journalism who wished to recognize and to reward worthy high school journalists.

On January 9, a ceremony was held for the induction of the new Quill and Scroll members.

The following seven students from High Life were inducted: Dwight Ferguson, Beth Magee, Cynthia White, Sandi Wimbish, Andrew Herman, Joey Pearlman and David Kennett.

The following are the officers of this chapter and also the 12 students selected from Whirligig: President, Janet Lassiter; treasurer, Amy Fickling; vice-president, Philip Kaldon, and secretary, Marty Knox. Other members include Jimmy Lederer, Ted Shields, Paul Stang, Dalya Kutchei, Marianne Marks, Bobbi Knox, Lydia Duhan, and Linda Essa.

Prom, Pageant Highlight Council Plans

Executive Council has continued to consider projects for the near future.

During the last part of January, the Council was involved with Student Government Week. Each member of the Council was assigned to several home-rooms, where he discussed the new Constitution, answered questions, reviewed earlier projects, and noted suggestions.

David Kennett will be in charge of the Executive Council's money-making project, the Book Fair, which is scheduled from March 11-14 in room 522.

Bob Howerton has been working with the senior class project, the Womanless Beauty Pageant to be held April 10. Organizations wishing to sponsor a contestant should see Bob and pay $5 entry fee.

In other committee projects, YRC has planned a Twerp Dance for February 21. The band will be Fresh Water Stadium and the price of tickets is $4 per couple.

A garage sale will be planned for the spring in order to raise money for the Junior class. Brad Osborne is securing plans for the prom to be held May 17.
