I, Jennifer Allen, of tired body and matured mind do not know exactly how to sum up four years at Grimsley. I've been friends with many people and grown apart from them, too, but that's part of life. At least that's what I tell myself when I come out of the room that was locked with heartbreak. I will never forget anyone nor do I think they will forget the happiness we had. I grew up in my four years at Grimsley, and I had to be honest about who I really was and not fit into a stereotype anymore. I cry sometimes about the voices and laughter that have just become echoes, but I know there will always be a place for them in my heart. So for all you Grimsley people who will not see me again after we cross the stage, do me one favor: think of me if you see a flower or drive down a street called Rehobeth, or the most important of all, if you sail in a wooden boat off to paradise with the words lumpy and common etched in.

I, Christina Anderson, leave these comments to these people: NEIDNI: You are the number one person but not better than the tree. RUBAIYA: Stuff was ruff things were said but we will forever be arm twins. FINNE: You are my number on juice fruit. MEGAN: Keep it froin. SAMEEYA: Stay special and don't get blue finger waves. STEVE or BLACK or JURULE: You are a beautiful black God body who is cool as ice. One day you know what will happen and I know you will turn it out. ROWE PIPER: All people should be just like you, I love you man. CHRIS YORK: You are the flyest guy I know, your style is crazy fat and fly stay cute. ZACK: Your faces are so funny, stay cool. BYRON: Keep on flirting and stay cute. LOLI-OLI: Stay forever sweet because you are the sweetest person I know. COURTNEY: tell mom to set you free and step off. JOHN: Your cute self in your cute red Jeep makes me smile. JOE: You are the finest and best looking guy at Grimsley, stay beautiful. DEE: Get some sleep man. CHRIS JUSTICE: I'm still mad about the CD. I'm out here!

I, Matt Anderson, do hereby leave the following to: CB: The Rat, the parking deck before the Syracuse game, Christmas Eve, the money you owe me from our basketball games.
