

UNC alpha Kappa Delta Phi Actives

alpha Kappa Delta Phi

By: Carol So, VP Internal Spring 2004

Having just started my fourth semester as an active of alpha Kappa Delta Phi (also known as KDPHi), I personally feel that this sorority has risen above all my expectations and preconceptions that I initially had before being initiated in Fall 2002. My reason for rushing was simply that I was curious and wanted to try something new, and I wanted to be involved in a worthwhile organization on campus. I took a chance with something completely foreign to me and in return, through the past year I have gained relationships with so many diverse and strong women, not only at the chapter at UNC but also nationwide and worldwide.

Through the sorority I have been given not only a diverse variety of leadership and academic opportunities, but also philanthropic ones; all of which have broadened my views and have given me priceless experiences towards my personal growth. alpha Kappa Delta Phi has given me the foundation I now build upon for my future in countless ways; a foundation that is now exceedingly higher than I knew I was capable of.

As an international student, after arriving I realized that it was important to me to stay close to my roots,
