- Graduated from Gray High School
- Graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
- Served 4 years as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War
- Married with 1 daughter, 2 grandchildren

What he stands for:

- A profitable local economy
- Safe, drug-free schools and streets
- Affordable housing for every person in Winston-Salem
- A thriving, vibrant downtown
- More and better jobs
- Job training programs

What he's accomplished as a business leader:

- President and COO, First Home Federal Savings and Loan Association
- Former CFO & Executive Vice President, RJR Tobacco USA and President & COO of RJR Tobacco International

What he's done for Winston-Salem:

- Co-Chair, 1983 Bond Referendum for $35 million in new funding for city projects
- Former President of the Greater Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce
- Former Local Co-Chairman of the United Negro College Fund
- Former United Way Campaign Chairman
- Former President of the Arts Council
- Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Home Moravian Church
- Fundraising Committee Member, Crisis Control Ministry
- Current Chairman of the Board of Carolina Medicorp, Inc., which operates Forsyth Hospital and other health-care facilities in Forsyth County.
