NAACP deplores decision in Bowen Killing

Charlotte, N.C.-
Kelly M. Alexander, Jr.,
President of the North Carolina State Conference of Branches recently released the following statement regarding the shooting of Mayor
Sidney Bowen.

"Regardless of the conclusion reached by the Columbus County
grand jury, the NAACP believes that the
shooting of Mayor
Sidney Bowen by State Trooper A.E. Morris remains a deplorable act of police aggression against an unarmed civilian. Mayor Bowen's untimely death has served to highlight the awesome power of life and death carried in the hands of the police officers of this state. It is a power that needs to be lightly constrained and only used in situations of the direst necessity.

"The NAACP plans to meet with the Assistant Secretary of Crime Control, who is the civilian head of the Highway Patrol, to discuss in full our concerns about the internal investigative procedures used by the patrol when questions of Trooper excessive use of force are raised.

We also plan to discuss with him the degree to which trooper training and retraining prepare troopers to deal with a multi-ethnic society.

"The NAACP also believes that it is in the best interest of the citizens of North Carolina that Trooper A.E. Morris not be returned to active duty until the Federal Bureau of Investigation probe of the events surrounding Mayor Bowen's death is completed. We plan to renew this request with the Assistant Secretary.

"Over the last decade community leaders and community-based organizations have received an increasing number of complaints about police aggression. The NAACP State Conference Executive Committee will meet in Columbus County in April to chart a strategy for the training of community-based leadership to effectively monitor the actions of police agencies, document abuses and lodge appropriate complaints.

Police as a class are fine, upstanding citizens dedicated to maintaining law and order. It is those officers who abuse the power granted to them by society that must be exposed. The NAACP believes that the best protection against abuse is an informed citizenry.
We plan to be in the forefront of that educational effort."
