Charles Moore III, a young and ambitious businessman, possessed a vision several years ago; to be self-employed and financially free. His vision alone with hard work has manifested into Moore's American Bonding. In the year 2000, Mr. Moore opened "Moore's American Bonding," where he now has nine employees with offices in Winston-Salem and High Point.

He is the proud son of Mary and Charles Moore, and father of Jayland L. Moore. Charles served in the U.S. Navy where he received an electrical engineering degree. Also, he has been an active member at Second Calvary Baptist Church since the age of 15. Along with his many achievements, Mr. Moore owns and operates the Reniger House; a youth group home located in North East Winston-Salem.

When asked, "what makes your business successful?", he states, "I truly have faith in God with a positive attitude. I strive to help others as God has helped me. I realize to make a vision a reality, one must be motivated and believe in oneself."
