

WINSTON-SALEM LISC ANNOUNCES NEW PROGRAM OFFICER

The Winston-Salem office of Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC), a national non-profit organization providing technical and financial support to non-profit community development organizations, is pleased to announce that Clarethia "Clare" Wallace of Winston-Salem is the organization's new program officer for lending.

Clare Wallace's responsibilities will include: Underwriting requests for grants and loans primarily related to multi-family and single family housing and commercial/economic development projects; monitoring organizational development goals; and providing technical assistance to LISC partners on neighborhood revitalization strategies and subsidy sources.

Wallace has extensive community economic development experience with over 19+ years in implementing and administrating municipal eco-

ALEX MCCULLOUGH - NEW ALLSTATE INSURANCE OFFICE OFFERS GREAT SERVICE

Alex McCullough

By: John W Faison II

Alex McCullough started in the insurance business back in 1990 with North Carolina Mutual on third street in Winston-Salem. He credits Robert Norris (husband of chief of police Pat Norris) with helping him get his start in the insurance business.

When you visit Mr. McCullough at his business office you will no doubt be greeted as warmly as I was. The beautiful new office was a perfect background for Alex's engaging personality. I felt welcomed the moment I opened the door. His strong sense of family and team came through loud and clear. Mr. McCullough credits his mother Essie McCullough and cousin Dr. Patricia Bellamy with being instrumental in his business startup. Alex also gave a great deal of credit to his business team for his business success. They include Isaac Barr the company manager who is licensed to sell property and casualty products. Wilmary Perez the team's customer service representative who contributes in the day-to-day operation as well, while providing excellent service to the Hispanic Community. Chuck Snyder rounds out the team as an Exclusive Financial Service Partner.

JOHN A. JACKSON, FINANCIAL ADVISOR IS READY TO HELP SECURE YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE

By: John W Faison II

He's on the road again. John A. Jackson, II is on the phone on his way back from Raleigh no doubt from seeing a client. For those of you who don't recognize his name at first glance, John A. Jackson, II is one of our nations best and brightest up and coming Financial Advisors. Mr. Jackson is a Representative of AXA Advisors, the 13th largest fortune 500 among Global Companies and the largest Financial Planning Company in the World.

You would think considering who he is and what he does it would be hard to catch up with him, but much to my delight, that was not the case. This was not my first conversation with John. We had spoken a few days earlier, and on both occasions I was admittedly surprised to find how accessible Mr. Jackson was, He allowed himself to be easily reached, and I think I found out why. Mr. Jackson loves

DEEPLY ROOTED AND DETERMINED TO GROW

The distinguished Dr. Howard Thurmond wrote, "It seems clear that Jesus started out with the simple teaching concerning love embodied in the timeless words of Israel." "Here, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might," and "thy neighbor as thyself." Understanding the greatness of God's love expressed to us through His word is nothing new to Christopher B. Young, who says "I am no great man of God, I am an ordinary man whose God is great."
