Educating WOMEN. Enriching THE COMMUNITY.

Founded in 1772, Salem Academy and College is the nation's oldest continually operating institution for women and consists of:

SALEM ACADEMY
The Southeast's premier college-preparatory day and boarding school for girls, grades 9-12.

SALEM COLLEGE
Offering 35 undergraduate majors for women; graduate studies/teacher education program; and courses for men and women, ages 23 and older, through the Martha H. Fleece Center for Adult Education.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS
Courses for the community, including classes in art, personal health, wine, writing, finances, music, Bridge and technology, and cultural events that include art exhibits, visiting writers, and musical and theatre productions by acclaimed performers.
