German Club Has Dance

Annual Event Held For New Members

Thursday night, November 19, the German Club entertained from five to seven with a dance at the gym. All the new members and pledges were present and they all had a hilarious time.

There were several no-breaks and then the girls and make-believe boys, Paul Jonesed around. The college orchestra played for the dancing. All the girls who led were dressed as boys, and their dates wore evening dresses. Some of the girls wore lovely corsages.

Toward the end of the evening refreshments were served. Everyone paused long enough to drink punch and eat sandwiches and salad. Then they all danced on until seven, when the study hall bell announced the end of the dance.

NEW MEMBERS INITIATED

The Gamma Gamma Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta announces the initiation of Frances Johanson of St. Louis, Mo., and Ann Clegg of Carthage, N. C., November 19, 1931.

The Chapter of Chi Omega announces the initiation of Emily Cooper of Mississippi, November 18, 1931.

November Septre Very Interesting

Last week the first edition of the college magazine, "The Septre," was presented to the students. This November issue included a host of interesting articles. Especially fine was the party.

There were quite a few articles by new contributors, Emily Cooper, Lottie Lane Joyner, Claire Hazel, Katherine McLisky, and Florence Laslie. Then everyone knows we always turn with interest to any book reviews or any other kind of review by Mrs. Townend. All in all this was a delightful edition.

and social life, all schools and all organizations, and business enterprises taking part. Mr. David Owens started the move at Queens-Chicora, by making a most appealing speech in chapel. The entire amount contributed to the fund was approximately a hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

PERSONALS

People certainly did go home this past week-end—What was it? Business or pleasure? 'Fraid to say!

Grace Walker, Edith Ramseur and Helen Deans followed precedent and so did Marie Galloway, Janie Berryhill and Margaret Alexander.

The seniors are having the most fun counting the days until Thanksgiving—what lucky people they are to be able to use their class cuts in order to have the two days afterwards—what a long week-end that'll be!

Carrie Johnson went to Greensboro last week-end. She heard lots about the "Green Room" at Salem.

Did Florence Moffett look forward to going to Rock Hill? She could hardly wait until art class was over last Saturday.

Hally, Mildred and Beck all went home with Virginia Parsons to Kings Mountain. Were they thrilled to hear Virginia play over the radio? Well, just like all of us were!

"Little Stone" stayed out in town as did Virginia Anderson—my, don't you know time flew!

Anna and Janie May also stayed in town but then that's enough said.

Tank and Louise gave the Alpha Delta Pi feed Sunday night and it was some good.

Margaret Kellam had a big time in Chester last week-end when she visited Helen Wall.

Alice Washburn, Lib Mason, Catherine Dickerson and Laura Stallings went to visit the home folks last week-end.

Rupert went home with Helen also, to see that Margaret had a good time.

Kate Lipe and Jane Tweed stayed out in town and enjoyed two or three minutes of it.

Helen, Morrison's House President, stayed with her aunt out in town.

Kathleen and Cynthia gave the Kappa Kappa Chi's feed and even Miss Edwards enjoyed it.

Diz Dameron was glad to see her Uncle Jack—she had such a big time.

Did you see the cute little village the Home Planning girls made? Mrs. Booker has been instructing them this past quarter on the exteriors of houses and their floor plans. The girls modeled their chosen homes out of clay and painted them the desired color. The village was beautifully landscaped and even included a lake and beautiful drives.

Mada and Hugh Lee seemed worried over "pieces of . . . not eight . . . chicken," but despite that, the Kappa Delta feed was grand.

Pee Wee went to Chapel Hill last week-end to visit her brother and now she "wants" to return once again.

Mrs. Wilson "wants" to go to Clinton—anyone coming along say "I"!

Beta Pi Theta Has Unique Meeting

On Friday, November 13, Beta Pi Theta met in the Chi Omega House instead of the Hut. The time was moved up until 3:30. A large number of the actives and pledges were present. Nell Whitworth had charge of the program.

The first selection on this program was a song by Iris Bryson, "Tes Yeux." Then Mary Louise Thomas gave a poem. This was followed by another French poem by Mary Lou Grey. An unusual feature of the program was the singing of the "Marseillaise" by the entire group. Miriam Duncan talked on the most important places of interest in Paris, giving a brief description of each. A talk by Alice Catham on the physical features of France ended this part of the program.

The president took up some necessary business and announced the aim to carry on all the business of the club in the future in French. Plans were also made for a program for chapel.

When the business session was over, plates with marquerites, nuts, and coffee were passed. There was a pleasant half hour spent in conversation, and then everyone left with a hearty "Bon jour."

Q. - C. Girl In Drama League Play

Queens-Chicora has the honor again of one of her girls being in a Drama League play. The Drama League is quite prominent in Charlotte and it is quite a privilege as well as an honor to be asked to take part in one of their plays.

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week, this group of players presented "Camille." Sara Elizabeth Motte had a quite outstanding roll in this play, which is the version of Dumas' famous novel. Sara Elizabeth's performance was watched with interest by many of her friends, for she long ago won acclaim as a promising actress. In her interpretation, she again marked down another excellent performance to her score.

Dramatic Recital Scheduled Tuesday

On next Tuesday night, November 24, the Dramatic Club of Queens-Chicora will make its first public performance this year. A very entertaining program has been arranged under the supervision of Miss Ethel King.

Although most of the numbers on the recital will be given by old girls, one or two new entertainers will perhaps be presented. There has been no official announcement of a definite program as yet, but these selections will probably be included:

"Gretna Green"—by Virginia Deane.

"Madame Butterfly"—by Josephine Dandridge.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" (a scene)—by Carolyn Kirkpatrick.

"The Lily of France"—by Sarah White Cunningham.

"A Pair of Lunatics"—by Mary Frances Austelle and Virginia Deane.

This recital begins a new year of programs by this club; and if the students are enthusiastic and like the program, the girls may be influenced to do more things of this sort with several larger productions of plays.

MRS. BYRD IS BACK

We are indeed glad to have Mrs. Byrd back in our midst. Every one of her classes missed her bright face and cheery voice. We hope that she will continue to improve—why, because we need her!
