Pi Delta Has Interesting Program

Pi Delta Literary Society met at six-thirty Wednesday evening, January the thirteenth in Pi Hall. After the usual part of the service there was given a very unusual program. It was made up of separate talks on Benjamin Franklin and on the different periods of his life.

Anne Clegg had charge of the program. She gave a very interesting introduction to this great American's life. Emily Howard Cooper followed this with a concise summary of Franklin's entire life. There were three great interests in Franklin's life, literature, science, and diplomatic service. So the next talks were under those heads. Miriam Story told about "His Science," and Fannie Bradley talked on his "Contributions to Literature."

During a business session of the society, the members decided on more improvements for their hall. It was decided that new shades should be bought for the windows. As everyone knows, luxuries appeal to us all, and radios are quite as appealing to girls as they are necessary to the comfort of a hall. So it was also decided that a radio should be bought for the hall, also. The president appointed a committee to see about this. Carolyn Lillard, chairman, and Hannah Boylan and Hannah Richardson make up the committee.

Another committee, headed by Pauline Howley, was appointed to have care of special society activities. Emily Howard Cooper and Edna Rowell are the others. The meeting closed with the singing of the Alma Mater.

Alpha Gamma Delta Pledge New Member

Gamma Gamma Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta announces the pledging on Saturday evening, January 9, 1932, of Virginia Poovey from Charlotte, N. C. She is a day student and sophomore here at Queens-Chicora.

Miss Adele Greene, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Greene of Elloree, S. C., was married to Mr. McGhan Lynch of Coward, S. C., Sunday afternoon, January 3. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Lynch attended Chicora College in '29-'30 and at the time of her marriage she was attending Columbia College, being a member of the Junior Class.

PERSONALS

This was quite a quiet week-end at the college — very few people went off for the week-end and the ones that stayed at the college slept most of the time and ate the rest.

Miriam Reid went out in town and stayed with Mrs. Torrant.

As usual Lib Mason streaked off to home the first chance she could get—don't know as anyone would blame her.

Fish and Lib Hoyle had a great time over in Belmont and didn't like the idea of coming back to work.

Mary McFarland also went to Belmont—must be some attraction about that place.

Ruth and Mary Kale went back home to enjoy the week-end with the family and several others.

Katherine Brown went home, too, and of course was the envy of her little room-mate.

Anna May Blackwell and Janie May Boykin stayed out in town with Mrs. Orr.

Nell Whitworth also went back to the ol' home town for the week-end and needless to say Nell had a lovely time.

Alice McLauren and Julia Reed spent the week-end in town with Mrs. Galloway.

Mada Brown and Cat Jones stayed with Mrs. Hall and seems to me that's enough said—that's perfect bliss for you.

The Phi Mu's enjoyed a lovely feed given to them by Carrie Marks Kirkpatrick last Sunday evening.

Well, Dot Patterson and Julia Combs are over in Morrison and have you noticed how noisy the hall has become?

Janet Benn and Emily Cooper gave the Chi Omegas a marvelous feed Sunday night.

Miss Collins is rooming over in South now after the practice House closed and don't you know she's enjoying having the college life again.

Martha Martin and Mary Young gave the Kappa Kappa Chi feed Sunday night and um, did they eat.

This isn't Society but it's just a rumor—have you heard about the Poetry Club to be formed?

The Kappa Delta's had a picnic feed and everyone brought something to contribute to the menu.

Mrs. Parks Kirkpatrick gave the Alpha Gamma Delta's a lovely feed last Sunday night.

New Club Formed On Campus

On the afternoon of January 13, a group of girls met at Mrs. Townend's suggestion to form a poetry club. This club is being organized to encourage those who write poetry, and to promote study and appreciation in others. As this was the first meeting, no program had been arranged, but plans for organization were discussed. The club plans to meet once a month, the next meeting to be held on February 3, at Mrs. Townend's home. At that time the program will be devoted to the study of Edna St. Vincent Millay. Each member has been asked to bring some interesting comment on her life and works.

So far there are twelve girls in the club. They are: Nina Norris, Clara Hazel, Lou Martin Miller, Katherine McLesky, Edith Storm, Jeanette Malloy, Virginia Sampson, Rachel Boyer, Amaryllis Airail, Rebekah Hassel, Lottie Lane Joyner, and Carolyn Akers.

Davidson Glee Club and Reception

On Friday evening, January 8, in Queens auditorium, the Davidson Glee Club and orchestra presented a very entertaining program, consisting of a number of classical selections and some popular music. This glee club was sponsored by the Junior class.

After the program the Davidson boys and Queens girls attended the reception given by the Junior class.

Juniors, we hope you made money. We know you need it for the Prom.

Former Student Fails To Return

Martha Grant, from Hartsville, South Carolina, is the only student who did not return after the Christmas holidays. Martha was a member of the Sophomore class, and very well liked by all the students. She is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Martha is planning to remain at home the rest of the winter. Everybody will certainly miss her here, and Queens Blues wishes her the very best of luck and happiness.

Brunettes—Take Heart Your Day Is Dawning!

Fashion-fickle lady is having a change of heart. Not many moons ago she favored the fair-haired goldie-locks, natural or platinized, preferably the latter. But now! Everything seems to point to the fact that the Brunette is to have her break. Fashion seers and film stars predict it and what that invincible combination predicts today is so tomorrow, the day after or next month—but it is bound to be, it is inevitable!

At this very moment, feminine stylists and interior decorators are vying with each other in flashing across the color horizon the new shade Spanish Tile! Spanish Tile! What does it suggest to you? Charging bulls, brave matadors, cheering crowds? Time-mellowed tints of ancient Moorish palaces, street dancers, delightfully lazy Spain? Or a tropic moon perhaps, soft music, the click of heels, the clap of the castanets, a gay cavalier serenading a dark-haired damsel. Ah, always the dark-haired damsel singing or smiling or dancing her way into you, but to the modern world it means a fashion revolution. It means that the dark-haired damsel's day is dawning.
