Team work is a great thing, where would the centipede be if he moved one leg at a time?

Scotch—What do you charge for taking a tooth out?

Dentist—Four Dollars.

Scotch—And how much do you charge to loosen it?

Golfer—(seeing country fisherman with bait worms in mouth.) Cripes, man? How can you keep those things in your mouth? Why don't you put them in your pocket?

Fisherman—Hey? Put these nasty things in my pocket with my lunch? Should say not!

"What is a lawyer, mister?"

"A lawyer is one who induces two men to fight and then runs off with their coats."

"Do those First Classmen next door borrow much from you?"

"They sure do. Why, I feel much more at home in their room than in my own."

Cadet—I have a picture of you in my mind all the time.

Alice—How small you make me feel.

Husband (ringing own telephone number) — Hello, is that Mrs. Brown?

Feminine Voice—Yes.

Husband—This is Jack; will it be all right if I bring home a couple of fellows to dinner?

Feminine Voice — Certainly, darling.

Husband—Did you hear what I said?

Feminine Voice—Yes.

Husband—Sorry, madam, I've got the wrong Mrs. Brown.

"Don't you ever take a vacation?"

"I can't get away."

"Why? Can't the firm do without you?"

"Quite easily. That's what I don't want them to find out."

tion is the conservation of human life."

"Prohibition has not corrupted youth. Allowing for all cases of juvenile delinquency, the young men and young women of this generation are as intrinsically fine and worthy as young people ever have been."

Before Dr. Poling completed his talk, his audience was imbued with the hope that America would not only remain true to her noblest ideals of the past but would press on to greater heights.

Ike—Sure, I know some tricks, but haven't any equipment to do them with.

Mike—What kind of tricks do you perform?

Ike—Coin tricks.

Lady (to little boy)—My dear, does your mother know you smoke?

Small boy—Madam, does your husband know you speak to strange men?

He asked — How much does Romeo? I always do forget.

She answered — That depends, you know, in what Juliet.

"You are reading a travel book. Preparing for a holiday?"

"No, I'm on a holiday now. I sit here and dream of travel."

"But you are reading the book backwards."

"Yes, I'm on the return journey."

"When I was in China, I saw them hang a girl."

"Shanghai?"

"Yes, six feet off the ground."

that race is an artificial concept and that there is no such thing as race.

BRENAU COLLEGE IDEALS EXPRESSED BY CARVING

The true spirit and ideals of Brenau College are to be symbolically expressed by carvings on a tulip tree log. The graceful figure of an Indian maid, an eagle standing at her feet, is to represent girlhood and strength. The symbol of friendship is represented by an Indian maid and an Indian boy with their backs turned to each other and hands touching. The college seal and symbols of sportsmanship and science are to be represented besides the symbols of art, music, drama, and knowledge which have already been carved.

That the word "swell" is used to describe 4,972 situations is the claim of the President of the University of Southern California in criticising the meager vocabulary of the college student.

We Think We Have Helped

The number of married males has increased in the United States in the past 10 years by 4,447,843 according to the Census Bureau. The number of married females has increased by 4,851,823. No, we can't explain the discrepancy in the figures, but the point we want to make is this: Women have less fear of household work than they had ten years ago. Why not, in these days of Electric Ranges, Refrigerators, Grills, Irons and Dishwashers . . . innumerable other appliances that take the curse of drudgery off the housewife.
