

SOCIETY

Mary Brown Guest of Honor at Lovely Tea

On Monday, February 29th, at the home of Mrs. Booker, the Foods III class entertained at a lovely tea, in honor of Mary Brown, who was celebrating her twentieth birthday.

The guests were greeted at the door by Jane Renfrow and Elizabeth Shelton.

The guest of honor was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. C. Brown, of Barium Springs.

In the dining room, the table was graced by a low centerpiece of snap dragons, narcissus, carnations and lighted tapers.

Ruth Sweeney poured tea, while mints, nuts, and birthday cake, were served by other members of the class.

The guests included: Mrs. W. C. Brown, Mrs. J. M. Renfrow, Miss McLean, Miss Forman, Carolyn Arnette, Lottie Lane Joyner, Blanche Coley, Elizabeth Thompson, Evelyn McMillan, and Margaret Cathey.

Miss Edwards Gives Tea

Betty Harrison, Mamie Hunter, Marie Wilkinson, Mary Guy, Amaryllis Ariail, Mary Frances Austell, Clare Hazel, and Jeanette Malloy were complimented by Miss Edwards, their faculty advisor, with a tea given on Monday afternoon from 4:30 to 6 o'clock at the Kappa Kappa Chi House. After a pleasant social hour, refreshments were served.

Margaret Miller is going home with Reid Ramseur this week-end, presumably to recuperate from Queens' Blues.

Dark Blues Go On A Hike

Frances Johanson, Olivia Curlee, Lib Mason, and Ruth Kale, members of the Dark Blue team, tumbled out of bed bright and early Saturday morning to go on a hike. They met in front of Main Building at six o'clock and hiked down through the woods into the swamps, where they bogged up almost to their knees. And did they have fun? Just ask them. True enough, they say the bacon tasted mighty good when they walked up just in time for breakfast.

Beta Pi Theta Meets Friday

Interesting Program on France Given

Beta Pi Theta met on Friday afternoon, February 26, in the Hut. In the absence of the president, Virginia Anderson took charge of the program. "Traveling in France" was the topic for discussion. Virginia Anderson, Carolyn Lillard, Harriet Guerin, and Frances Rippelmeyer gave talks on "French Railways," "French Hotels," and "Scenic Spots in France."

After the meeting, sandwiches, tea, and mints in the Beta Pi Theta colors were served.

Alpha Omicron of Kappa Delta announces the initiation of Ruth van der Maaten, Minna Le Grand, Martha Carnes, Evelyn McMillan, and Betty Stough.

Gamma Gamma of Alpha Gamma Delta announces the initiation of Marie Wilkinson, Dorothy Patterson, Margaret Floyd, Virginia Barrow, and Katherine McLesky.

Classical Club Has Meeting

Members Delightfully Entertained by Mary Law Gray, Rebeka Henderson, and Margaret Neale

Mary Law Gray was hostess to the Classical Club Thursday afternoon. Assisting Miss Gray as hostesses were Rebeka Henderson, Amy Hodges, and Margaret Neal. Amy Hodges gave a talk on Roman Dress, for which Mary Law Gray and Rebeka Henderson acted as models. They wore the Roman tunic, toga, and sandals.

Games pertaining to St. Patrick's Day were played by the members. At the close of the social hour, ice cream and green iced cakes, with green and white mints were served by the hostesses.

The library looks natural again with Miss Harrell back at her desk again.

DEBATES TUESDAY

(Continued from page one)

This is the first year of debating at Queens-Chicora. The debaters are receiving splendid co-operation from the faculty as well as the students. Great success is expected for it by everyone.

Poetry Club Holds Meeting

Virginia Sampson Is Hostess To Members of the Poetry Club Wednesday Afternoon.

Virginia Sampson entertained members of the Poetry Club Wednesday afternoon, March 2.

A discussion of John Masefield, Poet Laureate of England, was led by Virginia Sampson, and several of his poems were read by Caroline Akers and Mrs. Townend.

At the close of the meeting attractively cut sandwiches, cake and tea were served by Mrs. Sampson.

Kappa Kappa Chi announces the initiation of Virginia Parsons, Grace Hubbard, Mary Hubbard, Rupert Perry, Malvine Asbury, Ruby Pennington, Rosa Lee Pennington, Lynn Sanders, Elizabeth Cassels, and Eleanor Woodcock.

Theta Gamma of Chi Omega announces the initiation of Margaret Guy, Mary Pope Murray, Clare Hazel, Adeline Woolley, and Ruth Currie.

Malvine Asbury Has Art Club

Mary Steere and Alice Cotham Give Life and Works of Van Dyke.

On Thursday, March the third, Malvine Asbury entertained the members of the Art Club at her home in Myers Park. Van Dyke and his works were studied at this meeting of the club. Mary Steere read a paper on the Life of Van Dyke, and Alice Cotham talked on his works.

At the conclusion of the program, the hostess served cake and coffee. The members present were, Lou Martin Miller, Grace Walker, Alice Cotham, Mary Steere, and Sarah Ashcraft.

A school newspaper is a great invention

The school gets all the fame;
The printer gets all the money,
The staff gets all the blame.

Mary Young — What's your roommate like?

Frances Johanson—Everything I've got.

Margaret Wilson is a welcome visitor at Queens-Chicora. We know Mrs. Wilson's happy.

Ruth van der Maaten Honors Father

Visitors Entertained at Kappa Delta House With Informal Tea

Ruth van der Maaten delightfully entertained from 3:00 until 5:00 with an informal tea at the Kappa Delta house on Saturday, March 6, honoring her father, Rev. C. E. van der Maaten, who spent the week-end in Charlotte.

The guests were greeted at the door by Ruth, who wore black velvet. Minna Le Grand, wearing brown chiffon, assisted the hostess.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of coffee, individual iced cakes, and mints, were served. The St. Patrick motif was carried out in conjunction with the Kappa Delta colors, green and white. Evelyn McMillan and Mary Shelton Pridgen assisted with the serving.

About sixty guests called during the afternoon to meet Rev. van der Maaten.

Spring Holidays Coming Soon

Everyone is looking forward to Spring Holidays with much enthusiasm. They begin at 10:30 Thursday, March 24, and close at 9 o'clock Wednesday, March 30. This will be the first time some have been home since the Christmas Holidays and those who will be unable to go home for these holidays will enjoy the short rest just the same.

Beta Iota of Alpha Delta Pi announces the initiation of Rachel Boyer, Josephine Cornwell, Virginia Boyd, Blanche Coley, Jane Smith, Virginia Carey, Josephine Duncan, Sarah Kirkland, and Carolyn Akers.

Pi Delta Redecorates

New Radio Is Installed, New Chandeliers Put Up, and Furniture Done Over

The Pi Delta Literary Society has greatly improved its hall in the last few weeks, by the addition of an RCA radio and new chandeliers. Some of the couches and chairs have been repainted, also. New curtains, which were made by the Home Economics students, will be put up soon, and the floor will be done over later in the spring.