Chi Omegas Have Mothers' Feed

The Chi Omegas had their annual mothers' feed on Sunday night. The patronesses as well as the mothers were present. The patronesses of the sorority are: Mrs. J. C. Crowell, Mrs. M. M. Murphy, Mrs. O. L. Barringer, Mrs. E. Dwelle, and Mrs. W. H. Belk. The mothers of the students are: Mrs. W. R. Martin, Mrs. Mason Lillard, Mrs. R. G. Spratt, Mrs. A. A. Knee and Mrs. W. O. Smith. Others present were Mesdames Woolley, Sampson, Sheldon, and Crouch. Sandwiches, tea, and nuts were served. The feed was one of the most successful of the year.

Two Parties Sail For Europe Travel and Study Planned

Several students have received trips to Europe as graduating presents. Two members of the faculty are also going. The first party consists of Miss Juliette Mongin, head of the French department, who resides in France. Misses Thelma Stone, and Frances Johanson will accompany Miss Mongin and visit in her home for a short time. They will study together at the University of Grenoble, near the Alps. They will sail from New York, June 1, and take the S. S. Mauretania of the Cunard line. Mary Ivy and Anne Goodwin Smith will sail June 22, on the S. S. Majestic of the White Star line. The trip is the graduation present of their grandmother, Mrs. B. T. Rainey, who will accompany them. They will also be accompanied by two cousins of Bartow, Florida. The party will visit points of interest in England, France, Italy, Germany, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland and will return near the middle of August.

Seniors Entertained By Mrs. Morrison

Tea in Honor of Helen Darrone

The seniors were entertained by Mrs. Cameron Morrison on Saturday afternoon from 5:00 to 6:00. A lovely tea was given in honor of the hostess' niece, Helen Darrone, an outstanding member of the graduating class. The occasion was one of the most delightful events of the past week-end.

The Sophomore Breakfast

You have heard the old story about—who, what, when, where?? Here it is when it's really something.

The seniors entertained their little sister class at a most delightful breakfast on the back campus, Monday morning. We all had a grand time and think it was great of the senior sisters to entertain the sophomores so royally.

Alumnae Honor Seniors

The alumnae of Queens-Chicora honored the seniors with a luncheon on Saturday at 1:00 o'clock. After a short program the senior class received a charming toast by Mrs. Eunice J. Squires to which Miriam Dameron admirably responded. Mrs. Sue Rutzler congratulated the members present. After a song, "We're Loyal and True," Miss Cordelia Henderson presented an attractive skit. Mrs. Coulter recognized the guests of honor. Following the Alma Mater, Dr. Frazer pronounced the benediction.

Alpha Delta Pi Gives Breakfast

On Tuesday morning the Alpha Delta Pi's honored their seniors with a farewell breakfast. Several of the seniors' mothers and friends were guests. During the course of the breakfast the seniors were given their presents from the sorority seniors'. Dorothy Edmonson, the retiring president, was presented a lovely present from the entire chapter. After breakfast a gay time was had singing, autographing and most of all enjoying the fellowship of the seniors.

Gamma Sigma Entertains

At 8:00 o'clock on Saturday evening Gamma Sigma Literary Society entertained Pi Delta and the faculty with a tea. A large number of girls attended this very delightful occasion.

The girls were cordially welcomed by the hostesses of the evening, Catherine Jones and Helen Vincent. A very enjoyable time was had by all those present.

This Literary Society Tea is an annual affair that the girls always enjoy.

Sunday night all the sororities had their last feeds of the year. Many of the old girls, and many of the mothers, here for commencement, enjoyed them.

Marshals Are Chosen

The girls who have been chosen as marshals for this year are:

Juniors: Margaret Blankenship (chief marshal), Virginia Anderson, Amy Hodges.

Sophomores: Sarah Elizabeth Motte, Margaret Jones.

Freshmen: Louise Bickett.

These girls are to be congratulated on their fine records this year. They are a challenge to others to do as well. The school is proud of them.

Kiwanians Entertain

The seniors, on May 12, were the guests of the Kiwanians at an enjoyable luncheon. It is an annual affair, always looked forward to and enjoyed by the graduating class. The president of the club welcomed the guests. Misses Helen Wall and Iris Bryson gave a short musical program.

Senior Sponsor Entertains at Buffet Supper

The seniors were charmingly entertained at a buffet supper, May 11, given by their sponsor, Miss Marie Turnipseed, at Mrs. Boyd's Tea Room on Providence Road. Ham, salad, creamed potatoes, rolls, coffee, ice cream and cake, composed the attractive and tempting menu.

Art Exhibit Is Splendid

From 3:00 to 6:00 yesterday afternoon Miss Bremer and her pupils held an art exhibit at the art studio in the science building. There were charcoal, oil, and water color sketches. The art department has been doing splendid work during the past year, and the exhibit is a credit to both Miss Bremer and her pupils.

Smith Gives Supper

On Sunday night Annie Belle Smith gave a delightful supper in the "hut" in honor of Mrs. Smith, her mother, Mary Robinson Smith and Misses Gene and Sidney Smith, members of the family. Those present were Margaret Jones, Catherine Jones, Hughla Lee McCullum, and Mary Brown.
