Anderson Is Athletic President

Plans Made For Good Year

The election of Virginia Anderson as president of the athletic association is proving a fortunate event for the students interested in athletics. Plans are being formulated by the new president for a full athletic program this year. The executive committee of the association is composed of the following officers: president, Virginia Anderson; vice-president, Rebecca McClary; secretary, Jimmy Wilson; treasurer, Janie Berryhill; business manager, Dorothy Cothran.

The opposing Light Blue and Dark Blue teams compete in basketball, tennis and other activities; each team makes an effort to gain the highest number of points. This year it is hoped that each student will be a co-worker. The handbook sets forth the point system and the merits that may be won. If students will begin immediately to participate in activities, an interest may be aroused.

Methodist Church Entertains Students

The Queens-Chicora class of the Myers Park Methodist Church was entertained Friday night, September 30, at a banquet given at the church from 7:00 to 10:00 P. M. This was the first entertainment given the girls since their return. The new members were cordially welcomed. The following Queens-Chicora girls were present: Katherine Aaron, Margaret Almond, Margaret Council, Emily Collins, Virginia Gilkey, Katherine Harmon, Mauney Hoover, Evelyn McMillan, Laura Virginia Stallings, Letha Mae Stallings, Alice Washburn, Emily Wright.

Class Officers Are Elected

The freshmen elected Margaret Clegg chairman of the class last week. The chairman is a temporary officer who serves in the capacity of president. The president, secretary and treasurer are elected later in the year.

At a recent meeting of the junior class, Grace Walker was elected secretary.

The sophomore class elected officers this week as a result of vacancies left by girls who are not returning. The new officers are: president, Lottie Lane Joyner; vice-president, Dorothy Tyson; secretary, Jimmy Wilson; treasurer, Elizabeth Cassells.

The Red Cross-Join!

To the colleges of the country the Red Cross looks for its trained leadership. The real importance of enrolling college students as members is not merely to obtain memberships from among a particular group, but to spread a knowledge of the aims and objects of the Red Cross and to arouse the lasting interest of the young men and women who are soon to become actors in the public life of their communities.

The Red Cross now plays a prominent part in the activities of pupils of the high schools. Without intruding upon the regular curricula, it encourages a sense of citizenship and, through an exchange of correspondence with schools of the insular possessions and foreign nations, a broader interest in knowledge. The introduction to Red Cross work thus received in the secondary schools is carried into the colleges, where the annual roll call offers an opportunity for becoming acquainted with the program of the society.

As readers of news events, college students know that the Red Cross has been active everywhere in the past year in promoting its general peace-time activities and especially in relief work. It now may be worth while to speak of the part taken by Red Cross in

INTER-CLASS STUNT NIGHT

Trophy To Be Awarded

The athletic association is sponsoring, soon, an annual inter-class stunt night. Each class will present an original stunt, judged as to originality and finished presentation. Decisions will also be based on songs and yells of each class gallery. A silver trophy will be presented to the winning class, and will carry the name and colors of the class for an entire year.

Committees will be appointed and cheer leaders selected from each class. Keen competition will be aroused among the four groups. Who will win the silver trophy? Whose colors will adorn the cup?

Students Sign Pledge

New Council Member Elected

Members of the student body signed the student government pledge last Friday night. The councilmen conducted the girls into the literary society halls, where the formal vow was taken. Virginia Shellum has been elected as senior representative of the student council.

RUSHING SEASON ENDS

Societies Plan Successful Year

Pi Delta and Gamma Sigma literary societies are planning a series of interesting programs for the coming year. Last year the students began the tradition of debating. This year it is hoped that debating will continue with greater interest. Public speaking and dramatics are to occupy important places on the programs. The members of the societies are to be organized into the various groups of interests and are to give programs which have been well planned and prepared. The two societies will be strengthened by monthly programs which are to be attended by both societies and which are to be prepared and rendered on a competitive basis. The societies are to alternate in their monthly presentations. Every performance is to be judged from the standpoint of meritorious work.

Christian Asso. Presents Aim

Pledges Signed

The aim of the S. C. A. was presented to the students last Sunday night at vespers. Caroline Lillard, president of the association, explained the terms of the pledge which each girl signed. Eve Hill sang a solo, "Living for Jesus," which was in keeping with the theme of the evening.

The pledge reads as follows: The aim of our Student Christian Association this year is to have every girl on the campus living for Jesus. Trusting in God, I desire to help bring about the attainment of this aim by my attitude, my daily life, and my prayers.

Siddell To Make Annual Pictures

Students will have pictures taken next week from Monday until Thursday, at lunch. The photography, this year, will be in the hands of Siddell Studios from Raleigh.

According to reports from the editor, Mary Young, and business manager, Frances Kornegay, the annual is making fair progress. The printing will be done by the Queen City Printing Co., and the engraving by the Charlotte Engraving Co.

FIFTY-NINE PLEDGED

Monday, October 3, brought to a close a most successful rushing season for the six national sororities on the campus this year. The rushees created quite a bit of keen competition, but each Greek letter group feels that, as usual, it has been most successful.

Fifty-nine new students received bids to fraternities this year. Miss Marie Turnipseed, a member of the college faculty and also a member of the Chi Omega fraternity, issued the bids. The girls receiving them were dressed in white and went from Pi Hall, where the invitations were presented, then to the sorority houses where they were pledged.

The following girls were pledged:

Chi Omega

Athletic Teams Are Organized

The Light and Dark Blue teams have been recently organized. Today students began the accumulation of athletic points. Don't forget to drop your points in the box. Now is the time to begin a good athletic year.

Science Group Has Meeting

Phi Beta Chi met last week with Dr. Graham, head of the chemistry department. The meeting was enriched by Dr. Graham's relation of her experiences this summer. Especially interesting were her comments on the eclipse of the sun, which she observed from Portland, Maine.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and Virginia Shellum, who brought a fluffy angel food cake.
