

— SORORITY NEWS —

Alpha Gamma Delta

Mary China Stephenson and Rosalie Wyman were hostesses at the last Alpha Gamma Delta feed. Twenty - eight members were present. Preparations were made for the visit of Miss Julia Riser, inspector of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Alpha Gamma Delta pledges entertained the faculty and other sorority pledges with a depression party on November 22. Invitations were written on wrapping paper. A sign on the door, "Welcome to the Poorhouse," greeted the guests. The room was bare, except for a few dilapidated chairs. A sign pointed to a bread-line where hot dogs were served. Another led to hot coffee. Favors consisted of red, buff, and green colored candy.

Alpha Delta Theta

Elizabeth Cassels entertained the members and pledges of Alpha Delta Theta sorority at the chapter house on Sorority Row November 20, from 7:00 to 9:00 in the evening. Grouped around a fire whose cheery flames furnished the only light, the girls sang many Alpha Delta Theta songs. Concluding one of the gayest and most enjoyed of a series of Sunday night functions, Miss Cassels served a beautifully prepared supper in two courses.

Alpha Delta Pi

Friday evening Frances Gray of Charlotte was pledged into the sorority with a solemn and impressive ceremony. Following this, Herbert Hickenblicher gave a possum hunt for the day students of the sorority at his estate on the Carmel road. After this, a picnic was held in the woods. Sunday night Virginia and Frances Carey were hostesses at the regular Sunday night feed.

Kappa Delta

Louise Alexander and Margaret Jones had the regular Sunday night feed last Sunday at the Kappa Delta sorority house. Besides the regular members and pledges of the sorority several alumnae and visitors were present.

Emily Collins accepted the pledge of membership into Kappa Delta. The pledge service was held the first part of this week. The remaining Sunday night feeds from now until Christmas have been planned. On Sunday, December 11, the mothers of the day students will be guests. On the following Sunday, December 18, the sorority will have its regular Christmas social and Christmas tree.

Alpha Omicron of Kappa Delta announces the initiation of Margaret Jones, Friday, December 9.

Chi Omega

Theta Gamma chapter of Chi Omega fraternity announces the initiation of two new members: Sarah Page Murray of Cheraw, S. C., and Ruth Turner of Pink Hill, N. C.

Phi Mu

Hilda Clontz and Louise Miller were hostesses to a feed at the Phi Mu house Sunday night, December 4. The table was laid for fifteen members and pledges.

QUEENS-CHICORA RECEIVES A GRADE RATING

(Continued from page two)

money of $50.00 on the endowment fund in 1923. In 1925 Dr. Frazer appeared before the Southern Association seeking rating on the list of approved non-members. Up until December, 1932, Queens-Chicora has been given a provisional A grade rating, having met the twenty-one requirements of the association. Since 1921 new buildings have been erected, standards of the faculty have been raised; at present, there are six faculty members with doctor's degrees and nine with the degree of master of arts. There are 13,000 volumes in the library. Mr. Carson's closing words were: "Dr. Frazer has been the guide and inspiration which has led us today where we come to celebrate the era from June, 1921 to December, 1932. To him goes all the honor, the glory, and thanks of us all for what has been accomplished during these few years." Recognition and praise was accorded to Mr. E. E. Jones, treasurer of the endowment fund, and to Mr. Hunter Marshall for his legal services during the consolidation of Queens and Chicora. The support of students, faculty, alumnae, and ministers of Char-

(Continued on page four)

Unexpectedly yours
rain!

One never can tell.
Rain so often just happens.

Save your best shoes and hose from destruction. Step into any shop-

Get Gaytees. Trim, tailored, glowlike outer shoes in a color and pattern to match your ensembles.

Here you are defying all the elements and in what style!

A smart pair of Gaytees does it!

slip on

Gaytees

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
NO SNAPS • NO BUCKLES • NO FASTENERS

Use Pictures!
IN YOUR ADVERTISING
CHARLOTTE ENGRAVING CO.
DESIGNERS ARTISTS CHARLOTTE, N. C. PHOTOGRAPHERS ENGRAVERS

Increase the Pleasure of Social Life

When your requirements call for printed matter be sure to give us the opportunity of discussing that problem with you. It costs so little more to get correct and distinctive printing—created in the spirit of its function.

Programs, Menus, Folders, Visiting Cards, Invitations, Club Stationery

Phone 4151

NEWS PRINTING HOUSE

Charlotte News Building

Church and Fourth Street