 lotte, and the Presbyteries was acknowledged.

Dr. Frazer and Others Speak

Dr. Frazer spoke of his indebtedness to many for their interest in the college. Especial appreciation was expressed to Mrs. Cameron Morrison, who made possible the building of Morrison hall in 1927. "It was done" the president said, in speaking of the efforts made for recognition, "in the way of co-operation on the part of trustees, students, friends, to be used in service and development of fine young women, whom God in his providence has permitted to come to this institution." Mr. Hunter Marshall acknowledged a bright future for Queens-Chicora in the way of quality production. Mr. H. P. Harding, superintendent of the city schools, expressed the influence of Queens-Chicora as a Christian and cultural institution.

DUKE GLEE CLUB AND ORCHESTRA ENTERTAIN

 sity, was the guest artist. Two selections from Rachmaninoff and Moszkowski showed the artistic powers of this great pianist.

The Duke Collegians played a number of well received popular hits; "Minnie the Moocher," sang by J. B. Allardice and "Doll Dance," xylophone solo by Harry Ingle, were among the best numbers. Probably the most popular selection of the program was "Joshua Fit de Battle ob Jericho," which was sung twice by the Glee Club.

"DON'T see how you do it!" That's the gist of the flood of letters we have received from old friends and new since announcing our new "450" Package.

We knew the "450" Package would amaze everyone. Here's why. The ordinary box of stationery contains 24 sheets and 24 envelopes. The "450" Package contains 300 sheets and 150 envelopes!

Cheap paper? Not a bit of it. Finer paper is used in the "450" Package than in many boxes of high priced social stationery!

And each sheet and envelope is neatly printed with your name and address—the smart and logical way to have your stationery finished. It is convenient—protects your letters from loss in the mails—helps business houses get your name accurately and lends a neat distinction to your notes.

Two million people can't be wrong—and two million people have sent to Peru, Indiana, for American Printed Stationery!

Try it. It's the same style note paper we have sold for 18 years—same printed name and address—same correct size, 6 x 7—same price. But the quantity is now 50% greater!

Send one dollar—check, bill or money order ($1.10 west of Denver and outside of U. S.). Your package will be printed and mailed within 3 days of the receipt of your
