

Greetings, Rudy!

God's gifts to the ladies—and the old maids in particular—paid a brief visit to the Queens girls Friday afternoon. After what seemed hours of frenzied waiting, the girls were awarded a glimpse of Rudy Valee, America's most popular nuisance.

Mr. Valee appeared in a dark Plymouth, riding in the back seat. The car stopped; Mr. Valee got out, blushing. Who wouldn't, with fifty fiendish females massed around him? He removed his checkered cap, smiled ingratiatingly, and proved that the camera can't always be right. He is really much better looking than his pictures. He is a tall, weathered looking young man. He is extremely tan, and his fair hair is much lighter than his face.

For once the canary refused to sing. He merely bowed, looking frightened, and jumped back into the car. The "oh, so blase" blonde, who was with the distinguished crooner, aroused more interest than the singer himself.

As usual, our very efficient librarian capped the honors of the scene. Her pursuit of the retreating automobile will doubtless go down in Queens-Chicora history. At least, it was a worthy cause; and we congratulate Miss Harrell.

Pledge Breakfast At Phi Mu House

The members of Phi Mu fraternity were delightfully entertained by the pledges of the chapter at a valentine breakfast February 12.

The house was decorated in a unique manner appropriate to the valentine season. This motif was carried out in each of the casement windows by the use of red hearts and cupids. The lights were shaded by valentine and a huge heart with the Phi Mu letters serving as a coat of arms, hung over the fireplace. The tables were charmingly decorated with attractive valentine place cards and pert, red-skirted dolls.

The guests were received by Jo Foard, president of the pledges. Breakfast was served by Hilda Clontz, Dot Foard and Reid Ramseur.

The guests were Marion Price of Charlotte and Margaret Witherpoon, student at W. C. T. C. and week-end guest of Hilda Clontz.

For the first time since 1890 when the Lee Memorial was dedicated, the V. P. I. and V. M. I. corps paraded in Richmond taking part in the dedication of the Virginia World War Carillon.

Six Students Join
The Math Club

There were six new members initiated into the Math Club: Eileen Brown, Georgiana Harper, Mary Bowen, Madeline Kelley, Ruth Grover, and Miriam Steele. On Tuesday, February 14, the Math Club held its regular meeting in the Y Hut at 4:30 P. M.

After the services, delightful refreshments, carrying out the valentine scheme were served by Miss Jones, Janie Mae Boykin, and Evelyn Stone.

The last part of the meeting followed with short talks from current magazines given by Alma Orr and Janie Mae Boykin. Evelyn Stone gave a summary of the work done in practice teaching.

To be a member of the club a student must make an average of B on all math taken in college and an average of B on all other work the preceding semester. The student must also have a major or a minor in mathematics.

Kappa Omicron Initiates Four

Kappa Omicron initiated four new members Friday, February 10: Janet Robinson, Katherine McKleskey, Sara Elizabeth Motte, and Frances Rippelmeyer. After the ceremony Edith Storm entertained at her home.

There are twenty-three campus organizations. Last week at Wednesday chapel the students were informed about the work and purpose of these organizations.

Sorority initiations will take place to-morrow. Banquets, in honor of the new initiates, will be held to-morrow evening.

"Mrs. Perkins' Birthday," a one-act play by Mrs. Towend, was presented in chapel Wednesday.

THACKER'S, INC.
"A GOOD PLACE TO EAT"
 Continued Service, 6:30 A. M.—8:00 P. M.
 118 South Tryon Street
 CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Russia Is Subject of
I. R. C. Program

The monthly meeting of the I. R. C. was held Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 in the Hut. Prior to the program Katherine McKleskey was initiated into the fraternity. The subject for discussion was "The Five-Year Plan of Russia." Claudia McChesney and Janet Robinson served coffee and doughnuts.

Art Club Meets With Una Ninnis

The Art Club met with Una Ninnis Tuesday, February 14. Margaret Smith discussed the different phases of the life and works of John Kane. The valentine motif was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Tomato aspic salad moulded into heart shapes, sandwiches, coffee, candy hearts, and peanuts were served.

Shellem Pledged Alpha Delta Theta

Katherine Shellem, member of the sophomore class, was formally pledged by the Psi chapter of Alpha Delta Theta sorority in a beautiful pledge service Saturday night. The pledging took place in the temporary chapter room of the sorority in Burwell hall. Mary Young, president of the chapter, presided.

Immediately after the pledge service, Eleanor Woodcock entertained at her home at Amherst Place.

Sandwiches of all kinds
 Soda Fountain—Delivery
 Service, no extra charge
GREEN GABLES
 Phone 9683

Opens
Monday
 for 5 days

WILL ROGERS
 JANET GAYNOR
 LEW AYRES
 SALLY EILERS
 NORMAN FOSTER

—in—
"State Fair"

Campus Copy

By Fritz Freshman

Nothing ever happens . . . but the Alpha Delta Theta house burned up the other night . . . a murder was enacted just across the street . . . Rudy Valee dropped by to see us . . . and Miss Harrell got his autograph.

Some scenes that make life worth living: Caroline Arnett hemstitching some handkerchiefs, men's size . . . a certain blonde in Morrison weeping for five hours straight trying to keep the inmates of Morrison hall quiet . . . Lottie Lane Joyner looking angelic in a white nightgown . . . Janet Hilton looking dramatic in a black cape . . . that no-stamp sign on Evelyn Tommins' door . . . Virginia Senn blushing beautifully . . . that high jump Mary Mac did when she got the Whitman's sampler from Jack . . . Lucille Blue shellacking the floor of the Alpha Delta Theta's new chapter room.

(Continued on page 4)

Ivey's New Adoria Stocking
at $1.00
is NEWS!

It's a chiffon so clear and so fine that you'd expect it to be about twice this price. New shades, too.

J. B. IVEY & Co.

The Truth So Bare
 It Will Amaze You!
"FLAMING PASSION"

—and—
DR. W. H. BELMONT

—ON THE STAGE—
 Lecturing on
TRUE SEX FACTS

Women Only
 Monday and Tuesday

Men Only Wed. and Thur.

Increase the Pleasure of Social Life

When your requirements call for printed matter be sure to give us the opportunity of discussing that problem with you. It costs so little more to get correct and distinctive printing—created in the spirit of its function.

*Programs, Menus, Folders, Visiting Cards,
 Invitations, Club Stationery*

Phone 4151

NEWS PRINTING HOUSE

Charlotte News Building

Church and Fourth Street