

Thelma Stone

In the fall of 1925, Thelma Stone entered Queens-Chicora College as a Freshman. Last week she left her Alma Mater to accept a responsible position as secretary to the manager of the Home Loan Bureau, located in Salisbury, N. C.

Eight years ago Thelma came to Queens from Anchorage, Ky., to receive her education. We who did not know her at that time can see that she studied diligently and maintained a high scholastic record by a glance at the comments accompanying her picture in the Edelweiss. She was a member of four of the honorary societies on our campus—the Latin Club, Phi Beta Chi, the English Club, and the Iota Xi. Her leadership is also proved by the fact that during the last two years of her college life she was chosen as an officer of each of these societies. These two lines which were quoted beneath her picture seem to us quite fitting: "Those graceful acts, those thousand decencies That daily flow from all her words and actions."

In the spring of 1929 she received her A.B. degree in French. For the next four years she remained at Queens as secretary to Dr. Frazer. During this time she had charge of the Book Store and also taught a class in typing.

Her two chief interests besides her work are music and French. When in high school at Anchorage, Ky., she studied music and after coming here kept up her practice. Miss Stone has spent her summer vacations doing graduate work in French. In the summer of 1931 she went to France with Mrs. Smith, a member of our faculty, and studied at the University of Grenoble and at L'Alliance Francais. During this past summer she worked on her Master's Degree at Chapel Hill.

Her leaving Queens-Chicora came as a surprise to us all. Since her departure we have heard many favorable comments about her. A member of our faculty remarks, "Thelma is proficient and versatile. I'm glad that she is doing so well." A Freshman says, "I was scared to death of Miss Stone when I started working in the Book Store. She was so businesslike and all, but I soon found out that she really wasn't such a bear." Then the dignified Senior expresses the sentiment of most of us when she says, "I can't imagine Queens-Chicora without Thelma. She just seems to belong here."

Economics Club is Reorganized

Mr. Courtney, from Ivey's, gave an interesting talk on "How to Buy Clothes." His subject carried us through a "Jewish Hordwane"—which is a shop for women's ready to wear. After the talk he gave the girls a chance to ask question. The talks are not only for the Home Economics Girls, but for everybody. Anyone who is interested is invited to attend.

The officers of the club are: Audria Alexander, president; Catherine Wilson, vice-president; Catherine Shellan, secretary; Evalina Stevenson, treasurer.

Other members:

Martha Abernathy, Jo. Duncan, Ruth Turner, Louise Holland, Eleanor Hayes, Louise Orr, Hilda Clontz, Virginia Poovey, Gladys Baum, Sarah Fisher, Louisa Drennon, Vivian Hilton, Florence Moffet, Audria Alexander, Dolly Maddox.

WEBSTER'S COLLEGIATE

"The best American dictionary that has yet appeared for a college student to keep within arm's reach. What he does not find between its covers in relation to the general use of words in speech or on printed pages will not be necessary to a liberal arts degree."—Orton Lowe, Director, Winter Institute of Literature, University of Miami.
The best abridged dictionary because it is based on the "Supreme Authority"—Webster's New International Dictionary. 108,000 entries including hundreds of new words, with definitions, spellings, and correct use; a dictionary of Biography; a Gazetteer; rules of punctuation; use of capitals, abbreviations, etc.; a dictionary of foreign words and phrases. Many other features of practical value. 1,268 pages. 1,700 illustrations. See It At Your College Bookstore or Write for Information to the Publishers.
