

People You Know

Ruth Currie, Eileen Brown, Jean Stough, Marjorie Robinson, Frankie Hoyle, and Clare Hazel went to Greensboro last week-end. They saw Caroline Wharton and said she told them that she sure wished that she could come back to Queens with them.

Nette and Peg Malloy went back to good ole Cheraw again this week-end.

Lulu Hall just up and goes home most anytime without even a thought as how to get back! Of course Raeford sees to that.

Virginia Parsons goes off every week-end too.

Margaret Truesdale came back from home this week-end with the biggest smile and what's more, just look over her heart.

Reid Ramsaur reported a grand and glorious time at Raleigh. Who wouldn't?

Kat Shellem swore she wouldn't go to Denver again before Thanksgiving, but there's no use wasting a perfectly good week-end when you have it, says Kat.

Fraternities Hold Meetings

Iota Xi: held a meeting Wednesday, November 1, 1933, for the purpose of electing new officers. The following were put in office: vice-president, Sara Escott, secretary and treasurer, Margaret Ashcraft. A discussion about the bids to new members took place.

Kappa Omicron: met on November 1, at the home of Janet Robinson. At this meeting there was much enthusiastic planning for the year.

One of the most important items of business was the discussion of three prospective members. It was decided that Clare Hazel, Jeanette Malloy, and Virginia Sampson, have met in full the requirements for membership and shall be initiated at a special meeting soon.

For this meeting Janet Robinson, the program chairman, had arranged a tour of Southeastern England. Beginning with South Hampton she crossed to the Isle of Wight with Tennyson, visited Salisbury and there made the members acquainted with Pepsy, Fielding, and Martin Chunnlewit's "Tom Pinch." Her last stop was at Stonehenge. Frances Rippelmeyer, the President of Kappa Omicron, continued with a discussion of Dorset, emphasizing the Hardy country. This was followed by Katherine McLeskey's literary findings in Devon and Somerset and the Lorna Doone country.

The meeting was concluded with an informal social hour at which refreshments were served by Janet Robinson, the hostess.

ited, but the original oration must be between 1200 and 1800 words with no more than 200 words of quoted material.

Each school may enter one contestant in the After Dinner Speaking Contest and one in the Extemporaneous Speaking Contest. In the latter, the contestants will draw topics from three different fields and select one. The speeches will last from six to nine minutes.

Dr. Blair and Dr. Stout will be glad to talk to any student who wants further information about any of the various contests.

The Math Club held its second meeting of the year Tuesday, November 14, at the home of Miss Marie Turnipseed, one of the advisors.

30% of School Children Have Defective Vision

Studying under poor light is responsible for the greater part of defective eyesight.

The sense of vision is your most precious possession. Poor lighting causes eyestrain and fatigue which may result in permanent injury.

Don't handicap your future by risking injury to your eyes.

The new indirect lamp provides illumination adequate in quantity and free from harmful glare. It is the best and most economical "eye insurance" that you can buy.
