CULTURAL COURSES OFFER-ED STUDENTS

For those desiring cultural background in departments other than their major or minor field the following opportunities are given. The Latin Department will offer who have not studied Latin, with the culture and the language of the Romans. Students internationally minded will be given an opportunity to learn what the Nazi, Fascists, Soviets are doing to the thinking of their countrymen and the relation of that to thinking in our own country in a course in Comparative Education offered by the Department of Education.

The ruling of the Southern Asociation permitting nine hours of Home Economics courses to be counted toward the A. B. degree will permit liberal arts students to avail themselves of courses in Cooking, Home Planning, Sewing, and Child Care.

In 1935 the college will be in a position to offer the much desired Primary Certificate for teachers by the addition of courses in Nature Study and Primary Methods.

The growing desire of liberal arts students to qualify for secretarial positions involving much more than a knowledge of stenography and typewriting will be met by elective courses in Commercial French, Applied Psychology, Economic Geogra-
