

AKG Taps New Members In Chapel

Nine New Members Admitted—National Convention on Campus

Alpha Kappa Gamma, the national honorary leadership fraternity, "tapped" for membership in an impressive ceremony held Thursday morning, April 19, at the chapel exercises, nine outstanding leaders in the campus life of Queens.

Dr. Frazer presided at the meeting, and Janet Robinson made an interesting talk on "The Place of Alpha Kappa Gamma on the Campus."

The students chosen to become members of the honorary fraternity are Mary Louise Thomas, of Charlotte, a member of the class of 1932 and now secretary to Dean Blair; Eve Hill, of San Antonio, Texas; Ruth Grover, of Charlotte, who was recently elected president of the student body for the coming year; Dorothy Cothran, of Timmonsville, S. C.; Emily Evans, of Charlotte; Marie Wilkinson, of Charlotte; Margaret Trobaugh, of Morristown, Tenn.; Betty Manning, of Charleston, S. C.; and Virginia Sampson, of Charlotte. Faculty members are Dean Blair and Miss Alma Edwards.

NATIONAL CONVENTION HELD HERE

The national convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma was held here this year on Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21, with the Queens-Chicora chapter acting as hostess.

The delegates were entertained by several features. They were welcomed Friday afternoon at 2:30 by Dr. Frazer. After the business session and reports of committees initiation of the new members of the Olympian Circle was held in Pi Delta Literary Hall Friday night the delegates were honored by a dinner given in a private dining room at the S & W Cafeteria. At that time Mrs. Patsy Smith Goodwin spoke on "Great Leaders."

Saturday morning the convention was divided into groups to discuss the various campus activities.

Rebecca McClary, of Georgetown, S. C., is president of the Queens-Chicora chapter of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Conferences On Vocational Guidance

A. A. U. W. Brings Speakers of Note To Talk to Pupils

VOCATIONS CHOSEN IN CHAPEL

On Tuesday, April 24, during the morning and early afternoon ten Vocational Guidance conferences were held on the campus. These conferences were held as a project of the American Association of University Women in Charlotte. The A. A. U. W. selected speakers from the ten vocations in which Queens-Chicora girls were most interested to speak to the girls on their subjects.

Recently in chapel a survey was taken among the students and the following eleven vocations were found to be the most popular: Social Service, Art, Independent Business Women, Aviation, Buying, Laboratory Work, Office Work, Radio Broadcasting, Journalism, Nursing, and Medicine. From these eleven vocations ten were selected and informal conferences were held on each subject.

The purpose of these conferences was that Queens-Chicora girls might know what vocations were open to women today and that they might become better acquainted with the fields in which they are interested. In these groups were discussed the problems in each field, the opportunities for originality, and the openings in each field today.

The speakers chosen by the A. A. U. W. were Mrs. E. Hunter, on Journalism; Miss Alleen Wood, Office Work; Dr. Sylvia Allen, Medicine; Mrs. E. T. Davidson, Laboratory Work; Miss Virginia Hamilton, Art; Miss Anne Wilkinson, Buying; Miss Constance Rabin, Social Service; Mrs. S. B. McPheeters, Nursing; Mr. Le Grande Everett, Radio Broadcasting; Miss Anne Pierce, Independent Business Women.

The conferences which were held in the sorority houses and the Day Student House were well-attended by the students.

Eve Hill was the chairman of the committee and other students who worked with her were Fritz Raley, Jean Orr, Ann McLaughlin, Carolyn Hoon, Grace Walker, Jeanette Malloy, and Margaret Trobaugh.

May Day To Be Held May 2; Mary Steele Hubbard Queen

Sorority Ratings

It can be seen that the six National Sororities on the campus are vying keenly for the scholarship cup this year.

Kappa Delta	88.49
Alpha Gamma Delta	88.46
Chi Omega	88.05
Phi Mu	86.44
Alpha Delta Theta	85.88
Alpha Delta Pi	83.80

ACTIVES

Chi Omega	89.79
Kappa Delta	89.52
Alpha Gamma Delta	87.74
Alpha Delta Theta	86.78
Phi Mu	86.40
Alpha Delta Pi	86.05

PLEDGES

Alpha Gamma Delta	89.19
Kappa Delta	87.47
Phi Mu	86.49
Chi Omega	86.32
Alpha Delta Theta	84.99
Alpha Delta Pi	81.56

Day Students Variety Night

Proceeds from the Variety Night program, presented by the Day Student Organization Wednesday, April 25, will be used for more equipment for the Day Student House.

The program consisted of a one-act play, "The Trysting Place," whose cast was composed of misses Mary Steele Hubbard, Frances Ivery, and Frances Hunsucker, Charles Hamilton, Donald Hamilton and Herbert Phillips, a tap dance by little Miss Holland; a comic monologue; and an Indian musical pageant by the Hubbards, assisted by a chorus.

Old Legend To Be Theme Of Fete

The regular Annual May Day will be held on the Queens campus Wednesday afternoon of May 2 at 4:00 o'clock. The public has been invited. In case of rain, this function will be postponed until the first clear day following the date set. Miss Cordelia Henderson, athletic instructor, has arranged and directed the features of this May Day festival.

MAY COURT

Miss Mary Steele Hubbard was chosen from the student body to be the May Queen. Her sister, Grace Hubbard will be the Maid of Honor. The May Court chosen this year are the following people: Jeanette Malloy, Bertha Burch, Bettie Wicker, Frances Raley, Virginia Hubbard, Marie Wood, Janet Hilton, Hannah Richardson, Mary Frances Erlich, Miriam Story, Frances Robinson, Martha Petteway, Carolyn Hoon, Miriam Steele, Mary Wisdom Lambeth, Jean Porter, Houghla Lee McCollum, Lois Meacham, Eleanor Hayes, Frances Scruggs, Clare Hazel.

There will be many small children from town who will attend the Queen and her court. Those participating will be: Flower Girls: Macy Ross, Peggy Helms, Nancy Lee Cheatham, Sara Robinson, Grace VanNess, Virginia Anne Landis, Barbara Whittsett, and Louise Flemming.

(Continued on Page 4)

Officers Of Organizations Are Chosen

Publications, Clubs And Sororities Hold Elections

Student government, publication, and sorority officers for the year 1934-35 have been elected. They are as follows:

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS

President of student body, Ruth Grover.

Boarder Organization: president, Dorothy Cothran; vice-presidents, Lula Hall, Margaret Truesdale, and Vivian Hilton; secretary, Dorothy Ehrhardt; treasurer, Frances Smith.

Day Student Organization: president, Peggy Mitchell; vice-president, Marie Wilkinson; secretary, Virginia Gabriel; treasurer, Jean Orr.

Student Christian Association: president, Mary Pope Murray; vice-president of boarders, Rachel Hamilton; vice president of day students, Emily Evans; secretary, Mary Frances Austelle; treasurer, Roberta Kilgore.

Athletic Association: President, Mae Cook; vice-president, Grace Hubbard; secretary, Dorothy Senn; treasurer, Jean Kent Early.

PUBLICATION STAFFS

A new publication by the senior class the plan of which will be kept secret until next year: Editor-in-chief, Virginia Sampson; literary editor, Jeanette Malloy; business manager, May D. Marion.

Queens Blues: editor, Betty Manning; business manager, Molly Mullen.

SORORITY OFFICERS

Chi Omega: president, Clare Hazel; vice-president, Virginia Sampson; secretary, Katherine Crowell; treasurer, Almedia McGinnis.

Kappa Delta: president, Eleanor Hayes; vice-president, May D. Marion; secretary, Louise Holland; treasurer, Jane Ellen Taylor; assistant treasurer, Frances Smith; editor, Marie Burton.

Phi Mu: president, Martha Petteway; vice-president, Bessie Shipp; secretary, Marguerite Prevost; treasurer, Loise Thompson; assistant treasurer, Mary Philips.

Alpha Delta Pi: president, Margaret Trobaugh; vice-president, Mary McMaster;

(Continued on Page 4)