

SORORITIES GIVE RUSHING PARTIES

Open House Held At Houses During Morning

Sorority "Rush" week began Monday, September 23, when the Gamma Gamma chapter of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority entertained for its rushees in the chapter house. Open house was held from 10:00 to 4:00 o'clock. At 5:30 o'clock a Japanese dinner was given. Lanterns, wisteria, and cherry blossoms gave the house an Oriental atmosphere. Miss Martha Ward, president of the sorority welcomed the guests. During the dinner, the guests were entertained with several Alpha Gam songs sung by Miss Lois Meacham accompanied by Miss Margaret Floyd; Miss Rosemary Holland danced a buck-tap. While the members of the sorority sang the "Rose Song of Alpha Gamma Delta", the rushees were presented with corsages of red and buff roses, the sorority flowers.

The K. D.'s entertained their rushees Tuesday. Open house was held from 10 o'clock until 2 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the rushees and K.D.'s left for Rozelle's Ferry where they spent the afternoon. A skit featuring some of the alumnae was put on in which the K. D. history was revealed. Martha Dulin presented the rushees with corsages while singing "White Rose of Kappa Delta." Immediately after this dinner was served. During dinner Eleanor Hayes and Jean Marion entertained with a skit. Martha and Lucille Dulin gave several recitations. After singing sorority songs; the day ended with "K. D. Taps."

Beta Iota chapter of Alpha Delta Pi closed its rushing on Wednesday. The activities were at home to the rushees from 10 to 3 o'clock at the chapter house on the campus, and from 5 to 7 o'clock the chapter entertained with a formal banquet at the Hotel Charlotte. The motif for the program was "Building the Pin." After the sorority blessing was sung, the president, Mary McMaster, gave a toast of welcome "To the Builders of the Pin," which was followed by a toast to the rushees, "To the Pearls." After the singing of "Violents," a sorority song; Josephine Long, the vice-president, gave a toast to the alumnae, "To the Clapsed Hands." Margaret Trobaugh sang another of the sorority songs. The last toast of the evening, "To the Diamond," by Miss McMaster, was followed by the song "I Love the Pin." Behind the head table hung the beautiful lighted pin, the diamond of Alpha Delta Pi. At each place was an attractive program in blue and white, the sorority colors.

ATHLETICS WILL BE FEATURED ON TUESDAY

Swimming, Basketball, Riding, Archery Are Offered

Queens-Chicora College is going up and up. And the Athletic Association has not been left behind in the course of progress. This year a definite day has been set aside as Athletic Day. On Tuesdays there are no labs, no classes, no meetings, and so each student is able to participate in some athletic activity. At 1:30 a class in beginners archery is held; at 2:30 there is a class in advanced archery. A fee of fifty cents is charged those who do not have any equipment. Those who wish may go riding at 2:30. For no extra charge the riding instructor at the stables will give riding lessons. A class in beginner's tennis is offered at 3:30. The courts have been scraped and lined. Now is a good time to brush up on your form in preparation for the tournament next spring.

On some Tuesdays games will be played or tournaments held. Tuesday, October 8, there is going to be a baseball game between the Day-Students and the Boarders. The last baseball game between the Day-Students and the Boarders was an overwhelming victory for the Day-Students. This will be a chance for the Day-Students to uphold their record, or, perhaps, the Boarders will show the Day-Students how to play ball. Later, after the beginners have mastered the art, an archery tournament will be held. Before Xmas there will be an inter-class volley-ball tournament. Later comes the basketball tournament. Which class will win that cup? Will that Junior class win it for the third consecutive year? Or will the Seniors or the Sophomores take them down a peg or two? And everybody is wondering what the Freshmen will do. Next spring swimming and tennis tournaments will be held.

Right now everybody can take swimming or life-saving at the YWCA on Monday at 2:30 and at 4:30, and on Friday at 4:30. The Red Cross life-saving lessons are given on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 5:00.

THURSDAY LECTURE SERIES BEGUN FOR COMING SEASON

(Continued from page one, col. one) physician of Charlotte, will lecture on "Important Health Habits," and a talk on "Physical Ills in Relation to Mental Ills" will be given by Dr. Sylvia Allen who is one of Queens-Chicora's new professors and a famous psychiatrist. Dr. Abernethy will explain "Some Fundamental Principles of Mental Health." Two lectures on necessary business knowledge, "What the College Girl Needs to Know About Banking" and "The College Girl and Her Budget" will be given by Miss Mary Inglis, Head of the Commercial Department here, and Mrs. Warren H. Booker, head of the Home Economics Department, respectively.

The next division of the lecture series will be a vocational guidance program. This group of talks will be based on "The Cultural and Vocational Values of the Various College Subjects," and will be discussed by the professors in these respective departments at Queens, and by prominent leaders in the various vocations, and during the series Standardized Vocational Guidance Tests will be administered by Dr. Abernethy.

The lectures to follow those on vocational guidance are: "The Use of Leisure Time," to be given by Dr. Doris Howe, Head of the Biology Department of Queens-Chicora; "Good Taste and How to Dress for Class," by Miss Ruth Grover, Student Secretary of the College; and "Taking Care of Clothes and Wearing Them Well," by Miss Fulton of the Home Economics Department of Queens-Chicora.

Other lectures along this same line will be arranged for the second semester, but as yet, definite plans have not been made.

KRATZ CHOSEN AS INSTRUCTION DEAN OF QUEENS-CHICORA

(Continued from page one, col. three) her senior year she served as president of the Women's Student Government Association. She was a member of the undergraduate board of the Young Women's Christian Association. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta, national social fraternity; Mortar Board, National leadership; Phi Beta Kappa, and Pi Lambda Theta. The past year Dr. Kratz served as President of the Philadelphia Alumnae Group.

With Dr. Kratz's wide experience in Student Activities as well as her splendid preparation in the fields of Education, Sociology and Psychology, she is expected to become a most valuable member of the faculty of Queens-Chicora college. Dr. Kratz is a woman of strong character, charm and personality. We feel certain that the Alumnae and the Student Body will be very pleased with the selection of Dr. Kratz as the Dean of Instruction of Queens-Chicora College.

Seniors of '36 Engaged In Varied Work

Many Are Teachers, Business Women, Wives

It was with much interest and expectancy that I paused a few days ago to look up the members of our last year's Senior Class. It seems to me that they are all marching on with no uncertain stride.

By far the greater number of them are teaching. I found that the following are full-fledged school marms: Peggy Mitchell, kindergarten; Helen Faye Orr, Indian Trail, N. C.; Lula Hall, Indian Trail, N. C.; Vivian Hilton, Tryon, N. C.; Catherine Shellem, Mocksville, N. C.; Dorothy Cothran, Easley, S. C.; Louise Bickett, Willard, N. C.; Laura Jeanette Quattlebaum, Chester, S. C.; Catherine Wilson, Thornwell, S. C.; Mary Frances Austelle, Marion, N. C.; Mae Cooke, Huntersville, N. C.; Sarah Fisher, Newton, N. C.; Georgianna Harper, North Goose Creek; Martha Johnston, Harrisburg, N. C.

You'll find May D. Marion in Ivey's Yarn Shop. Lib Cassel's is now working in the office of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and Virginia Sampson is with the Duke Power Company. Grace Hubbard is doing office work for the Works Progress Association. Miriam Steele and Mary Dee McMullen have become laboratory technicians; Miriam is in Dr. Barrett's office, and Mary Dee is in a hospital in Virginia.

Those taking post graduate work are: Josephine Duncan, at Auburn, Ala., and Marie Wilkinson, at Queens-Chicora.

Eleanor Hayes is leaving for New York on October 2nd, to be with her brother this winter. Claire Hazel is also in New York, modeling with John Powers Agency.

On the marriage list we find Mary Pope Murray, who is to be married this month. Also Lillian Gwaltney who is now Mrs. Robert Charnley.

Queens Blues To Sponsor Contest

Attention Freshmen and Sophomores! The QUEENS BLUES announces a contest in which a prize will be given to the Freshman and Sophomore who does the best work on the QUEENS BLUES during this year. All Sophomores and Freshmen are eligible. The prize, which will be given at commencement, is $10.00 to the Sophomore and $5.00 to the Freshman. All eligible students desiring to enter the contest will write during the year articles for publication in the Queens Blues; hand a duplicate copy of each article with your name and class to Thorburn Lillard, to be filed and judged at the end of the year. This contest offers a wonderful opportunity to bring forward talent and literary ability in the Sophomores and Freshman classes, and prepare for a fine QUEENS BLUES in the next years. The staff hopes that as many as possible will enter the contest.
