

Alpha Kappa Gamma To Meet Here

National Convention Will Be Held On The Campus
December 11 - 12

On Friday and Saturday, December 11 and 12, Alpha Kappa Gamma, National Leadership Fraternity, will hold its annual convention at Queens-Chicora College. The schools to be represented are Virginia State Normal, Farmville, Va.; University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.; University of South Carolina, Columbia, S. C.; and Queens-Chicora, Charlotte, N. C. The main topic of discussion is to be, "Over Organization on the Campus."

Registration will be at 2:00 o'clock on Friday; following registration, circle meetings will be held and committees appointed. The guest of the afternoon will be Dr. J. M. Godard, Dean of Instruction at Queens-Chicora, who will speak on "Dangers of Over Organization." A special feature will be presented in the evening. On Saturday the Panel reports will be given. A banquet will be given for the delegates at the Charlotte Woman's Club at which time there will be a number of special speakers. The convention will close on Saturday night.

Miss Helen Gordon Visits Chi Omega

From October 27 through October 29, Miss Helen Gordon, national representative of the Chi Omega Fraternity, visited the Theta Gamma chapter of Chi Omega here at Queens-Chicora College.

Miss Gordon, a member of the 1935 graduating class at Southwestern University is from Memphis, Tennessee.

While here she held conferences with the various officers and group chairmen of the fraternity.

On Sunday, October 27, she was entertained at the regular Sunday night feed; on Monday night a joint meeting of the actives and pledges was held; and on Tuesday night, October 29, an informal banquet was given at the Hearthstone in her honor.

Wednesday morning, Miss Gordon left to visit the Chi Omega chapters at the University of North Carolina, and Randolph Macon.

Students Consider New Plan

Plans for choosing May Court attendants of 1937, in a different manner from that of former years are under consideration. The student body will choose a committee who will select fifty girls to be presented to the students. Under the new plan the students shall by votes elect twenty-four girls to May Court.

Formerly, the May Queen and Miss Henderson, director of May Day, have selected the attendants. The new plan will be submitted to the students for discussion, and acceptance or rejection in a student chapel in the near future.

The faculty and student body of Queens-Chicora wish to express to Miss Mary Fulton their heartfelt sympathy in her recent bereavement, in the loss of her father.

Miss Orr, Miss Petteway May Queen Candidates

MARTHA PETTEWAY WINNER

Senior Home Ec. Students In Practice House

The Senior Home Economics girls moved into the practice house on November 5. The house has been newly decorated and is very attractive.

The following will explain the occupations of the girls at the present time. Thornburn Lillard and Mary Wilson are host and hostess respectively; Mary Durden and Betty Cabell are the cooks; Carolyn Wearn and Elinor Clayton are the housekeepers; Myrtle Dowd and Francis Dowd are the waitresses; and Ruth Walters is the maid.

The girls rotate in their jobs so that each one may have experience in the different tasks.

Linnean Club Hears Steir

Captain James Steir, prominent Boy Scout leader here in Charlotte will speak at the regular monthly meeting of the Linnean Club, Wednesday, November 11, on the subject "Summer and Fall Wild Flowers."

Captain Steir is well fitted to speak on this subject as he has done much outstanding work with his scouts in this field.

The Linnean Club, under the direction of Miss Nooe, has planned a very interesting program for the entire year. Officers of the club are: Alice Parker, president, Sara Little, vice-president, and Mary Louise Spratt, secretary-treasurer.

Five Students Are In The "Who's Who"

Executive Council Members
Appear In New Publication

Jean Orr, Louise Thompson, Frances Smith, Elsie Setzer, and Adeline Kilgore have been invited to appear in this year's Who's Who Among College and University Students. These five members of the senior class are members of the executive board of student government.

Jean Orr is president of student government, Louise Thompson is president of the day students, Elsie Setzer is president of the Student Christian Association. President of the boarding students, Frances Smith, and athletic association president is Adeline Kilgore. They are members of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Queens Civic Orchestra Concert

The Queens Civic Orchestra under the direction of Don Richardson, will present its first concert on December 10. The orchestra has made much progress since the first of the year. Mr. Richardson is violin instructor at Queens-Chicora this year.

Among the thirty-eight members of the orchestra are: Dorothy Carson, Ermine Waddel, Jean Dulin, Billy Richard, Sarah Hunsucker, Jack Jones, Rogers Mozell, Herbert Ninis, Ruth Kilgo, Frances Westbrook, Clyda Gamble, Eleanor Niven, Margaret Flowe, Camarlt Hartman, O. T. Polk, Willie May Cooper, Ruth Hough, C. B. Efrid, Charles O'Kelly, Joe Beard.

Dr. Godard Announces Distinction Students

Lit. Society Monthly Meet

Interesting Programs Presented By Members Of Three Groups

The Literary Society held its regular bi-monthly meeting on November the fourth at 4:30.

The Book Tea Group met in Blair Union. Mrs. Agnew, who was the guest speaker, talked very interestingly on "Women Authors of Today." Among others, she mentioned Margaret Mitchell, the author of Gone With The Wind. She also passed around a lovely group of pictures of women authors which she has collected. After the talk the roll was called and the meeting was adjourned.

The Debating Group had a very interesting meeting. Mrs. John Lyon discussed "The Principles of Debating" and Martha Grace Hood, the group leader, spoke on "The Strategy of Debating." The last work of the afternoon was in the form of a short skit on Parliamentary Law and was presented by two members of the group, Betty Hunter and Isabel Turner. After this program, it was decided to hold a debate at the next meeting. The group divided into two sections, one part discussing the affirmative, and the other the negative of the question:

Resolved: Boarders get more out of college than Day Students.

The Creative Writing Group met in the Kappa Delta House. Under the guidance of Mrs. Godard and Mrs. Lyon, they discussed work contributed by some of the members.

All of the groups seem very much interested in their projects, and the leaders of the Literary Society are expecting a very successful year.

Day Students Hold Regular Meeting Nov. 11

The day students held their regular monthly Day Students Meeting on Wednesday, the eleventh of November, in the auditorium. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the students with their own organization; its duties, and its functions.

The meeting was opened with the roll call and secretary's report. In order to avoid the necessity of a roll call, hereafter, each student was assigned to a permanent seat. Four proctors, Helen Stroupe, Edith Gallant, Martha Rayburn, and Elizabeth Green, were appointed, one for each class.

After the business had been completed, short talks were made by members of the Day Student Council on the duties and functions of the entire organization. Henrietta Henderson spoke first on the History of the Day Student Organization. She was followed by talks on the Use of the Day Student House by Jane Wiley, the Monday Morning Prayer by Catherine Marshall, the Lockers by Doris Gambrell, the Cafeteria by Sue Mauldin, and the Care of the House by Martha Johnston. After this program the meeting was adjourned.

Faculty Reports Students Having Unusual Ability Of Originality

Throughout the school year members of the faculty may report to the office of instruction names of students who are showing unusual ability or originality in any course. Up to November 10 of this year the following names have been reported by members of the faculty: Elizabeth Green, Marguerite Buffum, Jane Zimmerman, Estelle Hull, Mary Louise Spratt, Louise Crane, Sarah Little, Helen Hatcher, Eleanor Guyton, Martha Stewart, Harriet Truesdale, Margaret Calder, Sarah Hunsucker, Martha Stoner, Alice Crowell, Edith Gallant, Doris Joines, Elizabeth Martin, Sara Paxton, Dorothy Muse, Naomi Rouse, Kay Spaeth, Virginia Smith, Callie McElroy, Mary Franklin, Georgie Underwood, Ruth Knece, Jane Taylor, Annie Long, Elizabeth Cranford, Martha Hood, Jean Kent Early, Jane Davis, Hilda McManus.

Jane Zimmerman was thus reported by three of her teachers. Marguerite Buffum, Estelle Hull, Margaret Calder, Edith Gallant, and Martha Hood were each reported as superior by two instructors.

Queens Blues Passes Sixteenth Milestone, Nov. 8

Student Body Hears Address
By Mr. Cameron Shipp Of The Charlotte News

On Saturday, November 7, at the regular chapel hour, the student body was privileged to hear a talk by Mr. Cameron Shipp, of the Charlotte News. This address was given as a part of the celebration of the sixteenth anniversary of the QUEENS BLUES. Pidge Lafitte, editor of the QUEENS BLUES, after giving a brief history of the school paper, which was first edited on November 8, 1920, introduced the speaker.

In speaking of newspaper work, Mr. Shipp told of the mistaken ideas that the public had of newspaper reporters and editor's offices. These ideas have been promoted by motion pictures which paint the reporter as a glamorous part of that exciting game of editing a daily paper. The newspaper plays a great part in our world of affairs today. Mr. Shipp said, "There will not be a dictatorship as long as there is a reputable newspaper and reputable reporters."

In closing, Mr. Shipp congratulated the QUEENS BLUES on its progress made in the last sixteen years. "From a small paper," he said, "I have seen it grow into the publication it is today . . . a paper which is an outstanding member of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association."

Important Notice

The Editorial Staff and the Reporters of the QUEENS BLUES will have a most important meeting on Monday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, November 16, in the English room. This meeting is for organization and all those failing to attend will be considered disqualified to continue on the editorial or reporters staff of the QUEENS BLUES.