SWING GOES ACADEMIC

Swing has been a campus institution for some two odd years, but this fall it will invade an Eastern lecture hall for the first time, cloaked in the scholarly robes of university curriculum. New York University has added to its faculty Vincent Lopez, popular baton-slinger who titles his brand of dansapation, "sophisticated swing." Professor Lopez begins his lectures on popular music next month, and his band will lay it in the groove at the University Chapel in November.

Tea Served By Phi Mu Pledge Group

The Phi Mu pledges gave their annual pledge tea Tuesday afternoon from four to five. The pledge officers, Helen Jenkins, President, Mary Alice Petteway, vice-president, Mimi Bradham, secretary, and Mildred Thomas, treasurer, received the guests. The house was artistically arranged with dahlias and mixed garden flowers. Cheese crackers, sandwiches, nuts, mints, and tea were served.

The old saw about opposites attracting each other in affairs of the heart is just the exception that proves the rule, science has decided.

Dr. E. Lowell Kelly of Connecticut State college is piling up evidence that like attracts like when it comes to matrimony.
