

SORORITY ROW

Chi Omega Has Annual Banquet For Initiates

The Theta Gamma Chapter of Chi Omega Fraternity held its initiation banquet Saturday night, March 5, at the Hotel Charlotte.

The banquet table was arranged in the form of a horse shoe, and bowls of mixed flowers of cardinal and straw, the sorority colors, formed the decorations. Place cards and programs were of cardinal engraved with the gold seal of Chi Omega. The initiates were presented with onyx glove vanities.

Elizabeth Gammon was toastmistress for the evening. She formally opened the banquet and introduced Elizabeth Calder, president of the chapter, who gave a toast to the initiates. Marie Roseman responded. Mary Currie gave a toast to Chi Omega and this was followed by one to the actives by Carolyn Reynolds. Ruth Knee responded. Nancy Hovis made a toast to the alumnae and Mrs. Gale Rogers responded. Sue Mauldin then gave some informal notes on the chapter.

Eleanor Alexander, pledge instructor, presented Marie Roseman with a ring bearing the seal of Chi Omega as an award for being the best all-around pledge. Maujer Moseley was chosen model initiate and June Escott's song was chosen as the best pledge song.

The banquet was continued with the singing of Chi Omega songs and was formally ended with the singing of the Panhellenic Toast.

The new initiates are Anne Purnell, Marie Roseman, June Escott, Mary Payne, Maujer Moseley, Judith Killian, Natalie Nivens, Caroline Sibley, Bebe McQueen, and Peggy Williams.

Spectator Club Has Dick Pitts As Speaker

"The Paint Palette" held its monthly meeting Monday, February 6, at the Phi Mu house. Anita Stewart and Sybil Trexler were joint hostesses.

Dick Pitts, a critic and artist on the staff of the Charlotte Observer, was the guest speaker. Mr. Pitts, a talented artist, illustrated his interesting talk by sketches.

Light refreshments were served to Mr. Pitts, Miss Lillian Bremer, faculty adviser, and the following members: Hazel Adams, Alice Barron, Jessie Rose Clarke, Kay Duncan, Jean Ferguson, Katherine Raiford, Anita Stewart, and Sybil Trexler. Vera Boulware and Elizabeth Harms were special guests.

Sara Kelly Williard and Peggy Williams will be the guests of Frances Stough at her home in Cornelius this week-end.

Those Queens sweaters are still the rage on the campus, even with the coming of spring.

Spring holidays begin March 31. Also before that time quarterly tests will be given.

Chi Omega

Elizabeth Maynard, an alumna of Chi Omega from Lexington, North Carolina, spent last week-end with Martha Ware Pitts and attended the Chi Omega banquet.

Grayce Hackney spent last week-end at her home in Lake City, Florida. Her mother, Mrs. Russell Hackney, accompanied her on her return trip to Charlotte to visit for a few days.

Thorburn Lillard of Elkin, N. C., attended the Chi Omega banquet March 5, and spent the week-end in the college with her sister, Sara Kelly Lillard.

Adele Sutherland is recovering rapidly from an operation for appendicitis.

Sara Liles of Rockingham, N. C., spent last week-end in Charlotte with Bertha Burch and was present at the Chi Omega banquet.

Elizabeth Gammon has returned to Charlotte from Augusta, Ga., where she spent a few days. While there, she attended the Black and White Cotillion given by the Bachelor's Club.

Jean Stough of Cornelius, N. C., attended the Chi Omega banquet.

Mrs. Warren Booker has returned to this city from Raleigh, where she spent a few days this week.

Mrs. Ed Saylor, who was formerly Miss Nancy Phillips, recently moved to Charlotte from Atlanta, Georgia. She was a Chi Omega at Queens-Chicora College.

Frances Stough spent last week-end at her home in Cornelius, N. C.

Miss Kathryn Curran was a guest at the Sunday night feed, March 7. She has just recently moved back to Charlotte from Richmond, Va.

Alpha Delta Pi Entertains New Members

Beta Iota chapter of Alpha Delta Pi sorority held its initiation program at the home of Mrs. Odell Long Saturday afternoon, and following the services the active chapter entertained the new initiates with a banquet held in the private dining room of Thackers. The dining room was decorated by the huge diamond-shaped pin of Alpha Delta Pi which hung above the table.

Miss Eugenia LaFitte, president of the group, presented the following new members of the sorority: Marjory Russell, Lenore Russell, Jean Miller, and Edith Tinsley, all of Florence, and Margaret Lloyd of Anderson, S. C., Catherine King, Lumberton, and Anneal Triplette of Lenoir.

Sally McDowell presided as toastmistress for the evening. Toasts were given by Frances Marian O'Hair, Jessie Good, and the main speaker was Jane Steel of Charlotte, province president.

A loving cup was presented to Snoodie Matheson as the best-all-round pledge. Jean Miller got honorable mention for scholarship. Each new initiate received a gold link bracelet engraved with the Greek letters of the sorority. The banquet was closed with the singing of "I Love the Pin."

Guests included the actives, new initiates, pledges, and alumnae members.

Sue Welch visited friends in Winston-Salem last week-end.

The organ has been fixed finally, and also the bells regulated, so now we run by a new schedule.

Alpha Delta Theta

Marion Teal spent the week-end of February 26 at her home in Chesterfield, S. C.

Nancy Raley spent the week-end of February 26 at her home in Ruby, S. C.

Miss Rosalind Carbett, of Mebane, N. C., spent the week-end of March 5 with Sara DuRant and Lynch Crockett. Miss Carbett is an alumna of Alpha Delta Theta sorority and was here to attend initiation and the banquet.

Ellen Hardee went to her home in Graham on the week-end of February 25.

Henrietta McIver spent the week-end of February 25 at home.

Marjorie and Frances Poole went to their home in Mullins, S. C., on the week-end of the 25th.

Frances Gunn, Harriet Brown, and Nancy McIver, and Lynch Crockett, after initiation, spent the remainder of the week-end with Kathryn Lowrance, who is one of the alumnae of Alpha Delta Theta.

Ellenore Eddy and Frances Earnhardt spent the week-end of the 25th at their homes in Pinehurst.

Phi Mu

Dot Alexander entertained at a dinner party on the evening of February 22. The following guests were present. Carolyn Wolfe, Margaret Porter, Betty Gardner, Hibernia Friend, Frances Marian O'Hair, Betsy Springer and Mimi Bradham. After dinner Bingo and other games were played.

Mary Gilmer Richmond has had as a recent visitor her mother, and during her stay here, Mrs. Richmond was a guest at the Phi Mu Sunday night feed.

Mimi Bradham spent the last Sunday in February with her parents, who were in Charlotte for the day.

Catherine Todd spent the week-end of March 6th with Alene Ward. Miss Todd is a Phi Mu alum and was here for initiation.

Inspector Is Honored By Phi Mus

Gamma Gamma chapter of Phi Mu national sorority entertained with a tea last week in honor of Miss Meta Shaw, national inspector, who was here for inspection of the local chapter. The tea was held at the sorority house.

Lois Hodges of Charlotte, president, of the group, received the guests, who included representatives from the other campus sororities and actives and pledges of the Phi Mu sorority.

He killed the noble Billigoatski
Of the fur he made him mittens,
Made them with the fur side inside,
Made them with the skin side outside,

He, to get the warm side inside,
Put the inside skin side outside,
He, to get the cold side outside,
Put the warm side fur side outside.
That's why he put the fur side inside,

Why he put the skin side outside.
Why he turned it inside outside.
—Scripts 'n Pranks.

Kappa Delta

Martha Alexander spent the week-end of February 26 in Raleigh, where she attended the State dances.

Gigi Brandon spent the same week-end with Caddie Willis in Concord.

Virginia Spoon recently spent the week-end at her home in Burlington.

Helen Douglas spent the week-end of February 26 at Bethune and is spending this week-end at her home in Chesterfield.

Jean Douglas will be the guest of her aunt in Albemarle this week-end.

Jean Wiley will go to Montreat this week-end, where she will join the councillor section of the American Campers Directors Association. She will be in charge of the handicraft exhibit for their annual meeting.

Frances Riddle, Pedie Burke, Olivia Gillispie, Lib Taylor and Alice Barron spent the week-end of February 26 in Columbia, S. C.

Members of Kappa Delta entertained at a tea Friday afternoon at the home of Beverly Hemby on Providence Road. The tea was given in honor of Miss Ann Cleveland Doner of the University of Virginia, province president of the sorority.

Jane Wiley, local chapter president, received the guests, who included the actives and pledges of Kappa Delta and representatives from the other sororities on the campus, Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, and Miss Frances Smith.

The house was decorated with spring flowers and the sorority colors of green and white predominated in the refreshments.

Miss Lucy Williams entertained last Saturday night at her home following the Kappa Delta banquet. Members and pledges of the sorority attended the party, which was in honor of Miss Ann Cleveland Doner, Province President, who was visiting in Charlotte for the Kappa Delta initiation services.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother.

Phi Mu Gives Banquet Tea For Initiates

Honoring their new initiates, the active members of Phi Mu sorority entertained for them in the form of a banquet given in a private dining room of the S & W Cafeteria. The decorations carried out the sorority colors, rose and white. A large shield decorated with the sorority flowers, was used as a centerpiece for the banquet table.

Miss Julie Thomas acted as toastmistress. Toasts were given during the course of the evening by Lois Hodges, Lib Imbody, and others. A skit was presented by several of the actives.

Miss Hodges was presented with a guard for her pin in recognition of her services as president of the chapter during the past year. Mary Gilmer Richmond of Concord was presented with the recognition pin for being the best-all-round pledge. Mimi Bradham received the scholarship award.

The initiates honored were: Carolyn Wolfe, Mary Gilmer Richmond, Mildred Thomas, Betty Kale, Lib Imbody, Boots Miller, Ruth Morrison, and Mimi Bradham. Besides these the actives, several pledges and alumnae attended the banquet.

Dates on Saturday night will probably have a big scramble for chairs in the newly decorated hall in Burwell.

Kappa Delta Honors Its Initiates

Alpha Omicron Chapter of Kappa Delta sorority held its annual initiation banquet at the Hotel Charlotte, Saturday evening following initiation services at the chapter house in the afternoon. Jane Wiley, president of the group, acted as toastmistress.

The new members are: Barbara Davis, Emily Dunlap, Beverly Hemby, Betty Guy, Peggie Harrison, Dorothy Hoppe, Mary McDevitt, Betty Purser, Ermine Waddill, and Lucy Williams, all of Charlotte, and Olive Crowwell of Asheville, Bonnie Cox of Morganton, Jean Douglas of Chesterfield, S. C., Marion McManus of Monroe, Frances Riddle of Columbia, S. C.; Lillian Sample of Fort Pierce, Fla.; Mary Lib Stevens of Mooresville, and Marjorie Venning of Mount Holly.

The banquet tables were arranged in a diamond shape and the sorority colors of green and white were used in the decorations. Ferns, white roses, and candles graced the tables. The place cards had the sorority seal in gold, and at each place there was an attractive program done in the colors.

There were many toasts during the evening, being made by Jane Wiley, Helen Hatcher, Ermine Waddill, Barbara Shatzer and Mrs. John Moore. Caddie Willis gave a reading. The special guest speaker of the evening was Miss Ann Cleveland Doner of the University of Virginia, who is Province President. She was in Charlotte to attend the initiation and banquet.

Ermine Waddill was presented with the Kappa Delta recognition ring for being the best-all-round pledge. Alice Crowwell received a recognition pin for having gotten the highest scholastic average for the year.

Kappa Delta songs were sung between the courses and the program was closed with the linking of arms to form the "Friendship Circle" for the loving cup ceremony.

Honor guests of the evening were Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, Mrs. J. N. Godard, Mrs. Floyd Strawn, Miss Ann Cleveland Doner, Miss Frances Smith, faculty adviser, and the patronesses of the sorority.

Alpha Delta Pi

Marjorie Timms spent the week-end at her home in Winnsboro.

Lenora Russell attended the German Club dance at Furman College.

Sally McDowell was guest of Helen Cumnock in Davidson Friday night.

Elizabeth Cranford spent last week-end at her home in Gastonia.

Mrs. Sam Love, of Gastonia, visited the chapter Wednesday.

Edith Tinsley spent the week-end in Atlanta, Georgia, where she attended the Emory University dances.