French Club To Present Lecturers
The French Club of Charlotte is presenting a great treat to those interested in the person of Major Max Vinier, a writer and artist of note who will lecture in the Queens-Chicora auditorium in the near future.

Major Vinier lectures on the condition of French women in his tours throughout the United States and has chosen as the title of his Charlotte talk "Women of France during the Crusades." A special invitation has been extended to the French students of Queens-Chicora, Davidson, and Central High School.
