

DUEENS BLUES

Z-526

Published Weekly By The Students of Queens-Chicora College

QUEENS-CHICORA COLLEGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

October 22, 1938

Vol. 18, No. 5

These sixteen girls were selected this morning to represent the beauty of Queens-Chicora College in the 1939 edition of The Coronet, college annual. They are, first row at bottom, left to right: Misses Barbara Davis, Cornelia Truesdale, Marjorie Poole, June Escott; second row, left to right, Misses Brooksie Folger, Mary King and Anne Purnell; third row, left to right, Misses Winnie Shealy, Doris Raley, Tiny Waddill and Adele Sutherland; fourth row, at top, left to right, Misses Frances Lowrance, Virginia Hickman, Frances Stough, Sally McDowell and Marjorie Timms.

Group Holds Initiation

Robinson, Albright, Durant, Fuller, Hurt, Brown, Are Initiated

Alpha Kappa Gamma initiation was held on Tuesday afternoon, October 18, in Pi Hall, at which time six Persons were initiated into the Olympian Circle of the national honorary leadership fraternity.

Miss Grace Robinson, Miss Thelma Albright, Sara Durant, Anne Fuller, Georgie Hurt, and Annie Mae Brown were initiated at the service presided over by Eleanor Alexander, presi-

Other members of the circle include Mildred Lowrance, secretary, Sally McDowell, treasurer, Sue Mauldin, editor of the Torch Bearer, Helen Hatcher, Helen Cumnock, Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, and Dr. Dorisse Howe.

Members of the group will have charge of the selling of tickets for the performance of "The Taming of the Shrew" to be given at the college on November 8 by the Avon Players.

The Rev. Mr. Peter Marshall, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, D. C., will hold the fall services of the Student Christian Association on December 13 and 14, it was announced yesterday by Mildred Lowrance, president of S.C.A.

The plan of service has not yet been definitely outlined, but it will include chapel program in the morning, discussion groups in the afternoon, and round table discussions in the evening as usual.

Local Club Has Meeting

International Relations Club Initiates Three Girls At Meeting

Initial meeting of the year was held by the International Relations Club of Queens-Chicora College on Monday afternoon, October 17, at which time three new members were initiated into the local chapter.

Those taken in include Eugenia Baker of Charlotte, Marjorie Timms of Winnsboro, and Mildred Thomas of Charlotte.

The topic of the discussion was England, and the following talks were given: Juanita Putnam spoke on the history of the English government; Ruth Knee spoke on the Retreat of Britain; and Frances Marion O'Hair spoke on England's Part in the Treaty of Munich. The meeting was held in Pi Hall.

Officers and members of the club are Frances Marion O'Hair, president; Katherine Craven, vice-president; Ruth Knee, secretary; and Sara Kelly Lillard, treasurer; and Dorothy Branon, transfer from Shorter; Juanita Putnam, transfer from Appalachian; and the three new mem-

The annual Student Christian Association convention will be held this year at Peace Junior College in Raleigh, N. C., with Queens-Chicora college sending three delegates.

Those who will go include Mildred Lowrance of Mooresville, president of S.C.A.; Katherine McQueen Martin of Maxton, and Olive Croswell of

This convention was held at Queens-Chicora last year.

Classes Pick Sixteen Girls

Four Beauties Are Selected For Coronet Section By Each Class

Sixteen girls were chosen on Wednesday, October 19, following student chapel, to represent the beauty section of the 1939 edition of the Coronet, annual publication of Queens-Chicora College.

Those chosen from the senior class include Marjorie Timms of Winnsboro, Sally McDowell of Pacolet, S. C., Anne Purnell and Adele Sutherland of Charlotte.

From the junior class were chosen Marjorie Poole of Mullins, S. C. Frances Stough of Cornelius, Brooksie Folger and Barbara Davis of Charlotte.

Sophomores selected include Frances Lowrance of Barium Springs, June Escott of Charlotte, Virginia Hickman of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Cornelia Truesdale of Kershaw, S. C.

Freshmen elected to the section were Tiny Waddill of Charlotte, Doris Raley of Ruby, S. C., Winnie Shealy of Gastonia, and Mary King of Columbia, S. C.

The election was held by each of the class editors, including Margaret Duckett, senior, Dorothy Alexander, junior, Ermine Waddill, sophomore, and Tiny Waddill and Ann Mauldin, freshman co-editors.

Sue Mauldin and Ruth Knee of Charlotte are editor and business manager, respectively, of this year's Coronet. The pictures will be sent selected in order.

First Radio Broadcast Features Choral Club

Stunt Night Heads Chosen

Reins, Hurt, Brammer, Young Will Lead Classes On November 16

Stunt night chairmen for the annual event to be held on November 16, as announced by Cree Roberts, president of the Athletic Association, were elected on Wednesday following the student body chapel.

Those elected include, as senior chairmen, Frances Reins of Lenoir, chairman of the stunt, and Mildred Lowrance of Mooresville, chairman of the gallery; in the junior class, Georgie Hurt of Charlotte as stunt chairman, and Frances Stough of Cornelius, chairman of the gallery; sophomore heads, Lib Brammer of Christensburg, Va., chairman of the stunt and Mary Payne, leader of the gallery, assisted by Ermine Waddill, both of Charlotte; and the freshman of two organ numbers by Claire leaders, Keller Young of Whitmire, Wishart, a violin solo by Marie Rose-S. C., chairman of the stunt and Ann Mauldin of Charlotte, chairman calendar by Cree Roberts. of the gallery.

junior, Anne Fuller; sophomore, Mildred Sneeden, election of senior class treasurer was held in that meeting. Anneal Triplette of Lenoir was chosen to fill the vacancy.

Paint Pallet Meets Here

The Paint Pallet club held its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, October 12 at the Alpha Gamma Delta house.

Jessie Rose Clark, the president, presided and conducted the business meeting, then Mrs. Huffman, the faculty adviser, talked about building up interest in art here and making connections with art organizations in Charlotte.

Discussion included plans for future meetings and prospects of the club sponsor an art exhibit here

The members are: Hazel Adams, Mildred Alexander, Margaret Anderson, Alice Barron, Bonnie Cox, Anne Cromartie, Helen Duncan, Kay Duncan, Virginia Duncan, Jean Ferguson, Libba Harms, Lela Hughes, Louise Jones, Mrs. Roy Ledford, Mary Mason, Sybil Trexler, and Mrs. Huffman the faculty adviser.

Hazel Adams and Jessie Rose Clark were joint hostesses. The next meeting will be held on the first Wednesday in November.

Elizabeth Brammer of Christensburg, Virginia, was elected to replace Ellenore Eddy on the Sophomore Council, it was announced in chapel on Wednesday, October 19, by Helen Cumnock, president of the student

The Council was formed last year ary organization. Other members in- of Charlotte.

Queens-Chicora Begins Series On Wednesday at 3:30 Under Godard

The first radio program of the year for Queens-Chicora College was given on Wednesday afternoon, October 19, at 3:30 o'clock over local radio station WSOC and will be followed by programs at the same time throughout the year.

The program consisted of numbers by the Choral Club under the direction of Miss Grace Robinson. First on the program was the "Galway Piper", an Irish song, sung by the entire club. Next was the "Prayer" from "Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdinck, sung by the ensemble.

Following that, Annie Mae Brown read the campus calendar for the week. The ensemble then sang the "Echo Song" by Orlando di Lasso.

Nanette Sherard was the announcer, and the script was prepared by Thelma Gardner.

Next week's program will consist man, and the reading of the campus

Each program is opened and closed During the same class meetings, with the playing of the Queenspresided over by the presidents as Chicora radio hymn by Mrs. Charles follows, senior, Marjorie Timms; Moseley at the organ and Marie Roseman on the violin. This week the verse was sung by Frances Riddle.

> Radio programs this year will be under the guidance of the recently formed Radio Club. Students who will take active part in producing these programs will be those who signed up for group one. This group includes Juanita Putnam, Margaret Alexander, Esther Love Hillhouse, Callie McElroy, Elizabeth Green, Susanna Millwee, Sara Meyer, Thelma Gardner, Ileita Caldwell, Annie Mae Brown, Lela Hughes, Frances Hunter, Genieve Hosmer, Mildred Thomas, Mary Virginia Zieverink, and Julia Edwards.

Other groups will write skits, perform actively, and otherwise held in arranging the programs.

These broadcasts and the activities of the club are under the direction of Dr. James M. Godard, dean of educa-

Tea Is Given By Dr. Howe

New faculty women of the college were honored last Friday, October 14, from 4 to 5 o'clock by Dr. M. Dorisse Howe. They were guests of honor at a lovely tea given by Dr. Howe at the Charles M. Setzer home on Clement Ave.

Guests of honor were Miss Connie Burwell, Miss Louise Ivey, Mrs. J. M. Geddys, Mrs. T. T. Eason, Miss Thelma Edwards, Miss Ann Vann, and Mrs. Esther Wright Huffman.

Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew poured tea. Dr. Howe was assisted in receiving by Dr. Minnie A. Graham and Dr. Agnes Stout.

in an endeavor to promote class and clude Mildred Sneeden of Wilmington, school spirit among the members of Ermine Waddill, Maujer Moseley, to a nationally known artist to be the sophomore class. It is an honor- Marie Roseman, and Mary Payne, all