Association Holds Meet

North Carolina Press Group Has Fall Convention At Durham

The fall convention of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association was held on November 3, 4, and 5 at the Washington Duke Hotel in Durham, North Carolina, with Duke University acting as host. Over 75 delegates representing 15 colleges in the state were registered, marking the largest convention yet held.

The delegates met in the West Campus ball room for a general meeting on Friday, when they were welcomed by A. S. Brower and Walter James, president of the association. Committees were appointed and A. M. Beck of Durham spoke on "Advertising in Relation to Modern Business," after which publications reported on progress made this year. Luncheon was served in the ball room. J. M. Barry, editor of the Durham Sun spoke on "Journalism."

Discussion group meetings were held, editors of annuals meeting with Herbert Hitch of Charlotte; editors of newspapers and magazines with Dr. Walter Spearman of the University of North Carolina; and business managers with A. M. Beck.

A banquet and dance were given at the Washington Duke Hotel on Friday night. Henry R. Dwire, director of Publication Relations at Duke University, was the guest speaker. Mr. Dwire emphasized the importance of free press as an item in a democratic government.

A business session was held in the Hotel on Saturday morning with committee reports and old and new business. It was announced that the spring convention will meet in Greensboro during the first week-

Annual Stunt Night Will Be Given Soon

New Contest Is Sponsored

Quest For Popularity Queen Is Begun At Queens By Group

A popularity contest to elect the most popular girl at Queens-Chicora College is being sponsored by the Olympian Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary leadership fraternity, the queen selected to be crowned following the repetition of stunt night at the Queens-Davidson party on November 17.

Two girls were elected from each class after student government chapel on Wednesday, November 9. Those selected were, senior, Sally McDowell and Frances Ehrhardt; junior, Frances Stough and Anne Fuller; sophomore, Sara Thompson and Elizabeth Brammer; and freshman, Winnie Shealy and Keller Young.

Ballot box will be open each day from 8:30 in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Each vote will cost a penny, and as many votes may be cast as desired. The box will be open on the night of the party so that Davidson visitors may cast their vote.

This is the first contest of its kind to be sponsored at Queens in the last several years and should arouse a definite amount of interest among the students.

Members of Alpha Kappa Gamma are Eleanor Alexander, Sue Mauldin, Helen Hatcher, Sally McDowell, Helen Cumnock, Mildred Lowrance, Sara DuRant, Georgie Hurt, Anne Fuller, Annie Mae Brown, Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, Dr. Dorisse Howe, Miss Thelma Albright, and Miss Grace Robinson.

Chairmen of the committees in charge of preparations are Sara DuRant; ballots; Georgie Hurt, publicity; and Annie Mae Brown and Miss Thelma Albright, co-chairmen of presentation of queen plans.

Those girls who are nominated by their classes and are not elected will compose the court of the queen.

The semi-annual Queens-Chicora-Davidson College party will be held this fall on November 17 at Queens-Chicora, beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

The boys will arrive at that time for a spaghetti supper to be held on the back campus. Following that, stunt night will be repeated for their benefit, at which time they will judge the stunts in order. The newly-elected popularity queen will be crowned in the auditorium, after which a program will be given in Morrison dining hall. The popularity contest is being sponsored by the local chapter of Alpha Kappa Gamma and boxes will be open on that night for last minute votes by the boys.

Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew, dean of women, and Helen Cumnock, president of the student body, are in charge of preparations, assisted by Sara DuRant and Frances Ehrhardt as reception committee and Sally McDowell at the head of the food committee.

November 16 Is Set As Date With Davidson Party On Next Night

Stunt Night, the annual event at Queens-Chicora College at which each of the classes presents a separate stunt lasting for fifteen minutes, will be held on the evening of November 16 at 8 o'clock in the college auditorium. The stunts will be repeated for the benefit of the Davidson College students on November 17 at the Queens-Chicora-Davidson party.

Various committees have been appointed by each class to be in charge of the stunts. Martin, and Kate Brown; music, Eleanor Alexander, chairman, Cree Roberts, Sara DuRant, and Dorothy Carson.

The junior stunt is headed by Georgie Hurt with Frances Stough as gallery chairman. The committee heads are, invitations, Jobbie Clark; costumes, Callie McElroy and properties, Virginia Smith.

Elizabeth Brammer is chairman of the sophomore stunt, with Mary Payne as gallery head. Girls taking part in the stunt are Mary Mason, Caroline and Julia Edwards, Olivia Gillespie, Enid Waggett, Sara Thompson, Jennie Linn Wright, Maude McClam, Anne Harris, Mimi Bradham, Frances Brockington, and Dot Raymond. The script committee is composed of Tera Bailey, Dot Longenecker, Maujer Moseley, Olivia Gillespie, and Peggy Williams. The chairmen of the other committees are properties, June Escott; costumes, Sue McNulty; program, Jean Ferguson; decorations, Alice Barron, and songs, Sarah Thompson.

For the freshman class, Keller Young is chairman with Tiny Waddill, Mary Catherine Martin, Carolyn Williams, and Hope Patterson on the committee. Julia White, Pan Peyton, and Becky Patton make up the gallery committee with Ann Mauldin as gallery chairman.

This event is sponsored each year by the Athletic Association, of which Cree Roberts is president and Miss Cordelia Henderson is adviser. The Stunt Night cup will be presented to the winning class by one of the three judges.

Wilford S. Conroe, portrait painter of Charlotte, was the guest speaker of the Paint Pallet Club on Wednesday, November 2, at the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority house.

Mr. Conroe spoke informally on art from the early Greek to contemporary artists today.
