Here and there—We are all mighty glad to hear that Hatch is doing so much better now and were so glad to see her mother and father here in Charlotte . . . Nancy Walker has been home in Burlington for a few days recuperating from that appendicitis operation and Hilda McManus is still in the hospital in Monroe . . . Georgie and Ann and Frannie are still talking about some good looking boy they saw Sunday a week ago . . . Ann is working at Ivey's now along with Betsy . . . Betty Purser is at Belk's selling socks . . . Our mothers and fathers came to the feed Sunday night and were given a regular Christmas feed by four of the girls . . . Our annual Christmas party was given at the house Tuesday night when all of the alums came down . . . Everyone brought gifts to the house and pledges of the chapter gave Ann a KD ring . . . Actives gave Hatch a jeweled guard for her pin . . . Becky and Martha Alexander were sponsors for those Davidson dances last week-end . . . We were all thrilled with the news of Jane Wiley's engagement . . . Lib Taylor played the part of doctor when Olivia sprained her finger and fixed it up in good order . . . Becky was mighty smart to make that dress she wore when she was up for May court . . . Frannie sounded mighty good in the Christmas carol program Sunday . . . Gigi tells me Bull will be in this part of the country during the holidays . . . Some of the girls have already started talking about the Pawley's houseparty in June . . .

BUT NOW the uppermost event, or series of events, is Christmas vacation. Every one has ye olde Christmas spirit for fair—and why shouldn't we, when we're practically there?
The entire chapter is going home for the holidays, many of us for the first time this year.
Besides going home, Annie Carr is going to her Grandmother's for the day. During the holidays, Hazel Adams is going to Mullins, S. C., to be in Vivianne Bane's wedding. There will be many more Alpha Gams there, of course.
There are other things besides the holidays. Annie Laurie's mother and father came on Thursday afternoon. Elaine is going home this week-end and to Columbia Sunday to stay until Tuesday.
Cornelia is going home, taking Alberta and Norma with her. Jo McDonald and Hattie are coming for the week-end. Our sponsor, Miss Wharton, is going to Kosciusko to visit with her former pupil, Mrs. Arthur Doty, and her two pupils Vicky and Eleanor, during the holidays.
Marjorie Blease entertained for Hattie Truesdale last Saturday night. It was a grand party and every one had an hilarious time. Libba Harms entertained at luncheon Saturday afternoon for Vivianne, following a lovely party in Albemarle given by Becky for the bride-elect.
Betty Hunter, alumna, entertained Saturday night for Hattie and Vivianne. So, that's all until next time, after Christmas.

We usually save the best news for last but I'm sure all of you have heard about Betsy by now. Just in case you haven't, she has been chosen the Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha at Davidson. She attended the dances last week-end with "him."

Mitty and Betty attended the North Carolina and South Carolina game and had a marvelous time. Lib Sommerville has been holding out on us. She also attended the Davidson dances.

Have you seen Nelson? He is a regular Saturday night visitor as well as during the week. But don't ask Flowe about Christmas because he will be far away. A certain young man named Henry is causing a lot of comment. Ask Ruth McFarland for the details. Did you know that Caroline Edwards is wearing a frat pin again? Must be the real thing. Julia and the young man from Chapel Hill are still that way about each other. Betty Kale is the kind of girl who rates not only a letter every day but a Special quite often too. Have you seen Nappy's picture in the State annual? Mimmi and Charlie seem to be doing all right according to the mail man. And speaking of mail, Lucy Harmon is another lucky girl who gets a letter every day.

We have heard rumors of a fine skating party, and a young lady whose name is Annette was having the best time of all. Not forgetting Chapel Hill, are you? Mary Virginia's prayer has been answered and she has found a new sweetheart. Queer name, though.

Alene was Margaret Erwin's guest last Sunday.

There were quite a few guests at the feed on Sunday night. We had our Christmas tree and everyone was in a jolly mood. Christmas carols, Phi Mu songs, and college songs were sung with a great deal of enthusiasm. Our annual Christmas party was held Monday night and it was a big success.

Unanswered

I laugh today as I have laughed before
And sing some silly song, then feel a dart
Of plain and realize again
The poignant throbbing of an aching heart.

The words I say are horn upon my lips—
They never shall disclose my heart's desire,
Or voice the wish that I
The icy chamber of your heart could now re-fire.

Oh, no, the silence I have kept will fall
Forever on the haunting, ghost-like years;
And deep within my heart there'll be a call—
With nothing for an answer but my tears!

The gala Christmas Feed was held at the house last Sunday night, with a tree and all the trimmings. Presents were exchanged among the actives and pledges and carols and other songs sung during the course of the evening.

Tuesday night the alums, actives and pledges gathered at the home of Mrs. Arnold Small, Martha Ware Pitts to us, for a Yuletide party, which also served as a part of our Social Service Program for the year. Gifts and clothes were collected at that time to be given to a needy family, and plans were made to give them a festive Christmas. Later games were played, carols sung, and refreshments served.

Martha Crosland Stevens, an alum, was recently a campus visitor.

Frances Stough spent week-end before last at her home in Cornelius where she celebrated her birthday.

Peggy Williams spent last week-end at Washington and Lee University.

Nancy Hovis recently went to Nashville to attend the Vanderbilt dances. Sara Kelly Lillard and Virginia Hickman were guests recently at an SPE party in Davidson. Seen on the SAE hay-ride at Davidson were Mary Marshall Jones and Dot Myers. Dot Brannon and Helen Cumnock attended the Pi Kappa Phi party the same week-end.

Among those who took in the Davidson dances last week-end were Ann Mauldin, Nancy Hovis, Dell Sutherland, Dot Brannon, Maujer Moseley, Gentry Burks, Helen Cumnock, Virginia Hickman, and Pan Peyton.

Incapability

My heart, with listless hands, attempts anew
To stir the dying embers of love's remains
Into a heated glow of fire again for you;
But years of barren hopes and burning pains
Have quenched the ardor that you once did spurn.
And now I can not give to you
The love for which you yearn.

Another hilarious time was had by all down at the house Sunday night when we distributed those silly presents under the Christmas tree. Our honor guests were Dr. Abernathy and Miss Albright. And can you imagine everyone saying their holiday good-bys a whole week too soon?

Over the past week-ends there has been a collection of news, so take heed:

Nancy and Doris Raley took France and Margie Poole to Ruby for a fine time recently. Heita had Scotty and Sue McNulty as her guests in Concord—and several funny things happened when Heita's house caught fire!

Mary Gunn saw several interesting "subjects" in Sanford and Boots Bowen says visit in Mt. Gilead if you crave fun, though Martha Baldwin just can't see it that way. Annette Bruton made a quick run to her home and Hilda still likes to make frequent trips to McBee.

Sybil Trexler sponsored for a dance in Salisbury and talked about flowers for days. Little Ehrhardt went on the Pi Kaps hay-ride recently and spent the rest of the week-end with Charlotte McAden. Laura Fleming looked very lovely and very business-like when she visited the house last Sunday night. Mary Griffin's new sister-in-law was also a visitor.

Sara DuRant will see Newton, Iowa for Christmas, if all goes well, and ask her when and with whom will she see the Rose Bowl game.

Anyone wishing to send Little Ehrhardt a Christmas card has her permission to send it care New York City . . . a little vague, did you say?

Our Virginia girls are up in the air about the holidays, and who can blame them? At least they are assured a white Christmas! And Boots Bowen will be leaving that fair state for Florida to see her brother sometime during the holidays.

And if her plans don't dissolve, Hilda will spend the last of the vacation in Lake City, Florida with Grayce Hackney.

We're so excited about Christmas being so near we can't scribble, but here are a few notes jotted during class when there wasn't anything else to do . . . Mary Katherine will drop in on Anderson during the holidays . . . dances . . . Pug is going to Greenville for a dance and mid-night watch on New Year's Eve . . . Margy will take in the Citadel Club hop at Myrtle Beach . . . Margaret Chandler is going down to Greenville . . . Mary is going to the Clemson and Citadel dances in Columbia . . . Helen will go to the Clemson dances at Union and Spartanburg . . . Marguerite and Jean will journey to Lumberton and Elizabethtown during the free days . . . just to visit . . . Sally will visit in Lumberton during the holidays . . . who could she be visiting there . . . and are we glad they fixed it up . . . even though Jean didn't . . . and you can't blame her . . . Annie Mae will have company from Florida . . . Esther Love will come back up from Georgia to Hickory for a day or so . . . Miss Robbie is going up to Pennsylvania . . . the feed was loads of fun the other night . . . Alum Cranford, who is almost one of us, was there . . . Pinckney was out to see the prez . . . Merry Christmas.
