SPEAKER COMING HERE

Much interest is being shown in the address sponsored by the local Academy chapter of the Sphinx society of Sigma Mu to be given here Thursday evening, March 16, by Dr. I. G. Greer according to Sue Mauldin, member of the scholarship fraternity.

Dr. Greer, who is head of the Baptist Orphanage in Thomasville, will talk on North Carolina ballads and folk songs. He has studied on this subject for years and is reported to be quite an authority. Dr. Greer will illustrate his talks by singing some of the ballads and folk songs accompanied on the piano by his wife. Another feature of the program will be Dr. Greer's dulcimer which he will play while singing. This is an old musical instrument having wire strings and played with two light hammers.

About two months ago, Dr. Greer spoke to the Charlotte Music Club and on this trip all towns people and students are invited by Sigma Mu to hear him again. The address will begin at 7:30 in the auditorium and will be broadcast over WBT from 7:45 to 8:00 that evening.
