

Remember
To Suggest

QUEENS BLUES

For Student
Officers

Z-526
Vol. 10, No. 11

Published Weekly By The Students of Queens-Chicora College
QUEENS-CHICORA COLLEGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

March 11, 1939

TAPPED BY ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA

Front Row: Lucille Gwaltney, Virginia Smith; Back row: Olive Croswell, Katherine McQueen Martin, and Ermine Waddill.

Local Chapter Of Fraternity Taps Five

Gwaltney, Smith, Croswell, Martn, Waddll, Honored

Spring tapping service of the Olympian Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary leadership fraternity, was held on Wednesday, March 8, in the college auditorium, during the regular chapel period.

Those tapped were Katherine McQueen Martin, Olive Croswell, Virginia Smith, Lucille Gwaltney, and Ermine Waddill.

Mrs. Virginia Miller Agnew read the devotional, which was the twelfth chapter of Romans, after which Eleanor Alexander, president of the chapter, spoke briefly on the history and purpose of the organization. The four purposes of the group are to foster high ideals and high standards, promote desirable co-ordination of different campus activities, to bring together faculty and students on mutual basis, and to preserve ideals and traditions of the institution.

The basis of judgment is effective leadership, unquestionable service, possession of spirit of the institution, and above all, character. One, to be eligible, must excel in campus leadership, scholarship, social activities, or athletics.

All Are Active

Katherine Martin is house president of South dormitory, chairman of the church work of Student Christian Association, secretary of Alpha Delta Pi, national social sorority, on the dean's list, a member of the Home Economics club, the League of Evangelical Students, the orientation committee, the Spectator Club, and the stunt night committee.

Olive Croswell is president of the Spectator Club, vice-president of Student Christian Association, a member of the League, May Day committee, dean's list, and a reporter on the QUEENS BLUES.

Virginia Smith is feature editor of the QUEENS BLUES, assistant editor of the Coronet, chapel program chairman of Student Christian Association, program chairman of Junior-Senior, member of the day student program committee, was last year's vice-president of Chi Omega national social sorority, this year rush chairman, and for two years was chairman of stunt night.

Lucille Gwaltney is secretary of day student council, vice-president of the junior class, a member of the volleyball and basketball teams, historian of Alpha Delta Theta national social sorority, on the dean's list, chairman of the social service committee of Student Christian Association, accompanist of the Choral Club, and was sent by S.C.A. to Davidson conference her freshman year, and to Atlanta conference last year.

Ermine Waddill is news editor of the QUEENS BLUES, was business manager of the freshman issue, editor of the sophomore issue, is a member of the Choral Club, secretary and pan-hellenic representative of Kappa Delta national social sorority, associate editor of the Queens Quill, class editor of the Coronet, member of the creative writing group of the Spectator Club, and school reporter for one of the local papers.

Officers and members of the chapter include Eleanor Alexander, Helen Hatcher, vice-president, Mildred Low-

(Continued on page two)

Sorority To Sponsor Rally

Alpha Omicron chapter of Kappa Delta national social sorority together with the Charlotte alumnae chapter of the sorority will be hostess to a North and South Carolina rally of all Kappa Deltas during the week-end of March 17 and 18.

The rally is being sponsored by the National Council of the sorority. Miss Frances E. Jones of Columbus, Ohio, vice-president of the council, will be the representative of the council. Mrs. Anne Cleveland Vaughan, president of this province, Alpha East, will come to lead some discussion groups. Mrs. Cora Vaughn Smith, who installed Sigma Delta chapter at Duke University, will also be here for the rally. A delegation from the active chapter at Duke will come for the rally.

Friday afternoon, March 17, there will be a tea at the KD house on the campus from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock. At 10:00 o'clock, Saturday morning, there will be formal registration of all visitors followed by a meeting of the alumnae at the house. At 1:00 Cameron Shipp, literary editor of The Charlotte News, will speak to the alums at a luncheon at the Myers Park Club. There will be a meeting of all actives in the afternoon and at 4:00 o'clock the initiation of eleven pledges will be held in the Day Student building. This will be followed by the formal initiation banquet at the Hotel Charlotte at 8:00 o'clock. Miss Jones will be the speaker at the banquet and Helen Hatcher will be toast-mistress.

Freshmen Win Game

The freshman class basketball team is the champion team for the year 1939 after it won in the finals when it played the senior class team Monday evening, March 6 at 7:30 o'clock.

The freshman class team tied with the junior class team in the preliminaries which were played on Wednesday, February 28. The tie was played off March 1, and the freshmen were victorious. The seniors won over the sophomores in the preliminaries.

Jane Watt Montgomery was captain of the freshman class team and Nancy Walker is the class cheer leader. Other members of the team were Inez Malone, Flora MacDonald, Margaret Alexander, Anne Peyton, Louise Collins, Sara Taylor, Mary Katherine Martin and Cora Wayland.

Captain for the senior team was Anne McCree Roberts and Frances Reins was the cheer leader. Seniors playing on the team were Jean Craven, Marguerite Craven, Helen Cumnoek, Norma Moore, Mildred Lowrance, Kate Brown and Katherine K. Martin.

Miss Mavis Mitchell, member of the physical education faculty at Central High School, refereed the tournaments which are sponsored annually by the Athletic Association of which by the Athletic Association of which by Cree Roberts is president and Miss Cordelia Henderson is director. The Athletic Association presented gold basketballs to the members of the freshmen team.

Greer To Be Speaker

Sigma Mu honorary scholarship fraternity invites all students and townspeople to hear an address by Dr. I. G. Greer when he is their guest Thursday evening, March 16.

Dr. Greer, who is head of the Baptist Orphanage in Thomasville, will talk on North Carolina ballads and folk songs. He has studied on this subject for years and is reported to be quite an authority. Dr. Greer will illustrate his talks by singing some of the ballads and folk songs accompanied on the piano by his wife. Another feature of the program will be Dr. Greer's dulcimer which he will play while singing. This is an old musical instrument having wire strings and played with two light hammers.

About two months ago, Dr. Greer spoke to the Charlotte Music Club and on this trip all townspeople and students are invited by Sigma Mu to hear him again. The address will begin at 7:30 in the auditorium and will be broadcast over WBT from 7:45 to 8:00 that evening.

The regular WBT radio program at 10:30 last Tuesday night featured Miss Elsie Davis, pupil of Grace Robinson in some vocal selections and Mrs. Moseley at the organ.

Mrs. Davis sang "Ave Maria" by Franz Schubert and "The Answer" by Terry.

Mrs. Moseley played "Prelude" from "Piano Suite" by Claude Debussy; "Etude Opus" 25 No. 2 in F minor by Chopin.

Club Gives Fashion Show

The Home Economics Club sponsored a fashion show on Thursday evening, March 9, at 7:30 o'clock in the college auditorium, at which time clothes from Efrid's Department store in Charlotte were modeled.

Models included Marjorie Poole, Sally McDowell, Nancy Hovis, Katherine McQueen Martin, Marjorie Timms, Sybil Trexler, Adele Sutherland, Sara Durant, Anneal Triplette, Elizabeth Porter, and Barbara Davis.

Prizes were donated as follows: a cake from Sanitary Bakery, a potted plant from Scholtz Florist, a pair of hose from My Shop, a handkerchief from Kiddie and Linen Shop, a pair of hose from Cinderella, a handbag from Ivey's, a scrapbook from Van Ness, a suedene jacket from Darling Shop, two lavender sets from Eckerd's Drug, a jitterbug jacket from Holly Shop, a basket of crystallized fruit from Efrid's, a bracelet from Garibaldi and Bruns, a bon-bon dish from York Drug store, two tickets to the Imperial Theatre, a handbag from Tate-Brown, a potted plant from Hunter Florist Shop, two tickets to the Broadway Theatre, a silver platter from Haverly's Furniture store, a dress from the Carolina Dress shop, two tickets to the Carolina Theatre, two cartons of Coca-Colas, one potted plant from Roseland Floral Shop, one cake from Dixie Home Food stores, six cartons of 7-up, a dress-length of material from the Charlotte Fabric Shop, and a dress from the Betty May Shop.