Questionnaire Sent To Three Colleges

Staff Composes List of Questions For Davidson, Citadel, Wake Forest

The staff of the QUEENS BLUES will mail today five hundred copies of a questionnaire composed by the staff to each of the three schools for boys which are nearby, Davidson, Citadel, and Wake Forest Colleges.

The purpose of the questionnaire is to delve into the likes and dislikes of these college boys relating to college girls. The results should be most interesting and should be one of the most important stories to be published in the BLUES this year.

The questions to be sent are:

1. Do you like blondes, brunettes, redheads, brownettes?
2. Do you like girls who are tall, short, or medium?
3. Do you like long bob, short bobs, hair swept up?
4. Do you like red finger nails, natural nails, rose shade nails?
5. Do you like natural lipstick, purple lipstick, or red lipstick?
6. Do you like sports clothes, formal clothes, extreme styles, or frilly clothes?
7. Do you like girls who smoke, girls who don't smoke, or are you indifferent?
8. Do you like girls who drink, girls who don't drink, girls who drink beer, or are you indifferent?
9. Which means most, looks, personality, brains?
10. What type of face appeals to you—sophisticated, intellectual, cute, mysterious, honest?
11. Would you rather gaze into eyes of blue, brown, or hazel?
12. Upon which subjects do you prefer her to be able to talk—books, literature, art, sports, music, latest song hits, top orchestra, movie of the moment, politics, you, or what?
13. Do other people's idiosyncracies worry you?
14. Do you prefer the same age as yourself, younger? How much?
15. Do you like a few flirtatious moments or do you prefer that everything be on a strictly sincere basis?
16. What five or more characteristics do you desire most in her?
17. On your first date, do you like to be romantic?
18. Do you believe in love at first sight?
19. What type of amusement do you prefer?
20. Do you have a line?
21. Are you preparing to "bring home the bacon"?
22. Do you intend to marry? If so, before 25?
23. Are you particular about your appearance?
24. Do you prefer the clinging vine, the independent, the good sport, the comrade, the coquette?
25. Do you want your wife to settle down as a homebody, be a chum for sports and trips, or be a social butterfly?

Results from the questionnaire will be published as soon as they are received. Each person is asked to answer truthfully and briefly, signing his sheet or leaving it unsigned.

Well-Known Literary Man Speaks Here

James Francis Cooke, president of the Theodore Presser foundation of Philadelphia, Pa., and editor of the Etude Magazines, spoke to the student body at the Vesper hour last Sunday afternoon in chapel.

Mr. Cooke spoke on "The Winds of Destiny." "We must all acknowledge the inevitability of chance in all human affairs," he said. "And the main objective of education is to train the child to adjust itself to the world's complexity."

He pointed out that there are five winds of destiny that we must master. First there is the moody wind of character, he said. "Then there is the wind of judgment, the discrimination between right and wrong, wisdom and folly."

"The wind of personality—the irresistible traits that make one welcome to a large number of people. Personality in a human corresponds to perfume in a rose."

"The wind of inspiration—without inspiration, perspiration would be but salt water. Listen to the winds of inspiration."

"The winds of purpose—a definite objective. Hands are being forced out of work to make room for heads. The greatest of men was He who purposed to carry his supreme ideal to the cross."

Mr. Cooke is noted as an author and educator. He has written numerous books on music, short stories and novels. He was decorated in 1930 with the Chevalier Legion of Honor of France. His home is in Philadelphia, and at present he is touring the South with his wife.

Book Tea Group Holds Meeting

On Friday, March 17, the Book Tea group of the Spectator Club met at the Day Student building for its first meeting of the month. Callie McElroy, president of this group, announced that a copy of "Rebecca" by Daphne De Maureau, has been recently bought and placed on the Book Tea shelf in the library.

It was also announced that a scrap book of book reviews was being made and kept by the Book Tea group.

After the regular business meeting the meeting was adjourned to meet again on Friday, March 31st.

For Eloise Greene

Head of Queens-Chicora College Biology Department, 1931-1934.

O risen Christ, who touched the pier Outside the walls of Nain, Speak Thou to our sad hearts

That Thou mayst comfort us again, As now we mourn the earthly loss Of one we loved, who's newly crowned With Thy eternal grace.

O comfort us, and strengthen us, Now in our hour of pain, With surest faith that we shall find All those we love, again, Through Thee, our resurrection hope, Who laid Thy heavenly glory by— And from death rose triumphantly.

Student Elections To Be Held This Week

Five Major Offices To Be Filled With Nominations Followed By Voting

Elections for student government offices will be held next week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, it was announced by Helen Cunnock, president of the student body in chapel on Wednesday.

Theta Group Gives Program

The Alpha Delta Theta sorority radio program Tuesday, March 14, was the first in the series of six sorority broadcasts to be presented over WBT at 10:30 on Tuesday nights.

The program opened with a chorus singing "Alpha Delta Theta Dream Girl." Mary Griffin, president of the chapter served as student announcer and, also, read the Alpha Delta Theta creed, which was then sung by the chorus.

Nanette Sherrard gave a college girl's typical day and Sara Du Rant sang "A Dream" by J. C. Bartlett. She was accompanied by Claire Wishart. Following this, "The Theta Aim" by one of the sorority's former pledges, Henrietta McIver, was read by Annette Bruton. The program closed with "Alpha Delta Theta Girl" sung by the chorus.

Next week on March 21, the Chi Omegas will sponsor the second in the series of sorority broadcasts over WBT at 10:30 P. M.

Teacher Is Hostess Here

On Friday, March 10, at 3:30 P. M. Miss Ann Vann was hostess to the Cover To Cover Book Club, at the Alpha Delta Theta house.

After the regular business meeting Mrs. Gordon Oltman, a member of the club, read a paper on, "Jane Adams and the Hull House."

Refreshments served at the meeting were, sandwiches, assorted cakes, mints, nuts, and tea. The theme of spring flowers was carried out in room decoration and refreshments.

The Cover To Cover Book Club meets every two weeks. Miss Thelma Albright is another member of our faculty who is a member of this club.

Kappa Delta Has Rally of Alumnae

Alpha Omicron chapter of Kappa Delta and the Charlotte chapter of alumnae are holding a rally of all North and South Carolina members this week-end in Charlotte and on the campus.

The program includes a tea yesterday at the Kappa Delta house, formal registration for visitors this morning, followed by a meeting of the alumnae at the house, a luncheon at the Myers Park Country Club at 1:00 o'clock, with Cameron Shipp, literary editor of The Charlotte News, as guest speaker; a meeting of all actives this afternoon and initiation of eleven pledges at 4:00 o'clock in the Day Student Union. Concluding the program will be the formal initiation banquet at the Hotel Charlotte at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

Suggestions were made last week, and those students suggested as eligible to hold an office attended a class in parliamentary law under Miss Thelma Albright on the first four nights of this week. Nominations will be made on Monday for president of the student body, and the two highest nominations will run for the office.

Campaign speeches will be heard in chapel on Tuesday for the two nominees, followed by voting. Nominations will be made on Wednesday for the other four student government offices: president of the boarding student council, president of the day student council, president of the Athletic Association, and president of the Student Christian Association.

With the two highest nominations running for each office, voting will be held on Thursday. Voting for other offices will be held as soon as possible.

The practice of having a brief course in parliamentary law was instituted last year by Executive Council. Realizing the importance of parliamentary law in all student meetings, the council arranged for the course to be given each spring to students who might hold some office on the campus the succeeding year. Such students may be suggested by any member of the student body. Any person is allowed to suggest as many girls as she would like to take the course.

This year a box was placed in Burwell Hall for two days and the girls whose names were placed in the box attended the parliamentary law class.

Those suggested as possible nominees for executive position elections were Giggy Grandon, Annie Mae Brown, Dorothy Duckett, Anne Fuller, Betty Gardner, Eleanor Guyton, Lucille Gwaltney, Lucille Harmon, Frances Hunter, Georgie Hurt, Henrietta McIver, Hannah McNulty, Betsy Springer, Virginia Smith, Martha Stoner, Frances Stough, and Elaine Suber.

Richardson Will Present Roseman

At 8:30 o'clock Thursday night, March 23, Don Richardson will present Marie Roseman in a violin recital in the college auditorium.

The program will be as follows: First, Sicilienne and Rigaudon by Francois-Kreisler; second, To a Wild Rose by Edward MacDowell; Serenade by Donald Heins; and Country Dance by Donald Heins; third, On Wings of Song by Mendelssohn; Minuet by Bocherine; Liebestraume by Liszt; and Staccato Caprice by H. C. Jordan. The fourth group will consist of The Swan by Saint-Saens and Hora Staccato by Dinicee-Heifetz. And the last selection will be Scene de Ballet by DeBeriot.

Elinor Niven and Don Richardson will be accompanists. Ushers will be Maujer Moseley, Mary Payne, Elizabeth Brammer, Mildred Sneed, and Ermine Waddill.

Inspector Visits Group

Miss Helen Gordon, national inspector of Chi Omega fraternity, visited the Theta Gamma chapter last week-end. She arrived in Charlotte from Chapel Hill and left Saturday morning for Charleston, S. C.

Thursday night the members and Miss Gordon met at the lodge for an informal party. At 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, a tea was given. The invited guests included the members of the faculty, representatives from the other five national sororities on the campus, and the patronesses of Chi Omega.

The guests were received by the officers: Eleanor Alexander, president; Dell Sutherland, vice-president; Sara Keiger, secretary; and Nancy Hovis, treasurer.

At 6:30 o'clock Friday evening, a steak supper was given at the cottage of Dr. and Mrs. W. Myers Hunter on the Catawba river. Miss Gordon made a talk on Chi Omega and various problems of the group were discussed.

Writing Group Meets Here

The Creative Writing Group of the Spectator Club met on Friday at 4:30 at the Alpha Delta Theta house. The main topic of discussion was the publication of the Queens Quill. Material for the magazine was discussed and suitable editorials and make-up of the magazine were suggested.

The members of the club tried their skill at writing a progressive story and the composition of a good description and a good sketch were discussed.

Henrietta McIver, leader of the group announced that nearly all the material for the magazine has been assembled and that it is hoped that the magazine will be off the press soon after spring holidays.

Former Teacher Fatally Injured

Dr. Eloise E. Greene, head of the department of biology at Winthrop College, was fatally injured last Sunday night as she attempted to ask help from a passing motorist near Gastonia.

Dr. Greene is well-remembered here by members of the faculty. She was head of the department of biology here from 1931-1934, when she went to Winthrop, where she held the same post at the time of her death.

She was a native of Brunswick, Ga., and was graduated from Georgia State College for Women. She received a master's degree from Peabody college and the degree of doctor of philosophy from Johns Hopkins.

She is survived by her sister, Miss Mary Louise Greene, and a brother, W. W. Greene.
