

SUPPORT
STUNT NIGHT

QUEENS BLUES

"For A True Blue Queens"

BE QUIET
IN CHAPEL

Vol. 8, No. 5

QUEENS-CHICORA COLLEGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

November 4, 1939

Alpha Kappa Gamma Has Tenth Convention

The tenth annual convention of Alpha Kappa Gamma, honorary leadership sorority is being held at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, S. C., this week-end.

The convention began yesterday and lasts through this evening. Miss Grace Robinson, Ermine Waddill, and Georgie Hurt are delegates to the convention from the Olympian circle.

The theme of the convention is "Leadership on the College Campus."

Registration was begun yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The delegates registered in the lobby of the Woman's Building.

A progressive dinner was given by the sororities at 6:30 o'clock. Dinner was served in courses in the sorority club rooms in Marion Sims college. At 8 o'clock a business meeting was held in the second floor study in the same building. Reports of the circles were given at that time.

This morning a workshop is being held. There will be a panel discussion on problems of leadership on the college campuses. This will be followed by the election of officers for the coming year.

After lunch all the delegates will attend the Carolina vs. Florida football game at Melton Field.

A formal banquet to be given this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Crystal room of the Jefferson Hotel will close the convention. The guest speaker will be Dr. Josiah Morse.

Special guests of the convention will be leaders from women's colleges in South Carolina.

The Queens-Chicora college delegates are visiting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. Ray Riddle and Miss Frances Riddle. They will return to the college tomorrow.

The Citadel Questions Q-C

Members of the staff of The Citadel school paper, The Bull Dog, sent around one hundred and fifty copies of a questionnaire to the members of the QUEENS BLUES staff last week.

These questionnaires were distributed to a fair representation of the student body of Queens-Chicora. The blanks were filled in and the questionnaires were mailed to The Citadel this week.

Cadet E. E. McBride, news editor of The Bull Dog, sent the mimeographed sheets to this school. He requested that the name of the school sending them not be disclosed until the sheets were filled in and mailed back to him. This was done so that no one would be influenced in answering question number 7.

The questionnaires contained the following information blanks to be filled in:

1. Class
 2. Age
 3. Blond, Brunette, Redhead
 4. Favorite Orchestra
- Preferences concerning opposite

Sex:

1. Blond, Brunette, Redhead

Four Classes Will Compete This Month

Stunt Night Plans Are Well Underway

Elections of the chairmen for the annual Stunt Night at Queens-Chicora college have been completed.

Anne Wiley of Charlotte was elected stunt chairman of the freshman class. Gallery chairman for the class stunt will be Ruth Kilgo of Charlotte.

Chairman of the sophomore class stunt is Harriette Scoggin of Conway, S. C. Jane Watt Montgomery of Reidsville is the chairman of the sophomore gallery performance.

Elizabeth Brammer of Christiansburg, Va., is the chairman of the junior stunt and Mary Payne of Charlotte is gallery chairman.

Members of the senior class elected Henrietta McIver of Gulf as their stunt chairman. Frances Stough of Cornelius is the gallery chairman.

Stunt night is held each year in November. It is sponsored by the Athletic Association of which Martha Stoner of Elberton, Ga., is the president. Miss Cordelia Henderson, instructor of physical education, is the adviser of the association.

The class being judged as having presented the best stunt for fifteen minutes will receive custody of a silver loving cup for one year. The name of the class winning the cup and the year the class graduates will be engraved on the cup. The class of '41, this year's Junior class, won the cup last year. The class of '42, this year's sophomore class, won second place.

The judges for the stunts will be announced later. They will be chosen from out in town. Judging will be based on originality, skit, gallery performance and costumes.

2. Preferable height
3. Ideal weight
4. Color of eyes
5. Quiet or talkative
6. Reserved or risqué
7. What school would you prefer your O.A.O. to attend?
8. Are two loves possible at the same time?

THIS WEEK

Monday—2:30

Queens Blues Meeting

Tuesday—9:30

Chapel Services.

Wednesday—9:30

Student Government Chapel
4:00—Choral Club

Thursday—9:30

Freshman Chapel
6:30—Sorority Meeting.

Friday—9:30

Chapel Services

Noted Man Speaks Here

Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, noted musician, lecturer, composer and musicologist appeared at Queens-Chicora college yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Dr. Spaeth, "tune detective," came to the college under the auspices of the college Choral club of which Frances Riddle of Columbia is president and Maujer Moseley of Charlotte is secretary-treasurer. Miss Grace Robinson is director of the club.

The noted lecturer spoke on contemporary developments in American music and gave examples with tunes.

He is a prominent member of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. He is actively associated with other national movements which foster native talent and effect its adequate recognition.

Dr. Spaeth, who is from Pennsylvania, is of musical parentage. He won his Ph.D. at Princeton with a thesis on "Milton's Knowledge of Music."

Tickets were sold by members of the Choral club. The speaker was presented in the college auditorium. Prices of tickets were twenty-five cents for students and fifty cents for adults.

Alpha Iota Makes Plans

Members of Alpha Iota, honorary business sorority, held their regular monthly business meeting evening, November 1, at 7:30 o'clock.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Stott, who substituted at Queens last year. The meeting was opened by Ileita Caldwell, president of the chapter. She introduced Mrs. H. C. Alexander who spoke on the subject, "What State Employer's Bureau Expects Students to Know Before Employing Them."

Advisors for the club are Miss Mary Inglis and Miss Thelma Edwards.

Officers of the club are: President, Ileita Caldwell; vice-president and pledge instructor, Callie McElroy; secretary, Helen Cochrane; treasurer, Anne Fuller and chaplain, Marjorie Poole.

Very interesting programs are given each meeting. The group entertained all the one-year and four-year business students at the first meeting of the year.

SCA Project Is Announced

The S.C.A. project for this year, the renovation of the "Y" Hut, has been announced.

Dr. Blakely, President of Queens, has agreed to repair and remodel the outside of the building at the expense of the college if the student body will do the same to the inside.

The windows are to be fixed so that they will open and shut more easily, and the front porch will be re-arranged in a more attractive way. The whole outside is to be painted white with a green roof. Improvements on

French Teachers Of State To Meet Here

The North Carolina Chapter of American Association of Teachers of French will hold a meeting at Queens-Chicora college Friday, November 10 through Saturday, Nov. 11.

The American Association of Teachers of French is a national organization. Almost all states have chapters. The North Carolina chapter was formed only three years ago.

The meeting will open Friday evening with a formal dinner in the college dining room. Members from all parts of the state will attend the dinner. Dr. Hunter Blakely, president of the college, will bring greetings to the guests from the college. Dr. Russell Pope of Guilford college will give the response to the welcome.

After the dinner there will be an interesting program in the auditorium. The program will commemorate the tercentenary year of the birth of Racine, the noted French writer. At that time Claire Wishart will sing several French songs. Prof. Rene Hardre of Woman's college of U. N. C., will read a paper on the life of Racine. Several scenes from Racine's play, "Andromaque," will be given by members of the Charlotte branch of Alliance Francaise. Members of the Alliance Francaise are invited to the meeting. A reception will be given after the program by the American Association of Teachers of French and the Alliance Francaise. The reception will be given in Burwell hall.

At nine-thirty o'clock Saturday morning a regular business session will be held. Prof. Wm. Edgerton of Guilford college will read a paper, "Life In a French Lycee." Miss Catherine Tighe of Asheville high school will talk on impressions of France from a Southerner's travels. Mr. Herbert Hucks of Greensboro high school will speak on French influences in South Carolina.

There will be a round table discussion on the correlation of the high school course in French with that of college. Miss Estelle Mitchell of Greensboro will be the leader of the discussion.

The meeting will end Saturday at noon. Members of the French department at Queens-Chicora will usher and assist at the reception Friday evening.

Q-C Players Plan Program

The Queens' Players have made plans for several programs to be presented during the year.

One of the first programs to be presented will be "Peg O My Heart."

A choric reading program will be presented in chapel. This will consist of reading done by a group of girls in two tones of voices—light and heavy—to the accompaniment of the piano.

Miss Ethel King is director of the dramatic group.

and it is hoped that a sufficient amount will be raised.

After the hut is remodeled and redecorated, it will serve as a student center for numerous campus activities as well as the center of S.C.A. work.

Blakelys And Dean Slaton Honor Guests

Alumnae Associations Present Them To Public

The General Alumnae Association and the Charlotte Branch of the Alumnae Association of Queens-Chicora college honored Dr. and Mrs. Hunter Bryson Blakely and Miss Clara Barnett Slaton last evening at a reception.

The reception was held in Burwell hall. Charlotte citizens, friends of the college, and alumnae were guests at the reception. This was the first time the guests of honor had been presented to the public as a whole.

Mrs. Emmett Crook is president of the General Alumnae Association. Miss-Sarah Locke Blythe is president of the Charlotte Branch of the association.

Receiving with the guests of honor and Mrs. Crook and Miss Blythe were: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. McAlister Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. MacGregor.

Others receiving and serving were Mr. and Mrs. Wyss Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dixon, Dr. and Mrs. Lester Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hord, Miss Ione Smith, Miss Jimmy Wagoner, Miss Barbara Shatzer, Miss Rose Ellen White, Dr. and Mrs. Othio B. Ross, Mrs. John D. Shaw, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hook, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McGeachy, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redd, Dr. and Mrs. J. Rush Shull, Miss Eloise Rankin, Miss Rena Harrell, Mrs. Lillian Reid Rutzler, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Keesler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Flowers and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sherrill.

the surrounding grounds will be made with the aid of some girl scout troops who use the Hut as their meeting place.

It is hoped that a rug similar to those in Burwell Hall can be bought for the large front room. The Hut will be decked with new furniture. The old stove is to be replaced with new heaters and the fireplace will be opened. Attractive color schemes will appear on newly papered walls. In the small room a library will be installed for the use of the students. Current magazines and interesting books will be kept here.

The funds for this renovation will be obtained from student donations,

Attention!

The majority of the photographs, ordered by students from their annual proofs made by Dunbar Studio, will be brought out to the college next Wednesday morning, November 8; and may be claimed in Burwell Hall. Bring the amount of money that you owe, as no photographs may be claimed without payment.