WHY NOT?

This is April Fool.
Let's all skip school.
We could spend the day in the sun
But we'd surely have to run.

When Easter came, the snow came too
That's unusual so why aren't you?
I hope today the paper comes late 'Cause if it doesn't, I've sealed my fate.

LYING DOWN ON THE JOB, MISS BRAMMER?

They elected her to lead,
To write, to speak, to read.
She started off with good ideas
But these were overcome by fears.
Intentions of the best had she
Until we chased her up a tree.

We approached her with so many wiles
She hid herself among the files.
We've searched the files and cannot find
A single thing she left behind.

A letter says she's gone with Anne
To Rome to try and find a man.
The teachers with their horn rim
glasses
Wonder why she cuts their classes.
Many friends ask but few of them

know
She's upstairs in Morrison healing a toe.
That was some convention you attended, how about it President Bram-mer?

Queens Students Go To Meet In Berlin, Germany

When In Rome Act It

Miss Elizabeth Hammer of the First Family of Virginia Hammer's and Miss Anne Fullof Hippotomus, Alabama, went to Rome to attend a house party last week. This social event of the season was held for the benefit of the present and past "are"—the theme of the gathering was "How To Pick Daisies—Gracefully." And topics also discussed were that effervescent subject "Parliamentary Lawyers and How to Get Them," and "The Hard Way to Read a Book."

The delegates arrived at the Hotel and immediately had lunch "a la carte" while in the lovely rainbow swimming pool. Miss Fullof and Hammer lamented this "fox pass" for the remainder of their visit their hair was so curly "they just couldn't do a thing without it."

Anyway despite t'hair problem they seemed to do O.K. and returned to Charlotte with several mementos: namely, one mack-in-tack and some queer object belonging to one lad named "Roddey-Poddsy."

The girls say that the most fun they had at the convention was when the electricity in the building was cut off and being stopped between floors they spent a restful morning playing "Tit Tat Toe" with the elevator boy. The aforesaid boy made a great hit with Theopofthe Ceiling when the dynamo began functioning again. This is the end of their travels. (Ed. note—I really don't see how the poor deahs could have stood much more.)

Her Hitler Will Speak

Several Queens College students will leave Wednesday, April 10 for Berlin, Germany, where they will attend a convention of the Southern Federation of College Students and Publications Representatives. The convention will last from April 11-13. The students will return from the trip on April 14 or the 15th. The girls will fly over in an Army plane.

The main speaker of the bout will be Her Hitler, world-famous comedian, who will speak on "Get All You Can—and More If You're Smart As I Am."

Other well-known comedians who will join in a Pole-Ka dance with the honorable Mr. Hitler are Josephine Stalin, Nellie Chamberlain, Annie Eden, Bettina Mussolini, Pauline Goering, and Tootsie Fruitsie Daladier.

Some of the Queens students who are planning to attend are Slouch Brammer, Slush Waddle, Killem Killian, Pan-Em-Out Peyton, Guinevere Horsmer, Georgia Peach Hurt, Carrie Meback Smith, Flo-power Imbody, Brushie Fuller, and Lefty Wright. It is hoped that others will see fit to join the mass going to team up with the Nazi Boomerangs (they better come back).

Some of the particular phases which will be enjoyed are moonlight boat-riding and dancing on the Rhine River, a banquet at the Balalaika, and sightseeing in peace worn countries. The guests will also see fireworks displays at Strasbourg.

Nelson Eddy Sings At QC

Nelson Eddy, well-known baritone, gave an exclusive concert to the Queens College student body Tuesday evening.

The high note of the program came when Nelson hit high C (Oh, Pun my woid, hi see). The latter remark being compliments of Screwball Imbody.

The Queens students did not turn out in the way they should have. Five out of 400 students attended. Nelson got the giggles when the five joked and ahd at his presence and he is yet to sing a note.

TRY IT

"Getting out a paper is no picnic, If we print jokes, people say we are silly; If we dont they say we are too serious. If we clip from other magazines, We are too lazy to write them ourselves. If we don't, we are too fond of our own stuff. If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate genius; If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk. If we make a change in the other person's writeups, we are critical; If we don't, we are asleep. Now, like as not, someone will say we swiped this from some other paper. We DID!"

—Fagots.
