

Chi Omega

O happy days and good times had by all these last few weeks of school and with spring in the air and dogwood everywhere, the Chi O's love life lightly turns fancy (well—all 'cept Franny and Smithie). So very much has been happening lately—Why a book could be written on the events of last week-end—specially Junior-Senior! It was a wonderful affair and tho' the flowers are dead, the memory still lingers on! After the banquet, Mary and her "band" led the way to the house where drop-ins and outs took place—then on to the dance! The Spring Frolics were tops (tho' there was a sad note or two long about the last no-break—for it meant bye-bye for Julian, "Mash," and Look (?).

This was a gay week-end with the Junior-Senior coming off and all the trips home and elsewhere. Those who attended the Junior-Senior were Nina Brown, Snoodie Matheson—yes, Snoodie, John D. is cute!—Frances Lowrance, Gladys Hartzell. After the banquet Snoodie and Nnia went home with John D. and Fred. Esther Love attended the A. D. II Convention in Washington and reports a wonderful time. Gladys sho' had something on her hands when she took Alice home with her. Eva also went home with Trudie—How 'bout our roommates, Eva? Everybody just oughta see our home. It's the prettiest blue room.

Have you noticed Betty Beasley's early sun tan? Mary Jane said those Davidson dances were certainly swell, and so is Charlie B., by the way. Catherine King spent another week-end in Winnsboro—Hi, Catherine, how's Grady? Alice sho' got around one week-end when she went to Raleigh and ended up at home.

How does it feel to leave school on Thursday for the week-end, Anne? How's your bowling coming on, Mary Katherine?

Gosh, it seems like a long time since I last scribbled for this column—I've sorta gotten out of the ole rut!

Everything and everybody seems a leetle let down after Junior-Senior. All we're living on is memories of last Friday nite and anticipation of May Day. All reports have it that each and everyone had a most luscious time at Junior-Senior (and afterwards, too—down at the house and at well, etc.) Orchids to Lib Summerville for keeping us so well entertained at the house after Junior-Senior. Wasn't the little heart on the program (I'm still raving about Junior-Senior) with Scottie's and Roger's name underneath cute? They tell me Ellen and Scottie had a time keeping the two Rogers from getting all mixed up about their names. The twins were in seventh heaven last Friday due to certain people named Rush and Bill. How some people do rate! But enough about Junior-Senior. I could rave on into the night and it's already getting late.

Ceil Cypher was down again to see us last Sunday night at the feed. Guess who is engaged! Alene Ward of course, dope.

Blue Monday! Another week is starting after such an exciting one last week—well, the latter part of the week anyway. I know everyone had a huge time at Junior-Senior. Those of us who couldn't go had a big time down at the house afterwards talking to the girls and their dates. We had lots of visitors too. Dot Raymond and George, Brock and her date, Jean Ferg and Ralph, Lucy and Hal, Anne and Rod, Sarah Thompson and Bill, Frances and L. C., and lots of others. We enjoyed having them and hope they will come back again.

Sarah and Carolyn went home last week-end. While down that day they took in a dance or two. Carolyn to Clemson of course, and Sarah to Wofford. Carolyn, does Henry know about Rock?

Julia accompanied Suber and Lemmon to Whitmire after Junior-Senior. Saturday night, and per usual a good time was had by all.

Margaret went home with Trudy Little and had a wonderful time Margaret thinks Lincolnton is a swell town, but she still prefers Belmont. Dot Wilkie and Bill were down for the Senior Plays and we were glad to see them. By the way, don't you think Annie Carr should crash the movies? She really was swell.

Cotbran went to Timmonsville after Junior-Senior with Lawton. Tommie went to Shelby to see her aunt and uncle. Betty and Isabel took Sumter by storm and had a grand time.

So much has taken place since the last paper. Elections have come and gone, leaving us with some mighty fine officers for next year. Lib Taylor is now our president; Jean, vice-president; Frannie, secretary; Jennie Lynn, treasurer; Lalla, assistant treasurer; and Ann Wiley is editor. Our house warming went off with a lot of success and we love our house.

We find that the most outstanding event of the week was the initiation of the cute Kappa Deltas at the University of South Carolina down in Columbia. Attending from here were: Lalla, Ginor, Ann Pease, Cookie, Jennie Lynn, Lib Taylor, Butch and Georgia. All these girls report that they had a lot of wonderful fun—men and all—oh, you know what it's like at Carolina.

There were so many things going on this week, it is hard to say which people did what but there were several K. D.'s going to the Junior-Senior. Those girls with the men and flowers were Virginia Spoon, Ermine, Marie, Frannie, Jean, Dot, Mary Thompson and Alice. After the banquet Frannie, Alice, Dot, and Jean went home to have more fun, while Marie, Spoon, and Mary Thompson took in some more night life. How about that?

Several girls went to the Davidson Spring dances this week-end. Those cute girls were: Ann Wiley, Tiny, Nell, Duddy, Lib Hoppe, Frances Hull, Karleen, Nan, Winnie, and Marie who sponsored.

Two K. D.'s from Duke University were visitors here for a short while Sunday afternoon.

We are planning to have a hay-ride next Saturday night and will that be fun. We certainly hope so.
