

Wanderlust Strikes As Vacation Nears

Upon being asked where they would spend their spring vacation this year, most of the boarding students brightened right up and said "HOME!" whereas the majority of the day students merely sighed rather tiredly and said "TO BED!" There are, however, a few exceptions.

Sue Crenshaw is going to visit Jo White at Martha Washington in Fredericksburg, Virginia; Virginia Jennings is going to Lynchburg and Roanoke; Betty Beasley, Maggie Beasley, Clarina Bevis, and Virginia Young have planned a house-party at the Beasley Cottage at Myrtle Beach. Bev Thomas is going to Washington, then to Winchester, Virginia, to visit Louise Moore. Lulu Lowrance is going home with Anne Brannan (Thomson, Georgia). Mary Elva Smith and Mary Jean McFayden are going to Richmond. Pete Munroe is going there, too, to visit her family. Winnie Sheeley will go home with Bettie Dickerson, to Marietta, Florida, then over to the University of Florida, Gainesville, for the military ball. Helen Golson, poor soul, is to spend her vacation in the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Hospital having her tonsils removed. Idrienne Levy is taking in both Durham and Chapel Hill; Virginia Womack is going to Durham. Libby Hamilton will go to the Great Big City, (New York). Likewise Patsy Nivin. Nancy Claire Allen will visit Betty Simmons, formerly of Charlotte, at her home in Greenville, S. C. Miss Mary Denny is heading for Sumter, South Carolina, and Dr. Lucile Delano to Concord. Dr. Calvin Linton will make an extensive tour of the State of Matrimony! Miss Laura Tillett will attend Alumnae Week-end at Duke. Tog Gill and Mary Elise Davis will break hearts at V. M. I. before going home. The Summervilles (Lib, Dot, and Martha) will go to Florida. Dot Longenecker is going home with Lenore McCall to Florence, S. C. Margaret Aldred will go to Atlanta, and Norma Anderson to Cumberland, Kentucky (she hopes). Martha Blythe is going to Danville; Lalla Marshal to Raleigh, Doris Raley to Concord, Lib Killough to Sanford, Hamlet and points south, and Jane Caldwell to Staunton, Virginia. Kathleen Massie is planning to visit Anne Peacock (used to live here) in Jacksonville and come home via Macon.

S.C.A. Plans Melodrama

When, where, what, and why? Well, just stop, look, and listen! What? Why the Student Christian Association—of course! Haven't you heard? Oh really!—it is going to be fun!—well, why not!—have you heard who's in it?—Wonder what it's about—better come—it's going to be good—Who said so? We say so!—who's we? Why S. C. A. Cabinet of course—and you will too when you see the grand old melodrama the cabinet is staging for a first surprise after spring holidays! For further "info" as to the essential elements of this pecuniary radiation from the dramatic cosmos—Watch your bulletin board, bill board, sign post, newspaper, extras, announcements, and any disturbance of the student body in general.

1941 Edition

Queens Quill To Come Out After Holidays

Made up of contributions from the student body, the Queens Quill, annual literary publication, goes to press this week. During the first week after the spring holidays, this year's gold and white edition will appear for sale at twenty-five cents a copy. Students are asked to watch the bulletin board for announcements of exact time and place of sale.

Editor Elizabeth Isaacs and business manager Gail Griffith base their predictions of a complete sell-out on the large number of advance-sale orders due to the interest of students in their own and other's contributions and in the several new features adopted. Some of the contributors to this year's Quill will be: Pete Munroe, Lucy Hassell, Joyce Ruth, Catherine Green, Sarah Thompson, Betty Jane Furay, Julia Edwards, and Elizabeth Isaacs. Most of the upper classmen represented have worked on previous Quills. Lucy Hassell, a transfer from Baylor, has contributed to The Baylorian, the magazine published by that college. The freshmen contributing were, in most cases, connected with their high school publications.

Plans Made For New Executive Council

Juniors

Will Present Fashion Show

The parlors of Burwell hall will furnish an attractive and fitting background for the fashion show to be held there Wednesday, March 26, at 8:00 P.M. At this time the latest spring styles will be presented under the sponsorship of the Junior class.

Models for the various ensembles will be Cornelia Truesdale, Marie Pons, Seniors; Doris Raley and Mary Katherine Martin, Juniors; Ann Wiley, Sophomore; and Eleanor Lazenby, Freshman. The clothes to be shown are from "Lillian's Shop" on Queens Road, West, owned and operated by Mrs. Lillian Whitner.

Tickets may be secured from any member of the Junior class. The admission is fifteen cents.

Members of the Junior class in charge of the event are Annette McIver, Kitty Sue Harvin, Carolyn Williams, Ann Mauldin, Mary Marshall Jones, Marie Sprinkle, Julia Miller, Lib Ostwalt, Nancy Query, Doris Beckum and Martha Alexander.

The first activities of the newly elected student council will begin when Julia Miller, president of Boarding students, attends the North Carolina Federation of students Governments in Greensboro on March 28 and 29. Accompanying Julia will be Virginia Cothran, Treasurer of the state organization.

The council will take over its duties fully after the installation services to be held Wednesday, April 16, in student chapel. Dr. W. R. Cunningham, New President of Davidson college, will conduct the services.

Chi Omega Fetes Members At Hayride

Theta Gamma Chapter of Chi Omega gave its Spring hayride Saturday night, March 22. All members of the sorority and their dates were invited.

The hayride will begin on Queens campus early Saturday evening, and the trucks will leave for a round-about journey to the Sharon Golf clubhouse. Special entertainment has been arranged by June Childs, Jean Welsh, and a committee.

Supper will be served at the clubhouse, and dancing will be enjoyed afterwards.

The Editor's Lament

Getting out a paper is no picnic. If we print Jokes, people say we are silly;

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we clip from other magazines we are too lazy to write ourselves; If we don't we are too fond of our own stuff.

If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate genius;

If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.

If we make a change in another persons writeup; we are critical; If we don't we are asleep.

Now, like as not, some one will say we surped this from some other paper.

We DID.

"SPRING VACATION TRIPS COST LESS by GREYHOUND"

You can't fool a little feathered friend about spring migrations! The smart bird knows that Greyhound is the easiest way to flit home to the family nest and back to college again when vacation time's over. The saving is plenty big—in both time and money — and the trip's more fun in a Super-Coach full of friends. There's an extra saving, as usual, on round-trip tickets. So be kind to your pocketbook—and to yourself—go Greyhound.
