Editor of News Speaks To Freshman English Class

W. J. Cash Lectures On Creative Writing

Discussing phases of creative writing and writers, W. J. Cash, associate editor of the Charlotte News, spoke to the freshman English class of Miss Mary Denny, Thursday, April 17 at fourth period.

"Creative writing is a gift" said Mr. Cash. He then went on to elaborate on the work that must be applied to the creative efforts. He discussed the works of William Saroyan and Gertrude Stein whom he considers to be fads of the day in literary circles.

Mr. Cash said very little about his own famous publication, "The Mind of the South," a best-selling book throughout the country. When asked how long the writing of this took, he replied, "About a year, I guess." Then Mrs. Cash, who accompanied him, smiled and chimed in with "And about six years of work." She explained her statement by saying that although Mr. Cash had worked for six years at intervals, the total work was about a year.

For his outstanding work on "The Mind of the South" Mr. Cash was recently awarded the Guggenheim Fellowship. He plans to spend next year in Mexico City working on a novel.

Correction

Mrs. Mercer Is To Stay Here

In last week's issue of the Queens BLUES, under the note of appreciation to the student body for her birthday present, it was reported that Mrs. Rosa Mercer, Dormitory Supervisor would not return to Queens next year in this capacity. However, this report is wrong, and the BLUES staff wishes to correct its mistake. Our apologies to Mrs. Mercer!

Gym Classes

Lines every which-a-whar! Yep! The tennis courts—all three of them—are all lined off and ready for the energetic racket swingers to single out just the spot to put the ball out of reach of the other girl. Wish we could all get an Alice Marble cut before the season ends. Even if we can't, let's all go down and try to best our roommate at the game. Bet she is just as out of practice as you are, and tennis is really a swell individual game.

Miss Henderson has really been on the job with plans for our May Day festivities. Wish we were all graceful, or something of the sort, and we could be gingerbread men, peppermint sticks, white clouds, or something like that. Let's all get to work and help in some way so that we won't be lost in the deep black forest that swallows up Hansel and Gretchel. That really would be a terrible plight and one which just wouldn't be any fun.

The swimming pool at the Y. W. C. A. has proved very popular of late with both advanced swimmers and beginners. These warm summer days even if it is spring, call for a dip in the water so why not travel down and take a pool plunge.

"All work and no play make Jane a dull girl." Can we keep this motto and make it work? Don't take it too much to heart as I have a tendency to do, however, buy enough to outwit this spring fever that keeps creeping up on us.
