Cookie Scoggins Will Be Senior President

Junior Class Head Leads Group Again

Harriette "Cookie" Scoggins of Conway, South Carolina has again been elected to lead her class as president. The announcement that "Cookie" had been elected president of the rising Senior class of 1941-42 was made Saturday night at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

During the last three years at Queens, Cookie has attained many honors. As a Sophomore she served as "Rat Day" Chairman and the Society Editor of the Queens Blues. In her Junior year, Cookie was elected president of the Junior class. She has since been tapped into Alpha Kappa Gamma, a national leadership fraternity and Sigma Ne, a national scholarship fraternity. Cookie now serves on the Honor Council of Queens College, is a Queens Scholar and has been chosen as the Junior Class Marshall for the commencement exercises. She has also been elected to serve as Social Chairman in S. C. A.
