

Sporting Around Queens

Basketball practices have started! Come every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from four until six to be sure you get your six practices in before the big tournaments. All you old students will remember the tournaments that we had last year, between sororities, dormitories and any other organization that wanted to organize a team. There were some grand teams last year with Phi Mu taking top honors. To wind up the tournaments there were games between the classes with the Freshman class winning. The tournaments this year will start right after Christmas holidays, so everyone get those practices in because we want to chose a varsity. If we do this we can invite other schools to play us. Be expecting you all at practice on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons. from four until five thirty.

Last week Miss Mitchell's Soccer class was entertained with three modern dances which the girls in Miss Hawley's Modern Dance class created. The dances represented disappointment being overcome by joy; going to school; and a dream in which three girls thought they heard the singing of a bird, but when they went to find it, it was gone. These girls did a splendid job showing what modern dancing is and how enjoyable it can be. Perhaps with a little persuasion the class would give a performance so the entire student body could become acquainted with the fundamentals of Modern Dancing.

POSSESSIONS

Treasure Chest
Awake I bolt my treasure chest
Whose mirror frames your face;
Asleep a magic key unlocks Dreams I cannot erase.

Crystal Mirror
The moon is a crystal mirror
Hung in infinite space.
And although it mirrors creation
It only reflects your face.

Curtains
I draw the curtains of my room
I am afraid—
Some thief may covet valuables
I have displayed.
I close the curtains of my eyes
To you for fear—You'll read the secrets of my Heart when you are near.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

And beautiful maidens moved down in the dance,
With the magic of motion and sunshine of glance;
And white arms wreathed lightly,
and tresses fell free.
As the plumage of birds in some tropical tree.—Whittier.

In cold December fragrant chaplets blow,
And heavy harvests nod beneath the snow.—Pope.

Every man is a volume, if you know how to read him.—Channing.

Let those love now who never loved before,
Let those that always loved now love the more.—Parnell.

You will never "find" time for anything. If you want time, you must make it.—C. Buxton.

Study is the bane of boyhood, the ailment of youth, the indulgence of manhood, and the restorative of age.—Landor.

Who climbs the grammar-tree, distinctly knows Where noun, and verb, and participles grows.—Dryden.

- - Slings The Dust - -

Well, well, it's getting pretty hard to scrape up "dust." Sure can tell the holiday season is just around the corner. Everybody seems to want to make one last good spurt in classes before the Xmas vacation. But nevertheless we managed to gather some noteworthy tid-bits, so here they are an' let's go.

We hear it's the real thing with Virginia Harrington and her new conquest . . . "Beat-up" Beatty has lately gotten that gleam in HER eye, too. Who'd a' thought it???

The big Xmas formal tonight must be going over in a big way according to the rush for tickets—and men!

Is it true that "Link" Harding finally quit school? . . . Our deepest sympathy goes to Hank and Willis, who are just back from overseas—for we hear Betty Starr jilted both of them.

Queens girls—what affect do you think those nylons will have on personality? Hmm—

Christine Carr's third finger left hand is among those sparkling ones now!

Mary Jane Patterson must be awfully excited since Jack arrived in the states. No?

Those mid-semester tentative reports sure made lots of us sit up and take notice!

One gal who's been on pins and needles for weeks now is Virginia Scott. Why? Oh, yes, Bob's on his way home from Manila . . . Lots of us are feeling that indefinable something as more and more of our G. I. guys come back. One of the early arrivals was Elsie Blackburn's big Lt. Charlie Patterson.

The best Xmas present for Kinney will be a visit from that Michigan Flight Officer who looks exactly like Van Johnson!

Harrison's been carrying the torch Who is this secret love Marie for? They say he's tall, dark and handsome? Oh! just found out his name is Al Hayes. A reverse situation is seen in the dying flame of "Cowboy" Anderson and Sam Atkinson.

We just found out from one of our little "informers" about the budding romance between Jean Wright and Bud Foreman!

"Gardie's" man is coming down from Chapel Hill for the dance.
We hear wedding bells will be postponed while he attends Law School.

Martha Thaxton's dream man, Bill Bowen, is home on leave . . .
So is Betty Austin's "Wally." My, it must be nice!

Everybody was thrilled when Estelle was chosen to sponsor the Wake Forest football team when they played South Carolina here on Thanksgiving Day. Congratulations!

Wanda Wageley is "Waiting for A Carrier to Come In" cause it's car-ryin' that Navy pilot home!

The best and noblest lives are those which are set toward high ideals. And the highest and noblest ideal that any man can have is Jesus of Nazareth.—Almeron.

A wise man in the company of those who are ignorant, has been compared to a beautiful girl in the company of blind men.—Saadi.

From an Army newspaper comes the observation that women like a strong, silent man, because they think he's listening.

Mind is the great lever of all things; human thought is the process by which human ends are answered.—Daniel Webster.

WHAT'S THE USE OF A
FUSE
ANYWAY

A fuse is a safety device, a warning to you and a protection to your appliances.
A blown fuse indicates that —the load on the fixture you are using is too heavy.
—or too many appliances are connected on the same circuit.
—or one of your appliances is defective.
A preventive is ADEQUATE WIR-ING.
Only by planning ahead for adequate wiring can you enjoy at home the full benefits of "electrical tomorrow."
