

QUEENS BLUES

Vol. XXVI—No. 1

QUEENS COLLEGE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

November 13, 1947

SIX NAMED FOR "WHO'S WHO"

Sororities Pledge 90

The following students have been pledged by sororities at Queens college:

Alpha Delta Pi: Joan Birge, Gastonia; Ann Bailey, Danville, Va.; Ethel Borden, Concord, Mass.; Jane Blakely, Kingstree, S. C.; Helen Boyle, Charlotte; Jean Chaplin, Charlotte; Helen Civil, Charlotte; Lillian Carson, Charlotte; Anita Dalton, Charlotte; Dottie Edmondson, Charlotte; Jane Edmonds, Decatur, Ga.; Betty Gore, Decatur, Ga.; Helena Hunter, Charlotte; Jenny Lee Helton, Charlotte; Martha Henninger, Charlotte; Sara Little, Jacksonville, Fla.; Virginia Love, Danville, Va.; Barbara McAllister, Charlotte; Emily Shipp, Camp Breckenridge, Ky.; Catherine Shaw, Wagram; Sue Sale, Richmond, Va.; Mary Street, Charlotte; Dorothy Thomas, Kingstree, S. C.; Betty Wayne Williams, Laurinburg.

Alpha Gamma Delta: June Andrews, Wilmington; Ann Birmingham, Hamlet; Audrey Brown, Southern Pines; Joan Baucom, Monroe; Mildred Butler, Laurinburg; Mary Alice Chambers, Charlotte; Levonde Caldwell, Lumberton; Ann Crossland, Laurinburg; Florence Davis, Clinton; Dorothy Dodge, Charlotte; Martha Holleman, Seneca, S. C.; Flora McIver, Wilmington; Peggy Rast, Swansea, S. C.; Cecile Ward, Bladenboro.

Chi Omega: Betty James Byerly, Lake City, S. C.; Harriet Ban-

(Continued on page 3)

Founder's Day Address By Dr. Carson

Dr. Herbert V. Carson, Vice-President of Queens College, will deliver the address when students and alumnae observe Founder's Day on November 14.

The Founder's Day dinner is to be held at six o'clock in Morrison Dining Room. Dr. Carson will speak at this time. The Founder's Day programs are sponsored by the Alumnae Association. Mrs. Robert Howerton is president of the Alumnae Association.

There were a hundred alumnae at Homecoming last May. It is hoped that there will be even more here when Founder's Day is observed this year.

QUEENS STUDENTS HONORED.—The Six Queens college students shown above have been named to represent Queens in "Who's Who Among College and University Students," it has been announced by Dr. Hunter B. Blakely, president. From left to right, seated are, Betty McMurray of Swannanoa, and Eleanor Huske of Reidsville. Back row, left to right, Buford Bobbit of Charlotte, Betty Sue Trulock of Climax, Ga., Ruth Magrath of Conway, S. C., and Cathey Leeper of Elkin.—(Photo courtesy Charlotte Observer).

Councils Sponsor Open House

An open house will be held for the student body on campus Saturday night, November 15th. This is under the sponsorship of Boarding and Day Student Councils.

The evening will open with entertainment in the Auditorium given by the Coronet Staff, with B. J. Fant presiding over the occasion as master of ceremonies. The program will include a song and dance by Sunny Rose, a display of our freshmen talent in several dance numbers, songs by the Queens trio, specialties by Louise White and Torch-singer Isley, skills from the coeds, and coming to a climax with the main show "Little Red Riding Hood and the D. C." (Davidson College!)

Following this program of entertainment there will be dancing in the recreation room, cards in the Lounge, and refreshments served in Blair Union.

All students are urged to come out and join in an evening of fun. All proceeds will go to the Coronet Staff to make our annual a bigger and better one. Let's see you there.

Miss Foxworth Campus Guest

On December tenth, eleventh, and twelfth, we will be honored by having Miss Eleanor Foxworth as a guest on our campus. This past summer she began her work as Traveling Secretary for the Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief of the Southern Presbyterian Church. It is in this capacity that Miss Foxworth comes to us. It is her work to visit the various college campuses and confront the young people with the challenge of finding and following the will of God in connection with their choice of their life's work.

A native of Kingstree, S. C., Miss Foxworth has had a great deal of experience working with young people. Before taking this present position she was head of student work at Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Many of us had the privilege of meeting Miss Foxworth at Montreat this summer and we are so happy to welcome her to our campus.

Queen's Players Organize

The first meeting of the Queens Players met with a huge response from the student body. Thirty-five girls turned out on October 31 to enlist their efforts toward a dramatic club on Queens campus.

Miss Strickland greeted the group and made a talk concerning the aims and purpose of the club. She stated that the club would be limited to forty-five girls and those veterans who are interested in the club. The veterans' presence is needed in the organization. Miss Strickland further pointed out that the club will be divided into three major fields: play production, radio, and acting. Each member is asked to concentrate in one field, but there will be ample opportunities for everyone in all three during the year.

A steering committee was appointed to nominate a slate of officers for the club. Florence Robinson was chairman, and Elizabeth Beall, Meredith Henry, and Arnette Avery served on the committee.

The slate nominated was as follows:

President—Edwina McDill.

(Continued on page 5)

Outstanding Students Are Honored

Buford Bobbitt, Eleanor Huske, Cathey Leeper, Betty McMurray, Ruth Magrath, and Betty Sue Trulock have been nominated by a committee of students and faculty members to represent Queens College in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Who's Who is a national honorary organization to which over 600 American colleges and universities elect representatives. The number of representatives to be elected is determined by the enrollment of the institution.

The purpose of Who's Who is to serve as an incentive to students for getting the most out of their careers, as a means of compensation to students for what they have done, as a standard of measurement for students, and as a recommendation of students to the business world.

Character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and potentiality for future usefulness to business and society are requisites for membership. Queens is proud that six of its student body have more than amply met these requirements.

Each of the nominated young women is outstanding in character, in scholarship, and in leadership abilities. The extra-curricular activities and honors of these Queens include:

Buford Bobbitt—W.C.U.N.C. 1, 2; Freshman Commission; Legislature, 2. Queens College 3, 4; Blues Staff; Coronet Staff; Legislature; Vice-President of Student Government representing Day Students; Day Student Council, Honor Council, Alpha Kappa Gamma. One of the many Char-

(Continued on page 5)

Calendar Of Events

(Note: Beginning with this issue of The Blues, the Student calendar and the Social calendar will be combined into one general Calendar of Events.)

November 14th—Alumni Homecoming and Founder's Day.

November 15th—Big party for entire student body sponsored jointly by Boarding and Day Student Governments.

November 15th—Methodist Retreat at Sunny Acres.

November 18th—Charlotte Council of International Relations meets at Queens.

November 19th—North Carolina College Conference begins. (Administration will attend as Queens representatives.)

November 21st—Sorority Sing and Open House. Lounge and recreation rooms will be open.

November 22nd—Rehearsal for Stunt Night.

November 25th—Stunt Night.

November 27th—Thanksgiving Day Holiday. Wake Forest vs. University of South Carolina. Open House following the game sponsored by Pan-Hellenic Council.