College Choir Gives Program

On Sunday, March 18, at 5:00 p. m. the Queens College Choir journeyed to Concord, North Carolina. The choral group, directed by John A. Holliday, sang at the Presbyterian Church there. Jane Tipton, soprano, Roberta Jones, soprano, and Catherine Edgerton, contralto, were the soloists in the choir's presentation of Britten's popular "A Ceremony of Carols." E. Lindsey Merrill played a violin interlude at the same presentation. June Faulk was the choir's accompanist. The program, that which was used on the choir's recent tour in West Virginia, was as follows:

- I
Pueri Hebraeorum.....Palestrino
Lord, What Thou Sendest Me
Rein
O Lord, Increase My Faith.....Gibbone
To Us Salvation Now Has Come

Fashions . . .

"Spring is sprung,
The grass is riz,
Wonder what the fashions is?"
With the many signs of spring in the air perplexing them, Queens' students are doubtful as to what to wear during this in-between season. Kitty Sue seems to have found a solution to the problem in a lavender corduroy suit which can be worn effectively on or off the campus. Speaking of lavender clothes, Betty Lipe's two piece dress consisting of a lavender wool jersey blouse with small rhinestone buttons and a purple velvet skirt is just the thing for those special week-end dates. Maritza de Obarrio looked stunning at the Spring Formal in her ankle length creation of purple net with matching stole. Knitted suits can serve many purposes ranging from church to Friday night dress, and Ann Clark can appropriately attend either and all in her aqua knitted suit. Beth Dobbin's two piece grey wool jersey is very serviceable as it can be interchanged with other skirts and blouses. Moppy Harrison was seen wearing a bright red corduroy jumper, while Wanda Oxner donned a red jerkin with a dark brown skirt and a perky white blouse.

Among the lovely Southern bells attending the Spring dance were Judy Frierson in a white ruffled organdy, Micky Butler in a fluffy jonquill yellow dress and Jackie Henley in an illusion of ice green net. Doris Dixon resembled a painted Dresden doll in an aqua ankle-length dress, and Dot Guy made a striking impression in her bright crimson formal.
"Spring is sprung,
The grass is riz,
This is what the fashion is."

Sporting . . . Around . . . Queens

Betty Pratt
An annual affair at Queens College is the varsity basketball game played between Queens and Catawba College in Salisbury. This year Anne Clark, Joyce Tucker, Judy Frierson, Trudy Jennings, Sis Bid-dix, Sarah McMahan, Ann Buggle, Bunny Fowler, Evie Lyons, Dot Guy, Jackie Henley, Dottie Saunders, Mary Hirst Carson, Dot Wilson, Maritza De Obarrio, Pat Hill, Betty Pratt, Joyce Wallace, and Mary Waters were selected to play on the varsity team. Although we think our varsity is pretty good, the Catawba girls had a slight edge during the first game winning 32 to 10. Dot Guy was high scorer in this game. However, during the second game our own team paid them back with a score of 33 to 23. Trudy Jennings was high scorer in this game.

I think every girl here will agree that there is no season like basketball season, and this year mother favor with all the warm weather. nature has been definitely in our On March ninth the first big game was played with North winning over South—much to the surprise of the upperclassmen.

As we all know it is still undecided what will be done with the one hundred and fifty thousand dollars that Mr. David Owens has given to Queens. And we all know how desperately we need a new gymnasium. Think how wonderful it would be to have a swimming pool right here on campus. Think how wonderful it would be to have all the equipment that would go with a brand new gym. It is certainly true that if the members of the student body let it be known that they wish the money to be spent this way, then I am sure that the board of trustees will take into consideration our wishes. But we must remember unless we make our wishes known and unless we impress them upon the people in whose hands they will do the most good, then how can they possibly know what the student body wants?

Queens College Entertains High School Students

Queens College entertained approximately two hundred fifty high school students during the week end of March 9-11. The visitors included students from the senior high schools of Mecklenburg County and from other towns in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee.

The Mecklenburg County visitors were entertained at the play The Heiress, which was given on Friday afternoon by the Queens Players. They were served tea in Blair Union, taken on a tour of the campus, and introduced to various administrative officers and heads of departments, who talked with them about vocational opportunities and related courses of instruction at Queens College.

The out-of-county students continued their visit through lunch on Sunday. They, too, witnessed a performance of The Heiress on Saturday evening. Other special features of the week end included after-dinner coffee on Friday night, sponsored by the Pan Hellenic Council; a basketball game on Saturday; and a buffet supper on Saturday evening, sponsored by the Home Economics Department. Each visitor was entertained in the dormitory by a student hostess, who showed her points of interest on the campus, such as the new Stultz Building, the center of Family and Community Studies. All classes were opened to the guests, and administrative officers held conferences with those who wished to discuss academic courses.
