Awards Presented At Band Concert

Webb Senior High Band and Oxford Junior High Band presented a joint concert Tuesday night, May 2, at 8 o'clock in the Webb gym. The concert was directed by Mr. Joe Edwards.

Highlights of the concert were the presentation of the awards. Susan Barnes, who plays the trumpet, won the John Phillip Sousa Award, and Edgar Watson, who plays the tenor saxophone, won the Most Valuable Player Award from the Woman's Club. The Senior band's concert included the "Festival Prelude," "Strategic Air Command," and selections from "West Side Story." The Junior band played selections such as "Moon River" and others.

The people who came to the concert seemed to thoroughly enjoy an evening filled with music. The band members should all be commended for a concert well performed!

Playboy Theme Featured At Jr.-Sr.

After what seemed like an eternity of waiting for the Seniors, the Junior-Senior Prom was finally held on May 20. And was it ever a success! With a nightclub theme and The Men of Distinction as the main attraction, what wouldn't be?

The nightclub theme was displayed throughout the decorations. A bar served as the refreshment stand with sophomore girls as bunny waitresses, hat and coat check girls and "go-go" dancers. There was a light show on the front side of the gym and a huge mirror chandelier hung from the center of the gym.

The "Men of Distinction" played excellent music from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Almost everyone admitted being pleased with such a good performance.

The Juniors really went all out in their efforts to surpass all Junior-Senior Proms.

Chorus Members Present Concert

One hundred singers in the Webb High School Chorus performed in the Webb Cafeteria on Thursday, May 11, at 8 p.m. The chorus presented a variety of audience-pleasing selections.

The Webb Choruses are under the direction of Miss Gloria Eaton and Mrs. Tapp Hancock. Miss Frieda Middleton, a junior at Webb, was the accompanist.

Three students received trophies for outstanding performance. Ellis Thornton received a permanent trophy for being "most valuable chorus member." Debbie Wheeler won the "Hancock Trophy" which is presented annually to the most talented chorus member. Haywood Smith received a trophy which is given annually for the "most valuable chorus member."

Graduation Plans Are Underway

His sister, Mrs. Nelson Thomas, Jr., lives in Oxford and a niece, Mary Thomas, is a member of the graduating class. Diplomas will be presented by the chairman of the Granville County School Board.

AWARDS DAY

On Thursday, June 1, students will assemble in the gymnasium for the presentation of awards from various departments. Senior citizenship awards will include the D.A.R., Kiwanis, Rotary, A.A.U.W., and Danforth awards. Names of the recipients of the awards will be kept confidential until the program is held.

F.T.A. Members Discuss Politics

On May 10 the F.T.A. Chapter of J. F. Webb met in room 26. At this time each member was given a Political Action Checklist Sheet and a Student Political Attitude Survey Sheet on which they recorded their attitudes toward the political situation in the U. S. Those students who had a question about voting, and other matters, had their questions answered at this time by Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Washington.

News-In-Brief

On April 24th during an assembly in the gym the 1972-73 Marshals were announced. They are Cynthia Currin, Chief, Donna Bryan, Sue Frances Crabtree, Donald Franklin, Rebecca Ison, Crawford Knott, Marshall Seate, Sheila Shearin, Susan Tilley, Paige Timberlake, and Cushen Winston.

Cynthia Currin, one of the more distinguished juniors, has been chosen to attend Governor's School at Winston-Salem, N. C., this summer. Cynthia competed with other students from Webb as well as from all over Granville County. She was chosen on the basis of her academic scores. Congratulations!

The 72-73 Student Council officers were chosen in a recent election. The officers are president, Cathy Graham; vice-president, Rebecca Ison; secretary, Betty Johnson; treasurer, Holt Shotwell. We are looking forward to a successful year.

By the time we go to press, Mr. Maynard will or will not have delighted the Spanish Clubs and Psychology class with a party at his home in Durham. The party featured a band on the patio and all one could eat.

May 9 was a very enjoyable day for Library Club members. Approximately 16-18 went to Butner Lake Shelter and had a spread picnic. They also enjoyed boating on the lake.

The annual this year, entitled Teepee '72, was dedicated to Mrs. Lou Watkins. Mrs. Watkins, an outstanding member of the Webb faculty, teaches mathematics and sponsors the FTA.

Garland Burnett and Elizabeth Neal are crowned emperor and empress of the Latin Club by the retiring rulers, Marshall Seate and Cynthia Currin.

Romans Choose Their New Rulers

Garland Burnette and Elizabeth Neal were crowned rulers for the coming year at the Roman Banquet, April 22nd. They succeed Marshall Seate and Cynthia Currin.

The "slave" sale brought in nearly $450.00, more than in any previous year. Proceeds will be shared with the nineteen "Romans" from Webb and Hix who plan to attend the National JCL Convention at V. P. I. in Blacksburg, Va., in August.

Webb's Latin Club was second runner-up for sweepstake awards at the state convention at Chapel Hill April 7-8. About a dozen students from Oxford were winners in several competitions.

Humanities Class Delights Audience

On May 4, students fortunate enough to view the skit given by the humanities class were really given a treat. The skit entitled "A Little Humor From Humanities" or "The Great Eight." Eight different skits were presented, each a true delight.

One of the more talked about was entitled "Soap Opera." It featured Nan Stovall, who did a great job as a calm and not easily excited mother. Denise Clark and Jerry DeVos portrayed her children. Donald Franklin portrayed the confused and bewildered father. Jan Johnson and Clive Wilson did an excellent job as two policemen, who strangely enough, had the same minds. All of these should be commended for their excellent performance.

Just to mention a few of the other wonderful performances, there is one that couldn't be passed by; that being Bebecca Childs. Rebecca portrayed a lighthouse excellently. Phyllis Hicks and Donald Franklin presented a modern dance which was very intriguing. There were many other performances that were just as good as the above mentioned and everyone who participated should be commended.

Even though the humanities class presented the skits, they couldn't have done it without the help of their advisors, Miss Bettie Adams and Mr. Clive Wilson, who made it possible for the students to see this wonderful presentation.

The fair was sponsored by the science teachers at Webb: Mr. Howard, Mrs. Williams, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Baker. Mr. Howard commented, "I feel that this fair generated interest in this type of activity that will be useful in the future."
